Despite the rainy weather of last night and the threatening outlook this forenoon a great throng of people came to the city from the country districts and towns of the county to see the parade and attend the circus this afternoon and evening. However, the crowd was not so large as it would have been had the weather been more propitious. The parade was a good one and was generally pronounced the best ever given here by the Al G. Barnes circus.

The first game in the Y. M. C. A. league was played last evening at Jackson field. The Christian church team administering a round wallop to the First Methodist ball tossers to the tune of 7 to 3. Rev. Saanett pitched for the Methodist team and Rev. Millard for the Christian. Both served up real big league twirling. The Methodists made two runs in the first inning and were held scoreless by good pitching and fast fielding until the last inning when they added one more to their credit. Rev. Saanett pitched a classy game until the final when he got a bad fall in fielding a grounder. This seemed to upset him as the Christians hit him at will thereafter piling up seven runs. The feature of the game was the wrangling furnished by the Methodist catcher and manager.

Alex Sparrow renewed his youth today by getting up at 4 a. m. and meeting the circus train, seeing it unload and set up at the grounds, then herrying back to up town for a bite of breakfast, hotfooting it back with a couple of sandwiches in his pocket and taking in the rest of the circus sights until that attraction departed during the night. He almost completed a deal with Al G. Barnes to sell his saddle horse for the side show, but the negotiations were called off later by the circus owner, who declared he only showed curiosities in the side show and not monstrosities.
