How Miserable This Woman Was
Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

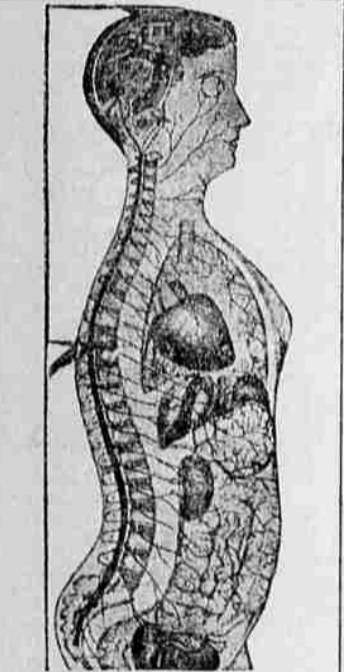

Toomsboro, Ga.—"I suffered terribly with backache and headache all the time, was so weak and nervous I didn't know what to do, and could not do my work. My trouble was deficient and irregular periods. I read in the papers that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to give it a trial. I got good results from its use so that I am now able to do my work. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to mine and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. C. F. PHILLIPS, Toomsboro, Ga.

DR. BULGIN CLOSES HIS SECOND WEEK WITH TALK ON HELL

Sunday marked the close of the second week of the Bulgin-Lewis tabernacle meetings. Dr. Bulgin's appeal was largely to the intellect, and incidentally to the emotions. Sunday afternoon the rain interfered with the presentation of the message, but tonight some things not delivered with be presented in connection with his address on "Neighborhood Scraps, or Dr. Jaekel and Mr. Hyde." A delegation from Central Point will be present in a body. Tuesday night the Elks will attend.

At the close of a powerful and logical sermon on "Is There a Hell?" some thirty came forward making a public confession of Christ, and many others showed interest, indicating that there will be a large number who will line up with the higher things in life. If any one came, and the tabernacle was filled with more than a hundred standing through the entire service, expecting that the speaker would stand for a literal hell of fire and brimstone they were disappointed. No one could get away from the force of the argument that suffering and punishment must and does follow wrong doing in this and the life to come, if God is a God of love and justice. The appeal was the stronger because of the way in which it was presented, leaving no ground for the critic to stand on. Among other striking sayings are the following:

"If there is a heaven and Jesus tells the truth there is a hell, for Jesus speaks over sixty times of such a place."
"If sin and hell are not what they are pictured, why did God rob heaven of its great treasure?"
"Why does the Universalist church decrease in numbers? It is because God does not need a church to tell the world there is no hell."
"A man looking at a new church building remarked, 'does not that beat the devil.' 'That is what it is for' was the reply."
"God never said that he would damn any person. If you are ever damned you will damn yourself."
"God takes His children home to heaven, and the devil takes his home to hell. Who is your father?"
"The holiness of God demands a hell."
"God could not be anything but a holy God," so could not have an unholy man in heaven. "There must therefore be a hell."
"Hell is proportioned to the sin committed."
"Girls who ought to be home at 8 o'clock eating bread and milk, and at 8:30 in bed are running about your streets and are on the public dance floors."
"Hell is the sinner's own place by choice."
"Hell is the sinner's own place by fitness."
"Hell is the sinner's choice by wages."
"Be born again and stay out of hell is the conclusion."
"God would not put some of you in heaven, because you do not know the language of heaven."
"It is up to every man to say if he wants to go to heaven or hell."
"You cannot go to heaven by your good works. If you go it will be by the finished works of Jesus Christ, and with a pardon in your hands."
"If you serve the devil he will take your money; he will take your mind; he will take your soul; then don't blame God if you go to hell."
"The description of hell is a figure—a shadow, but did you ever see a shadow of a dog where there was no dog?"
"The doctrine of hell is a shadow, but how much worse is the thing than the shadow."
"The same artist that painted heaven painted hell. If he failed in the one he must have failed in the other."
Complimentary luncheons for the working women will be served by the ladies of the various churches Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 11 to 2 o'clock at the Christian church, and Friday at 6 p. m. Cars will call for the guests and take them back to their work. A continuous program will be in progress while the meals are being served. A big church parade will take place next Sunday at 2 p. m.

Latest Arrivals at Auto Camp Grounds

Two hundred visitors were registered at the city auto camp last week by William Davis, the caretaker, and last night 17 cars of tourists were encamped at the grounds. These figures are large when it is considered that the auto tourist season is only beginning, and again illustrates the necessity for Medford having a large and well equipped city auto camp.

The auto tourist business is a big asset to the city as has been realized by those who have watched it for a year or two and seen its rapid increase. Each car of tourists spends considerable money in the city for groceries, milk, gas, oil, auto accessories, and auto repairs, to say nothing of odds and ends in the way of clothing and drug store supplies.

Of the 200 persons here last week about half remained from one to three days, and the rest at least overnight.

Sunday arrivals included the following:
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vizan of San Francisco, en route to Vancouver, B. C.; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cookman and three children of Portland, en route home from the south; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cannon and three children of Grants Pass, spending the day here; Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Shellburne of Alma, Neb., en route from the south to Portland; Mr. and Mrs. David Muir of Portland en route home from the south; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Michael and six children of Post Falls, Ida., Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Millar of Post Falls, Ida., and Mrs. A. J. Murray and four children of Post Falls, all en route to California; Mr. and Mrs. E. Wallart and two children of Furns, Calif., en route north; Mr. and Mrs. W. Henderson of Portland, en route south; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Capka and child of San Diego, en route to Oregon City, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young and three children of San Diego, en route to Oregon City.

President Scenic Preservation Will Speak at Forum

Benj. F. Linds, president of the Scenic Preservation Association of Jackson County will at the forum of the Medford chamber of commerce tell the members of the objects of this association, what has been accomplished and to what extent the movement of scenic preservation will develop in the state.
Like every movement which has as its object the creation of a sentiment toward a certain object, the work of the local association has been slow in being accepted by many residents of the county. Progress has been made and a greater number of citizens are becoming interested as was shown by the attendance at the regular meeting last month at Central Point where the Relief Corps hall in which the dinner was served was filled to capacity.
The association, after being organized by the committee of the chamber of commerce has financed itself by the sale of one dollar memberships in the association. Very little money is required to bring about the object of the association, but it is important that every citizen in the county understand its object and assist in the work which will be thoroughly explained at the forum.

Meeting at Jacksonville
The fourth of a series of meetings being held in different communities of the county by the Scenic Preservation Association of Jackson County will be held at Jacksonville next Friday, May 20th.
A fifty cent dinner will be served at noon at the Odd Fellows hall by the Native Daughters of Jacksonville and that in itself ought to be a sufficient attraction to assure a large attendance at the meeting of the preservation association which immediately follows the dinner.
Louis Ulrich, representing the board of trustees of the association has the arrangements in charge and promises a large attendance of residents of Jacksonville and vicinity.
There has been a keen interest shown in the work of the Scenic Preservation association by many residents of Jacksonville and as that community has many legendary incidents connected with its early history, these residents are particularly interested in the preservation of not alone the scenery of that locality but also of the historical data and relics of early day events.

Car Robbers Escape After Thrilling Race

Under the very eyes of the owner two men stole the Chevrolet car of Harley Dunn at Talent late Saturday night and started with it for Medford. In the pursuit which followed the thieves wrecked the car at Phoenix and escaped, leaving behind as the only clue a cap which had been worn by one of them.
Mr. Dunn arrived home at 11 o'clock Saturday night, left the car standing in front of his home locked, and entered the house. A moment later he was surprised to hear the car start away and rushing out shouted to the thieves to stop. His shouts only caused them to speed up.
Hastily notifying Harry Mason, a neighbor, Dunn and Mason started in pursuit in Mason's Chevrolet and in the meantime others phoned to the Medford police to watch for the car. The race was Chevrolet against Chevrolet with disregard of all speed laws, but the pursuing car apparently was much the faster and gained so steadily and consistently on the thieves that the latter in trying to make the turn onto a side road at Phoenix, either intentionally or accidentally, ran into a stone pile. The stolen car, which was insured for $500, and was practically new, is almost a complete wreck.
So far as is known the thieves were unhurt, which is considered miraculous in view of the speed at which the car was going and its wrecked condition. One theory is that the thieves, realizing they could not get away with the theft, left the car and then ran it at full speed into the stone pile.

City Hall Flag at Half Mast in Honor of Heroes

Final tribute to three of the Medford soldiers who lost their lives on the battle fields of France, will be paid in this city under the auspices of the American Legion, this month. The city hall flag is flying at half mast in honor of these departed heroes.

The services for Private Carl C. Dunham, Company A, 28th Infantry, and Van Allen Cornish, Company B, 28th Infantry, will be held tomorrow afternoon. The American Legion post, through Commander Frank P. Farrell, has requested that the business houses of the city, close as a mark of respect, between the hours of 2:30 and 3:30 p. m. The American Legion will take charge after services at the funeral chapels.
Separate funeral services will be held, with joint services at the grave in the cemetery in charge of the American Legion post immediately afterward. The Cornish funeral will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the Weeks & Conzer chapel, Rev. E. P. Lawrence officiating. The Dunham funeral will be held at the same hour in the chapel of the Perl Funeral Home.
The funeral services of Russell Simon Hawk, Fifth Marines, killed in action at Chautau Theiry, will be held Memorial Day.
Van Allen Cornish was born in Medford, Dec. 23rd, 1890, and his home was in Klamath Falls, prior to his marriage June 3rd, 1917, to Miss Loraine Bilton of this city, and his enlistment in the 28th Infantry, October 4th, 1917. His regiment arrived in France in December, 1917. He was killed in action July 23rd, 1918, at the battle of Chautau Theiry, the same battle in which Carl Dunham lost his life.

Mr. D. C. Newcomb, 704 N. 4th Ave., Atchison, Kan., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:
"My next birthday is July 14th—80 years old. Have used Tyrrell's 'J. B. L. Cascade' for more than 20 years. Best and only remedy that brings relief without the use of drugs. My experience proved that it always relieves. No danger from it. My ailments were principally Uric Acid, Biliousness, Constipation, etc."
This is by no means an exceptional letter for Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute to receive, as there are now over half a million Americans using Dr. Tyrrell's "J. B. L. Cascade" with like results.
By the scientific use of Nature's cleanser—warm water—it eliminates all poisonous waste from the lower intestine and gives Nature a chance to work unhampered.
You will be astonished at the difference in your feelings the morning after an internal bath.
The "J. B. L. Cascade" will be shown and explained to you by West Side Pharmacy, Main and Grape streets, who will also give you free, on request, an interesting booklet by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent Efficient."
Get this booklet and know just why internal bathing is so effective in the promotion of better health.
