

PORTLAND MAN GAINS 25 POUNDS TAKING TANLAC

"Tanlac certainly proved to be the medicine I needed for since I began taking it I have gained twenty-five pounds and am ready to go back to work," said Andy Towles, 522 Market street, Portland.

"For two years before I started taking Tanlac I had suffered from stomach trouble and rheumatism. My appetite was poor and the little I did manage to eat wouldn't digest and made me miserable for hours afterwards. Gas would form on my stomach and press against my heart and lungs until I could hardly breathe and often I just had to gasp for breath. I was always constipated, had awful headaches, there was a roaring noise in my head and I often became so dizzy I could hardly stand on my feet. The rheumatism in my back and legs was so bad I was nearly always in pain and my joints were so stiff I could scarcely use my limbs. Finally I became so nervous, run-down and weak I just had to give up and quit work entirely.

"A friend of mine in Seattle, told me of the benefits he had received from Tanlac and I decided to try it myself. Well, sir, it has done me so much good my friends all ask me what I have been taking to make me look so well, and I mightily quick tell them it was Tanlac. I now have a splendid appetite, everything agrees with me and I am never troubled with gas or shortness of breath. The rheumatism has left me entirely, and I can get around as good as I ever could. I am not bothered with constipation, never have a headache or dizzy spell, and that peculiar roaring has gone from my head. My nerves are in good shape, I sleep well, have regained my lost weight and strength and feel simply fine all the time."

The tenth annual number of "The Rogue," by the students of the Ashland high school, was issued May 7th and is one of the best edited and most artistic editions that will be issued on the coast this year. It is a splendid tribute to the staff and especially to Edgar Buchanan, editor-in-chief, and Benjamin C. Forsythe, principal of the high school who had personal charge of publishing the same. The edition is dedicated to Walter Hughes, the efficient coach.

The annual consists of 96 pages printed on the highest class enameled book paper, printed in two colors, with a handsome Crater Lake blue cover. There are 62 cuts consisting of panels, pictures of the seniors and juniors, snapshots of seniors: "When the great were young," group pictures of sophomore class and officers, freshman class and officers, Rogue staff, debating, basket ball and football teams, anniversary play, girls' glee club, orchestra, high school faculty, pictures of a park scene, school buildings, Supt. G. A. Briscoe, Coach Hughes and other views.

MEDFORD ELKS IN DOUBLE VICTORY

The return game in the volley ball series between Medford Elks and the Ashland Y. M. C. A. was played last night on the locals' floor.

The first series was between the first teams. The first game of the series was a neck-and-neck affair all the way, every point being hard fought with Ashland finally nosing out a victory with a score of 21 to 18.

The second game was rather loosely played with Ashland constantly on the defensive. Medford took the lead from the start and was never headed. Score, Medford 21, Ashland 7.

The visitors braced again in the third game and won handily. Score Ashland 13, Medford 21.

Personnel of teams: Medford—E. Janney, G. Taylor, F. Janney, C. Meeker. Ashland—F. Engle, V. Smith, C. Darling, J. McCoy.

The second series was a romp all the way with lots of fun but very little team work. Medford had the edge and had little difficulty in winning the first two games which automatically dispensed with the third scheduled.

Score, first game: Medford 21, Ashland 11.

Score second game, Medford 21, Ashland 9.

Personnel of teams: Medford—V. Vawter, E. Janney, F. Farrell, B. Elliott. Ashland—E. Weren, H. Billings, I. Williams, H. Elbart.

Light refreshments were served after the game.
