BIG CROWD GREETS CHAUTAUQUA ON OPENING NIGHT

FINAL PROGRAM DECORATION DAY, MONDAY, MAY 30

TODAY'S PROGRAM
 * Afternoon—Musical entertainment, Stone-Platt-Bragers Trio.
 * Lecture, "The Problems of Today," Dean Ellwood C. Perisho.
 * Junior Chautauqua play hour.
 * Evening—Musical entertainment, the Stone-Platt-Bragers Trio, featuring Electra Platt, famous monologist.
 * Address, Hon. Henry T. Rainey of Illinois.

Medford's first Chautauqua got off with a splendid start yesterday when two fine concerts were given by the Liberty Belles of Boston followed in the evening by a dramatic lecture by Dr. Robert Parker Miles, the noted journalist and interviewer.

The Liberty Belles opened the Chautauqua with a delightfully varied program featuring vocal, instrumental and dramatic numbers all in charming array of modern and fanciful costumes. They were delighted with the reception accorded them by Medford people and expressed a desire to remain a while instead of hurrying on as the Chautauqua schedule demands of them.

Dr. Miles won the praise of his audience with his human and heart-touching bits of descriptions and narratives of his interviews of famous people.

The crowds for the first day were splendid and the plan of using the tabernacle at the close of the revival service worked out without a hitch.

Today the music and entertainment will be given by Electra Platt and Achille Bragers, wizard entertainers. Miss Platt alone would assure the success of any company in her original songs and monologue. The address tonight will be delivered by the Hon. Henry T. Rainey, congressman from Illinois and one of the outstanding figures in Washington for the last 18 years. During the war Mr. Rainey was the ranking democrat on the ways and means committee, the taxing committee of the house. He will speak tonight on "Federal Taxation and the Miracles of Finance."

Meighan Scores Big Hit
 Thomas Meighan has scored a tremendous hit in his new picture, "The Frontier of the Stars," which is on view at the Rialto theatre.

Decoration Day will be observed Monday as a day to honor the Veterans of American wars, who died or were killed during the struggle, or who have since answered the final summons. The general observance of Decoration Day is a fitting tribute to those countless thousands, who answered our country's call, and the custom of strewing fragrant flowers on the graves of known and unknown dead of all wars as well as the graves of those who gave their lives on our battlefields of in hospitals since that time, shows the reverence of the American people for the men who fought and died for the love of country and for love of home.

Decorations will be as follows:
 The parade will form on West Main street, with the head of the column at Oakdale and move at 10:20 a. m., sharp, as follows:
 Marshal, Wm. O'Gratt; band, Co. A, National Guard; G. A. R., Legion Auxiliary, Red Cross, Flower Girls, Ex-service Men, Boy Scouts, school children, mayor, city council, speakers in autos; civic organizations, citizens.

Line of March will be to the bridge, where flowers will be thrown on the waters in memory of the sailors and marines who gave their lives for their country. Salute for the dead by Co. A, and taps. Then to the Page Theatre, where the following order of exercises will be given:
 Assembly call
 Band
 Prayer, Rev. Lawrence
 Reading of Order
 Adjutant Fair
 Lincoln's Gettysburg Address
 Frank Buchter
 Quartette

 Solo, Mr. Walker
 Decoration Monument to the Unknown Dead
 Col. E. E. Kelly
 Address, Captain Canaday
 Roll of Honor
 Singing "Star Spangled Banner"
 Benediction

The G. A. R. and W. R. C., American Legion, Legion Auxiliary and citizens will meet at the I. O. O. F. cemetery at 2:30 p. m., to pay their annual tribute of respect to their dead comrades, closing with the salute to the dead by Co. A.

A G. A. R. committee will decorate the graves of the 85 civil war veterans buried in the Jacksonville cemetery.

Human and Happy
 Everybody is human in "Love, Honor and Behave," the Mack Sennett five reel comedy, at the Page theatre tomorrow, that exploits a big theme to the accompaniment of chuckles, laughter and roars of mirth.

YOU certainly want to save money, and you would like to have better bakings.

Then use Calumet. It's the biggest thing you can do to improve the quality of your bakings—and lower baking costs.

Calumet is made in the largest, most sanitary Baking Powder Factories in the World. No Baking Powder is made under better conditions—none can be better in quality.

It contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by the U. S. Pure Food Authorities. An absolute guarantee that it is pure.

RAISES THE QUALITY — LOWERS THE COST OF ALL BAKINGS

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

"BEST BY TEST"

It received highest Awards, World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago—Paris Exposition, Paris, France—positive proof of its superior merit.

It is used by more housewives, domestic scientists and chefs than any other brand. That would not be the case, if it were possible to secure a higher quality leavener.

It is sold at a moderate price. All you have to do is to compare costs to determine how much you can save by buying Calumet.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Cream Cake
 Recipe
 —3 cups pastry flour, 3 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, ½ cup butter, 1½ cups granulated sugar, Yolks of 3 eggs, ¼ cup cold water, Whites of 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon orange extract. Then mix in the regular way.

FLOWERS For Memorial Day

Memorial and Decorations Days—the days set aside for reverence for the dead—is the fitting occasion to honor those who have gone beyond. We are better prepared than ever to furnish flowers and wreaths for this occasion.
