The Screen

At the Rialto
 Merit pervades the whole atmosphere of Allan Dwan's production of "The Scoffer," which opened an engagement at the Rialto theatre yesterday and which may well be listed as one of the very best photodramas of the current season.

While the play in itself is unusual in its power to command undivided attention, artistic acting on the part of no less than ten brilliant photoplayers is an outstanding feature worthy of praise. Mary Thurman, James Kirkwood and Noah Beery share first honors, each of these well-known artists drawing character studies which are memorable. Rhea Mitchell, Philo McCullough, Ward Crane, Eugenie Besserer and Bernard Durning also display rare knowledge of dramatic proportions in enacting the roles entrusted to them, while John Burton and George Stone do their bits faultlessly.

At the Page
 All the romance of Robert Louis Stevenson and the adventure of a Jack London story, yet entirely different in theme, are to be found in "The Adorable Savage," the latest feature starring Edith Roberts, which was shown here for the first time at the Page theatre yesterday.

It has been a long time since the screen has offered a story of the South Sea Islands, and it is doubtful if one has ever been produced with such accuracy and such painstaking attention to detail. The basis of this story is vibrant with dramatic situations, rich in character studies and gives unlimited opportunity for scenic effects. A hurricane in the tropics, the lure of the South Seas, all are shown with remarkable fidelity.

CHANGE PLAY DATES OF 'Y' LEAGUE

The board of control of the Y. M. C. A. Athletic league met Saturday night. In order not to conflict with the Lewis tabernacle meetings for boys and girls on three nights in the week, it was decided to make Junior League playing nights Tuesdays and Fridays instead of Mondays and Fridays as originally planned. The hour is 4:30 and the playing field will be the Jackson grounds until further notice.

Senior league games will also be played at the Jackson grounds and the official hour for scheduled games has been changed to 5:30 until further notice.

Senior league standing:

	Played	Won	Pct.
Baptists	1	1	1.000
Christians	1	1	1.000
Presbyterians	1	0	.000
Methodist, Episco.	1	0	.000
Methodist, South.	0	0	.000

Games this week:
 Senior League
 May 10, Methodist S. vs. Christians.
 May 13, Methodist Episc. vs. Baptists.
 Junior League
 May 10, Methodist Episc. vs. Christians.
 May 13, Presbyterians vs. Baptists.

REV. F. R. LEACH NAMED BAPTIST MODERATOR

The Rogue River Baptist association which was held with the Baptist church of this city Saturday and Sunday was a success from every point of view. As usual a number of speakers from abroad were present, which gave a high tone to the meetings. The local Baptists showed every courtesy possible to the visitors, giving them a sightseeing trip about the city, and Sunday served a complimentary dinner to some ninety of the delegates and visitors. Rev. F. R. Leach was elected moderator and preacher of the annual sermon for next year. The association will meet at Ashland next year.

HUNDREDS HEAR BULGIN MESSAGE ON HOLY WRIT

Several hundred were turned away from the tabernacle Sunday evening. Every seat was taken, boys and girls were seated on the platform, and many stood. A great compliment to Dr. Bulgin's powerful discourse was shown in that these people stood for some three hours, desiring to hear what was considered the greatest discourse on the Bible ever delivered in Medford. The logic and argument were so convincing that at the close as an expression of feeling existing Dr. Bulgin asked all who were ready to accept the Christ of the Bible to indicate it by show of hands and more than fifty raised their hands. This indicates the great interest now existing, and shows that Medford will have no small revival, if the church members do their part. For some thirty minutes the large chorus choir sang inspirational songs. It was a great service, one worth going miles to attend.

The coming week will be a full week with special messages each night.

Tonight the subject will be "If I Were the Devil, What in Hell Would I Do?" Dr. Bulgin impersonates the devil. It will be a unique message.

Tuesday will be Odd Fellows night. Subject being, "Jonathan and David." Wednesday night, "Knights of Pythias" and the subject, "What I Believe and Why I Believe It." Thursday the Masons and members of the chamber of commerce are invited, when Dr. Bulgin gives his great Chautauqua lecture, "The Man of Galilee." Friday night's lecture will draw a great crowd when Dr. Bulgin will speak "So-Called Christian Science, or the Modern Guinea Pig."

Among the good things in the sermon Sunday are the following:

"The Bible stands or falls together."
 "If there is anything this country needs it is to get back to the Puritanic faith of our fathers."
 "If the Bible were not God's book it would not be here today."
 "The Bible has been attacked by gifted pens and by eloquent tongues and by scholars in our modern colleges and universities but it is still here."
 "If all the Bibles in the world were destroyed we could reproduce a new one from the profane writings of the day."
 "The Bible out of art and you will have no art left."
 "We have been having jazz in music; we have been having jazz in pleasures; we have been having jazz also in morals."

"If the Bible had not been inspired it would have been knocked out."
 "I believe the Bible because it solves the great mysteries of life. It tells us who I am, where I am and where I am going. Science cannot answer a single one of these questions."
 "If you want to say when you pray, 'Our Father which art up in a cocoon tree,' go ahead."
 "I defy you to find a gem in literature that is not stolen from the Bible."
 "God wrote the Bible in two languages, then destroyed the languages that the meaning of the Bible might not be changed."
 "That the Bible was inspired by the Holy Ghost is proven by the fact that only men filled with the Holy Ghost can get anything out of the Bible."
 "In the land where they have no Bible women are slaves. In the land where they have Bibles woman is man's equal."
 "Here is a literature that lifts man up to God; then it must be from God."
 The union young people's meeting at the Christian church was well attended. The feature of the meeting was a number of two-minute sermons which were given by various young people and then criticized by the audience. They all showed ability and skill.

At 2:30 p. m. a good audience gathered to hear a fine message on "Love Your Enemies." Dr. Bulgin gave a clear cut expositional treatment of the subject, and plainly showed the meaning of Christ when He said love your enemies. Morning prayer meetings will be continued this week, also the Sunshine chorus Wednesday and Friday afternoons. People who want to hear sermons that speak to the intellect will find much satisfaction and pleasure in going to these meetings.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan

The Ford Sedan, with an electric strating and lighting system is very popular among the people of Rogue River Valley. It is a permanently enclosed car with plenty of shade. To women it brings the convenience and luxury of an electric with durability, dependability and economy of the Ford.

Come in and see this wonderful car—ask for demonstration. You cannot help but be impressed by the moderate cost, beauty and strength of the Ford Sedan.

BULGIN TO TALK TO FORUM MEETING

Dr. E. J. Bulgin will address the members of the Medford Chamber of Commerce at their forum next Wednesday on "City Building from Four Angles."

While conducting evangelistic services at Roseburg recently and also while at Klamath Falls during the expansion campaign of the Klamath Falls chamber of commerce, Dr. Bulgin did much toward strengthening their commercial organizations as he is a firm believer of organized effort toward community building.

At Roseburg, where even the most substantial citizens for the past few years believed they could not get together on a common ground, he was instrumental in assisting their chamber of commerce to secure 500 members. While at Klamath Falls, the American City Bureau were reorganizing the chamber of commerce, he threw his full strength into the campaign to assist them which resulted in their obtaining a membership of 622 at $25 annual dues.

The citizens of Medford are solid in the idea of the necessity of having a live chamber of commerce and therefore his talk here will not be one calling upon members to join, but rather along the lines of what is necessary for the membership to do after they are bound together in a strong organization, to make their city of greater importance commercially and a better place in which to live.

The forum will be held at the Holland hotel on Wednesday noon.

VOLLEY TEAMS PLAY AGAIN TUESDAY EVE.

The return volley ball match of the Ashland Y. M. C. A. vs. the local Elks team will be played here Tuesday night. The local men are in hopes of reversing the score on this occasion, as the Ashland team won two out of three games in the last contest. Present plans call for two teams of four men each, each playing opponents team a set of three games. Edwin Janney is captain of Medford team and one of the stars of the game. Fred Engle, of the Citizens' bank, captains the visitors.
