

FALL OF BABYLON TONIGHT'S TOPIC BY DR. BULGIN

Tonight at the tabernacle Dr. Bulgin will speak on "The Fall of Babylon". This is considered one of the evangelist's strongest messages and should be heard by all who desire to hear something of more than ordinary interest. It will appear to the Masons and Eastern Star, who are invited to attend this service, Thursday night Dr. Bulgin speaks on "What Must I Do to Be Saved?" Sunday the big church parade takes place. Starting from the tabernacle at 2 p. m. Everybody who is willing to march or go by auto is asked to be there at that hour. This has usually been a great feature of the campaign in other cities.

Following a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dr. Bulgin spoke on "The Greatest Organization in the World," giving reasons why the church is different from every other organization. Some people, the speaker said, look upon the church as man made and man organized; whereas it is the only divine institution in the world. There is a world of difference between the church and the by-products of the church. The Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A. the Sunday school and other kind organizations are good, but they are not divine. They are the products of the church.

The power of the church is not the money it has, but spiritual dynamism. The church was founded, not on any creed, or on what man has said, but on what Jesus was, and on His resurrection. The minister is not the conscience or the will of the people, but merely an ambassador of God. Since the church is a divine institution when you break the mandates of the church you are violating not the commands of the preacher, but of God Almighty. Some people think that the church can be run by money. It is no credit to any church to brag that they have the most rich people, or the most cultured people in the community. When you have a church that can reach the poor then you have a church that is spiritual. I believe in apostolic succession when there is apostolic success. When the church is not run by divine force it is not run at all; neither will a church that has no discipline run very long. Clean out of your church a lot of the dead weight material and begin over, and you will have a stronger church.

The church is the mother of every good institution.

The world needs the influence of the church. Had a thousand missionaries been sent to Russia, Russia could have licked Germany alone. There is not a home on earth which has been broken up, but what could have been kept together had religion been there.

The sermon showed how essential the church is, and how it represents Christ on earth, and should be preserved and joined by every professing Christian.

GRATEFUL WOMEN

Gratitude and appreciation for health restored by that good old-fashioned root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is what prompts so many women from all parts of the country to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., of Lynn, Mass., the letters of praise which we publish from time to time. Women who have always had their health cannot realize what it means to others, many of whom have suffered months and even years from such ailments, and are now well and happy through the use of this natural restorative, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Adv.

ASHLAND HIGH S. EXERCISES HELD THURSDAY NIGHT

ASHLAND, May 18.—To be, rather than seem, is the motto of the class of 1921, Ashland high school, which graduates, 43 members strong, on Thursday evening, May 19, at the armory. In membership the representation is overwhelmingly "girly," less than a dozen boys figuring on the roll. The class flower is the chrysanthemum, and class colors are lemon and green.

This commencement is the thirtieth annual event of the high school institution. The address will be delivered by J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, the diplomas being presented by Dr. G. W. Gregg, Rev. C. F. Koehler, Presbyterian pastor, will deliver both invocation and benediction. Musical accompaniments will be very appropriately, be rendered by orchestra and glee club, the personnel of each organization being confined exclusively to high school talent. The initial selection will be that incentive to patriotic fervor, Sousa's "The Pythian March." The class prophesy this year will be given by Mingsus Aitken, and the school cantata is anticipating some highly interesting developments in connection with this prophetic forecast, Mingsus having been intently gazing through the horoscope for some time past in gathering data upon which to found absolutely reliable predictions. The floral problem confronts the schools to some extent this spring, the market being short on roses, while the chrysanthemum, the class flower, is a bit out of season. The void will be filled, however, by a generous assortment of variegated buds and blossoms.

The class roll is as follows: Etha Abbott, Marjorie Adamson, Mingsus Aitken, Breda Bradshaw, Alice Brown, Edgar Buchanan, Kee Buchanan, Venetta Burns, Lella Carlton, Jennie Dowd, Ida Elder, Ruth Hake, Jennie Flackus, Wynne Gammon, Marjorie Gillette, Hazel Green, Ethel Haackler, Nellie Hake, George High, Dorothy Hoag, John Hoyt, Mildred Kaegi, Doris Kleinhammer, Grace Leslie, Elizabeth Lennox, Bessie McMillan, June McFadyen, Ralph Moore, Sadie Payne, Nellie Quinn, Inez Reeder, Louise Ridley, George Ross, Dorothy Tinker, Lloyd Shriner, Alice Slingerland, Ross Small, Mae Smith, Florence Van Dyke, Alice Walker, Frank Walker, Guy Wolcott, Bernice Yeo.

"The Rogue," the high school annual for the current year, has been published and has passed into scholastic history. The edition was on a "subscription" basis, with but few copies for general distribution, hence the merits of the publication are not available to a wide circulation. The book, however, is said to be a fine one, and in keeping with the traditions and high ideals of the student body. The volume was printed this year at Medford, its workmanship being elaborate as to letterpress and illustrations.

MAYOR GATES ENDORSES 'THE INSIDE OF THE CUP'

"I had the pleasure of witnessing Winston Churchill's great story 'The Inside of the Cup' which will be shown at the Page for four days beginning tomorrow, at a pre-review yesterday morning and only wish that I were able to purchase a ticket for every man and woman in Medford so that they might see it.

"The doctrine of the helping hand which 'The Inside of the Cup' splendidly expounds, is one that has great appeal and such a story cannot fail to inspire belief in the heart of the brotherhood of Man as one of the great salutary forces for good in our modern civilization.

"The story tells the absolute truth and the power of truth, in book or screen, cannot be denied. The theme is developing in a strong dramatic story which lends itself admirably to the screen, the strength of the theme, is that of practical Christianity.—C. E. Gates.

OBITUARY.

HINKLE—Matilda A. Hinkle died at her home in Jacksonville, Ore., May 18 of neuritis of the heart, aged 72 years. Mrs. Hinkle was a native of Iowa, the family coming to Jacksonville 25 years ago, and she had been a resident of Oregon for 50 years. She was a member of the Royal Neighbors and Methodist church. She leaves one son and one daughter, who are of Jacksonville, Casper Hinkle, and Mrs. Jennie Ruch of Rich, Ore. The funeral services will be held at the Methodist church at Jacksonville Thursday at 2:30 p. m. Interment in the Jacksonville cemetery.

SCOTT—Chas. Scott died at his home in Sams valley on May 17, from cancer, at the age of 64 years. He was a native of Scotland and is survived by his wife, Belle, and daughter, Mrs. Eva Coffey, both of Sams valley. He had resided in Oregon for the past 14 years and in Sams valley for seven years, having come there from Eastern Oregon. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, May 18, and the interment was in the Sams valley cemetery.

THE CITY SCHOOLS SHOULD HELP IN CLEAN-UP MOVE

Better citizenship should start with the boys and the girls. When today's junior citizens become responsible, a few years hence, for the welfare of their communities, will they have had any actual training in practical community needs and efforts?

The testimony of many school superintendents and teachers is that nothing so arouses and enlists a youngster's civic interest and pride, and his sense of personal responsibility therein, as a well-organized Clean-up and Keep-it-Up campaign that gives them definite work and visible results in the improvement of conditions and appearances about the school and the home and in his block and neighborhood.

Therefore the children deserve more than slight and trivial recognition and responsibility in this campaign, which teaches them—and many of their elders!—the primary lessons in making and keeping homes, yards, gardens and neighborhoods clean and sanitary and attractive, and in bringing to the children living and "growing" conditions that enable the schools to deliver to the community a worthwhile human product.

Without the outspoken approval and the active cooperation of the school officials the children cannot be given the important place in the campaign that they deserve. Almost everywhere, however, these officials agree with John D. Shoop, superintendent of schools in Chicago, who said: "The maintenance of a clean city a problem of education. The Clean Up and Paint Up campaign deserves the earnest cooperation of everyone."

This is the first week of the campaign and the superintendent, principals and teachers of the schools should put into actual practice the methods.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT WOMEN'S LUNCHEON

The business women of the city enjoyed today another complimentary luncheon at the Christian church. The ladies of the Christian church served a delicious luncheon to over 225 women. A continuous program of music was given as follows: Instrumental solo, Miss Gertrude Bradbury; vocal solo, Miss Sadie Lacy; piano solo Winifred Clancy; vocal solo, Mrs. Ethel Evans Lewis; vocal solo, Mrs. A. Warnock; piano solo, Mrs. Hawley Moore.

Mrs. Lewis gave another of her very helpful talks to the girls. The ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve the luncheon Thursday and every working woman and girl is expected to be present.
