says the Good Judge

How long a little of the Real Tobacco Chew will last. Nor how much genuine chewing satisfaction the full, rich real tobacco taste will give. Ask any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew. He will tell you that this class of tobacco will give more satisfaction—and at less cost—than the ordinary kind.

ASHLAND SHRINERS TO ATTEND STATE
CEREMONY, EUGENE

ASHLAND, May 23.—All aboard for the Shrine ceremonial at Eugene, Saturday, May 28. The trek has begun already, quite a number being on the way by the auto route, weather conditions being so fine of late. The scene of the gathering will be at the armory at Eugene on Saturday afternoon this week, with a parade and all the features that go to make a real ceremonial insofar as the number of candidates and pageantry is concerned. The imperial potentate, Ellis L. Garrettson, of Tacoma, will be the honored guest of the event, and will inspect the festive surroundings as well as participate in the business routine. The admission comes from Eugene to the effect that "The camel needs lots of fodder." Two Pullmans have been engaged for the trip, probably leaving this terminal on No. 18, Friday evening, arriving at Eugene Saturday morning. These cars will be parked in that city, available for the return trip. Those wanting reservations should file applications soon, as they will be filled in order. The patrol will virtually occupy one car.

Dr. W. E. Blake and family left Tuesday morning for northern and eastern points throughout Oregon. The first stop in the itinerary will be at Grants Pass where they will be the guests of the Newcombs. Afterwards they will visit Canyonville, Albany, Portland, and other points, their stay being an indefinite one. In the meantime not only the doctor's dental office will be closed but also the family residence.

The mining revisions, especially in Josephine county, is being heralded far and wide. In the Oregonian of Monday is an interview with Ed Hughes regarding the situation throughout southern Oregon in general, in which Ed dishes up the situation so optimistically that his views would make even Mike Womack turn not only green, but also black and blue with envy.

A recital, by the Ashland students of W. C. James of Medford, instructor of violin, was given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Elhart, 117 Nob Hill street. The number rendered were thoroughly enjoyed by those present, and testified to the conscientious work of students and instructor. Mrs. James was the accompanist. The following constituted the program:

- Salling ..... Bohm
- Joyce Johnson..... Torell
- Concerto ..... Harvey Woods, W. C. Jaynes
- At the Mill ..... Hermann
- Valsetti ..... Borowski
- Chester Woods ..... Schumann
- Slumber Song ..... Lucille Laughlin
- Valse of the Flowers ..... Rowland Code
- Alabama Lullaby ..... Burleigh
- Impromptu Scherzo ..... Charles Tilton
- Cavatina ..... Roff
- Romance ..... Harvey Woods
- Spanish Dance ..... Svendsen
- W. C. James ..... Albeniz

In its department of "Who's Who?" the Tidings is publishing brief biographical sketches of its carrier force.

those of the personnel thus receiving honorable mention including Donald Wolcott, Charles Gordon MacCracken, John Jacob Ruger, and John Riley Pettinger, with more to follow.

A preliminary skirmish was held on Monday evening, perfecting arrangements for the major evangelistic engagement which is to take place here early in June under command of Gen. Buigin, who has lately stormed the citadel of sin in Medford. Details here are being made for a series of rousing gatherings on a united basis as far as denominational lines are concerned.

S. S. Pentz, formerly of Medford, and connected with fraternal affiliations both in that city and Ashland, died April 22 at Pasadena, Cal., after a lingering illness. In fact he was practically helpless for months, cared for by a near relative, Mrs. Ella W. Pence. His remains were cremated in that California city.

Miss George Coffee, of the Tidings office, is having a month's vacation, which is being passed in California, notably at San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Jesse Winburn led the procession towards Shrine doings at Eugene, having started early Wednesday morning in his big touring car, having Dr. F. H. Johnson of this city, and Emil Britt, of Jacksonville, as supercargo.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kinney returned on Monday from a five months stay passed in Oakland, Cal., and vicinity. They made the homeward trip in the family car, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mathes, who piloted the way in their auto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harner are receiving a visit from their daughter Elsie, who is attending an art school in San Francisco.

J. J. McNair has sold the East Side Pharmacy to Seattle parties, involving now being under way. This transfer implies that "Jim" will ultimately leave Ashland.

The call of the wild has already been responded to by Dr. C. F. Tilton, who with his family has gone for a month's outing to localities in northern Oregon made familiar by previous visits. The doctor is systematic and punctual in taking these midsummer outings.

At the funeral services of the late Denton Bowers, held at Elks Temple, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. P. K. Hammond officiated as chaplain. D. P. Mulkey, of Portland, former resident here and president of the Southern Oregon Normal, made the principal address. The Elks conducted the services, and an escort of Knights Templar acted as pallbearers, including C. W. Nims, W. H. McNair, T. H. Simpson, G. W. Dunn, P. D. Wagner, C. H. Vaupel, O. F. Carson, and G. S. Butler. Interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

On Wednesday evening there was another moving picture show at Belleview schoolhouse, staged by the enterprising community club of that locality. The object of these entertainments is to raise funds to assist in meeting expenses of public demonstration work.

The Epworth League's initial outdoor outing this season was to the Josephine county caves, about 25 members participating in the trip.

Both Married and Unmarried Will Laugh

A departure from Mack Sennett comedy tradition is promised in the comedy king's latest five-reel super-production, "Love, Honor and Behave" the First National attraction at the Page theatre today.

Charlie Murray, hero of a million episodes, will be introduced in a role of legitimate appeal. He will impersonate a "grave and reverend" judge of the supreme court, playing the part with dignity and power. This revolutionary role will be revealed in the opening scenes of the when Justice and Romance will come in contact.

This picture bears a moral for the married and the unmarried, but mainly it promotes mirth, unrestrained laughter and genuine thrills.

At the Rialto
Tom Meighan in any kind of a picture is a welcome visitor; but Tom Meighan as a two-fisted East Side gang leader in a red-blooded picture like "The Frontier of the Stars" is a screen treat. The picture is at the Rialto theatre for the balance of the week beginning today.

Mr. Meighan, you will remember was a crook in "The Miracle Man," in which he scored a personal hit. He's a crook again in "The Frontier of the Stars."

A thrilling fire scene, in which Mr. Meighan rescues Fable Binney, who plays the role of the girl, some knock-down-and-dragout fight scenes; and a film trip to Coney Island are a few of the features of the picture. Miss Binney, sister of the well known Constance of Realart fame, is charming to look upon, and the rest of the supporting company is of good calibre.

Dinosaurs were all extinct before the first prehistoric man appeared.
