RIOTS MARK MARINE STRIKE, BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE, May 4.—With police aboard nearly all ships in the harbor police reserves concentrated in waterfront districts and an additional patrol boat in commission today police believe they can handle the situation resulting from the marine workers strike here and prevent repetition of yesterday's serious disturbances. Governor Ritchie is watching developments and may call the state police or National Guard if further trouble occurs. One steamship company will ask the courts for an injunction restraining the strikers from picketing.
