

LINDAS' ADDRESS ON PRESERVATION SCENERY DELIGHTS

There are so many people who can see only so many feet of lumber in the vast forests and figure the red-cragged hills only from the view point of how much building material it would yield and therefore it is the duty of the scenic preservation association to deal entirely with the esthetic side of the question. This was the theme of an address by Benj. F. Lindas, president of the association, at the Medford Chamber of Commerce forum.

A rising vote of thanks was given President Lindas for the masterly address and it was requested that he permit its publication in order that others may have the pleasure of understanding the importance of scenic preservation.

This generation is too apt to look at everything commercially and without a thought of the injury that is being done to future generations, said Mr. Lindas. A tree to many is looked upon as yielding just so much fire wood and many of them have been chopped down along our highways for that purpose and the scenic resources of the county marred to an alarming extent.

Col. Robt. A. Miller of Portland, was a guest of the forum and in an interesting manner related his boyhood admiration for southern Oregon.

The forum was presided over by Dr. F. G. Carlow and among the other of town guests were W. R. Merrick, Miss Stella M. Merrick of Long Beach, Cal., and Mrs. W. P. Chisum of Santa Anna, Cal.

Meet at Jacksonville
Jacksonville is the meeting place for the scenic preservation association for this month. This meeting will be held tomorrow noon at the Odd Fellows hall where the Native Daughters of Jacksonville will serve a fifty cent dinner. Any citizen of the county is welcome to participate in the dinner and in the meeting of the association which follows same.

Medford citizens will find here an opportunity to meet the residents of their suburb—at least that is what Col. Sargent said Jacksonville is—and renew their friendships and permit a united effort in what is of importance to all, that of conserving the scenic resources of southern Oregon.

Residents of Jacksonville are especially invited to be in attendance in order that they may receive the message which the association brings.

HEALTH FOR WORKING GIRLS

Those Who Suffer and Are Unable to Work Need Helpful Suggestions

Springfield, Ill. — "I had periodic trouble with weakness, cramps and backache and I could not work. A neighbor recommended your medicine and I took four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now strong and well, able to work, and recommend your medicine to my friends." — ANNA FRANKUS, R. R. No. 8, Springfield, Ill.

Why will girls continue to suffer month in and month out as Miss Frankus did when case after case is related where Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has removed the cause of the trouble and brought good health. For more than forty years this old fashioned root and herb medicine has been the standard remedy for such ailments, and has the record of having restored more suffering women to health than any other medicine.

If there is any complication about your condition you do not understand write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts, in regard to your health.

'WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED' IS REVIVAL TOPIC

Tonight at the tabernacle Dr. Bulgin will speak on "What Must I do to be saved." The sermon will be of special help to many who are not sure how men are saved.

Much unfounded prejudice exists relative to Dr. Bulgin's work. Medford never has had a more sane, and powerful evangelist than she has in Dr. Bulgin. Friday night the working women will be entertained at the Christian church with a supper, served by the Baptist women, after which they will go to the Tabernacle in a body and listen to a sermon on "How to Be Beautiful, or the Test of Character." This noon the women were served a luncheon by the Presbyterian and South Methodist ladies. Sunday at 2 p. m., a big church parade will take place. The citizens are urged to be out and witness the demonstration in behalf of the better things in Medford.

Last night the Masons and Eastern Star were the guests at the Tabernacle. A goodly number turned out, and enjoyed a great sermon by Dr. Bulgin on "The Fall of Babylon." Mr. and Mrs. Lewis sang a duet, and Mrs. Lewis a solo to the delight of everybody. "Weighed in the Balance and Found Wanting" was the text of the discourse. The speaker gave a powerful and eloquent description of the feast and the historical setting, which was appreciated by the large audience present.

Helpful lessons were drawn from the incident, and all were made to feel that the life of selfishness was the cause of much, if not all, of the sins of mankind. Sixty-five thousand girls disappeared last year without a trace being found of their whereabouts, due to the selfish sin of men. The speaker pointed out the inability of education to save men, for if education could save the world why did not education stop the war. It served to make it the more hellish. Greece went down in education, likewise Rome and Germany. We are going on the rocks, says Bulgin, unless our country gets more religion.

God's handwriting is seen by every person, first of all in nature. God's writings in nature are perfect. All science properly studied leads to the babe in the manger. I would not believe, however, in a God who only wrote in nature, because only ten per cent of the people can read nature. Nature is cold. There must be another revelation aside from nature, and we have that in the Bible. God has also revealed Himself through Jesus Christ, as well by the Holy Ghost and in trial and affliction. The greatest letter God ever wrote was when He said "the blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin."

God is calling. Are you going to answer? If you don't come to God in mercy, there must be the God of judgment. A public confession of Christ must be made by all who come. The evangelist closed with a strong appeal to men to come out for God.

OBITUARY.

COMBEST—Valentine Combest died at his home near Buncom, Ore., May 21, aged 77 years, one month, 10 days. He was born in Russell county, Kentucky, April 8th, 1844 and was of Scotch ancestry. Mr. Combest crossed the plains with ox team at an early date locating in Montana and engaging in mining. In crossing the plains the party were constantly threatened by the Indians and Mr. Combest had many thrilling experiences. The family finally located in Jackson county 28 years ago. Deceased was well and favorably known in the Applegate country. He leaves to mourn his loss a host of friends besides his relatives who are his wife Louisa, one daughter and four sons: Mrs. Frank Cameron, Jacksonville; Fred, Cyrenius, Hugh and Valentine Combest, all of Jacksonville. There are six grandchildren. The funeral services will be held at the Perl Funeral Home, Friday at 2 p. m., Rev. James E. Conder officiating. Interment in Jacksonville cemetery.

George Older of Hill, Cal., is spending a few days in the city attending to business matters.

The Clouds of Doubt and Uncertainty Have Rolled By

WE ARE emerging from the shadow and entering the Sunshine of PROSPERITY. We are standing upon the threshold of a New Day.
