

TYPHUS BREAKS OUT IN NAVAJO INDIAN AGENCY

SANTA FE, N. M., May 21.—That the epidemic among the Navajo Indians, 20 miles west of Shiprock agency, is typhus, was announced by the state public health bureau this morning on advice from Doctor C. E. Waller now on the reservation. There are from 30 to 40 cases, sixteen deaths have occurred so far and Dr. Waller has issued a warning to all health officers in the state to be on the lookout for the symptoms especially among Indians and Mexicans from Old Mexico. Reports of a fatal outbreak among the Navajos first reached here a week ago with the news of the deaths of Dr. E. C. Davis and Dr. J. C. Griffin, physicians working among the Indians. Dr. Waller was asked by the interior department to hasten to Shiprock for an investigation. Guinea pigs were experimented upon and the disease was positively identified as typhus.

Women Plead For Ireland's Needy In New York's Wall Street

Such an all-American, humanitarian campaign as that being conducted by the American Committee for Relief in Ireland naturally enlists in its services the best sentiment of the women throughout the country. Here are three distinguished suffragists pleading on behalf of the destitute children and women of Ireland. They are from left to right: Miss Maudie Madison, Blanche Waters, and Ida Mae Waters, the latter of whom was formerly organizer and speaker of the Woman Suffrage Party of New York City and chairman of the outdoor meetings of the National Women's Party in Washington, D. Important Notice to Fruitgrowers

The last legislature passed a state grade and pack law which is of interest to fruit growers. Under this law a grower may have his fruit inspected by a state inspector and if up to the state grade and pack a certificate will be issued by the inspector. This law is not compulsory but any grower may participate if he so desires, the cost of inspection to be borne by the grower or shipper. The law also applies, of course, to any packer and shipper of green fruits.

In order that proper inspectors be appointed it is absolutely necessary that all those wishing to participate this season notify the undersigned at once, otherwise it may be too late to make the proper arrangements.

There was also another law passed which regulates the sale of nursery stock and requires all nurserymen and salesmen to take out a license before selling or taking orders for nursery stock of any kind.

Any one interested in the above may have a copy of the law by addressing the undersigned. A. C. ALLEN, Horticultural Commissioner, Medford.

The next is a civil action, the Mt. Vernon National bank vs. Morris, and the third case on the calendar is a civil action of the state banking board against S. L. Latest Arrivals at Auto Camp Grounds

This week there have been and are still a number of young children at the city auto camp who despite the chilly and rainy weather and mud underfoot hugely enjoy life and romp and play about the camp. Needless to say their mothers made no extra efforts in such weather to keep them tucked up.

Among the latest arrivals at the grounds are Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cubby of Seattle, enroute to California; Mr. and Mrs. A. Perkins and eight children of Hood River, enroute home from southern California; J. Lucy and three children of Roseburg, enroute to Santa Barbara, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dodson and two children and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Richey of Cottage Grove, enroute to California; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stuh of Tacoma, enroute to California; Mr. and Mrs. R. PAGE IS CROWDED WITH HAPPY 'KIDS'

The Mail-Tribune and the Geo. A. Hunt Co. played host this morning at the Page theatre to the kids of the city, presenting the movie, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," to the largest outpouring of boys and girls in the history of Medford. The Page was packed and jammed from orchestra pit to the last row in the gallery. The youngsters enjoyed themselves, and registered their approval of the program by cheers—the traditional method of youth in short pants and pigtails when pleased.

Miss Grace Brown gave a number of selections on the Wurlitzer for the guests in which the brass band attachment of the big organ was brought into play to their great delight.

This is the first of a series of pictures to be given every two weeks to which the little folks will be invited by this paper and the theatre management.

NEW DRILLING LINE ARRIVES FOR WELL

The Trigon Oil and Gas company yesterday received their new 7-8 inch, six strands of 19 wire each, "Leschen's Speical Drilling Line." This style of drilling line is of special steel quality, it is exceedingly elastic, and consequently has spring and endurance, making it particularly efficient in deep wells. It was at once taken to the well, and will be installed as soon as possible, and drilling tools removed, and drilling resumed without delay.

BANDIT ROBS MAIL CAR

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Recommendation that all aliens who persistently violate the prohibition laws be deported and that all places where liquor is sold illegally be closed for a year are to be made to the proper authorities, William A. Kelly, district prohibition enforcement supervisor, announced today. His district includes California, Oregon, Washington and Nevada. Kelly said that this action comes as a result of the enforced dismissal of several prohibition field agents through lack of funds and is meant to counteract such a sort of a defeat of his forces.

the fifth. The sixth and seventh were halved while Tolley won the eighth and ninth, which he turned 4 up. Evans won the tenth 4 to 6 but lost the eleventh through being bunkered. He was again bunkered at the thirteenth and lost in three to four, making Tolley dormie 5. The Englishman lost the hole but secured a half at the fifteenth which gave him the match by four up and three to play.

C. Aylmer of Ranleigh defeated Dr. Paul Hunter of Los Angeles, champion of Southern California by two up and one to play. At the ninth hole Hunter and Aylmer were all square.

Jesse P. Guilford of Boston defeated George O. Simpson by two up and one to play. The match was a close one, Guilford being only one up at the ninth hole.

T. D. Armour of Lothian burn beat J. Wood Platt, the Philadelphia champion, by two up and one to play.

Frederick J. Wright of Boston, champion of Massachusetts defeated E. W. Holderness of Walton heath by two holes.

W. C. Fownes, Jr., of Pittsburg, the veteran golfer, defeated Roger Wethered of Worpleston by 3 up and one to play. Wethered was one up at the ninth.

The aggregate result of the day's play was five American players won nine matches as against three captured by the British.

U. S. Team Triumphs

HOYLAK, England, May 21.—(By Associated Press.) The American golf team which is to contest the British amateur championship beginning Monday next, made a clean sweep in the foursomes arranged as part of a preliminary series of matches with British players, contested here today. All four of the contests were won by American pairs.

Charles W. (Chick) Evans and Robert (Hobby) Jones defeated George O. Simpson and J. L. C. Jenkins, five up and three to play.

Francis Outmet and Jesse P. Guilford defeated Cyril Tolley and E. W. E. Holderness, three up and two to play.

Dr. Paul Hunter and J. Wood Platt defeated R. H. DeMontmorency and Roger Wethered by one hole.

W. C. Fownes, Jr., and Frederick J. Wright defeated C. C. Aylmer and T. D. Armour, four up and two to play.

The Royal Liverpool links where today's contests were played, presented an animated scene this morning. Hundreds of golf enthusiasts were at the course early.

Conditions Perfect

Weather conditions were perfect. The course was dry and the greens were "keen" and tricky.

Evans and Jones played sound golf. The Britishers opposing them never looked like holding the Americans who at the turn stood five up. Although the British pair made a great effort on the return journey the Americans won by five and three.

The match between Outmet and Guilford, American stars and Cyril Tolley, the British champion, with Holderness as his partner, was a much closer affair. Tolley, if not always straight in his shots, hit a long ball and Holderness was quite steady in his playing. This with the Americans playing at the top of their form, made it a nip and tuck fight from the start and at the turn the game was all square. Eventually, however, the Americans won rather easily.

In the third match Montmorency and Wethered, playing an excellent game were two up on the Americans, Hunter and Platt at the ninth hole. After this, however, the Americans gradually recovered ground and won the match by one up.

Jones Leads Off

In the leading match Jones had the honor for the Americans and Jenkins for the British. The American scored at the first hole, Evans running down a long putt for the hole in four, to the opponent's five. The second hole was halved in four, Simpson having some ill fortune when his four yard putt for a three curled around the hole.

The Americans won the third in four to three. The fourth also went against the British 2 to 3.

The sixth was halved in four.

At the seventh Jenkins put his tee shot into the deep at the right of the green and missed his putt from a yard's distance. The Americans won this hole in 3 to 4, securing a five hole lead. They also won the eighth. From this point the British played better golf. They won the ninth hole and also took the tenth and eleventh, reducing the disadvantage to three. The Americans secured the twelfth and the next two being halved they come dormie four. Evans won the fifteenth, giving the Americans the match by five up and three to play.

New Method of Laundering for the Economic Housewife

This particular service is designed to meet many objections heretofore held by housewives toward the public laundry service, and with very little co-operation on their part is found to be a complete success. No marks are placed upon the garments as each individual bundle is kept separate from all others by this method. Each piece is finished ready to use: the wearing apparel being ironed by hand as at home, while the charge for this service being placed so moderate that home laundering for economy's sake is no longer necessary.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The laundry can assume no responsibility for unfast colors or for defects in the weave of materials. The merchant from whom the articles were purchased will cheerfully handle such complaints. Such articles as stiff shirts and collars, fine silks, fancy shirt waists and dresses, together with other dainty articles, blankets, quilts, lace curtains and gent's greasy overalls are not included in this service, but are charged for at the regular list price. Soft water and the very finest soap are used exclusively in this plant. Our Laundry with all its methods of laundering are open to your inspection at all times.
