LOCAL Y. W. C. A. BUILDING FILLS LONG FELT WANT

The past year has seen the establishment of a Young Women's Christian Association that is a credit to a city larger than Medford.

There have been many interesting things happen at the Y. W. C. A. this year. Not long ago two young girls from Yakima, Wash., walking to Mexico, stopped at the Y. W. C. A. and asked to stay all night.

All the hotels were full at the recent performance of Al Johnson and three girls from his company came to the Y. W. C. A. where beds were fixed for them.

There have been other transients cared for and many strangers take advantage of the room registry to ask for help in finding the right sort of a place to stay in.

The house has been a busy place all winter—besides the Y. W. C. A. activities the Methodist Missionary society, the Wednesday Study club, the Grade School Teachers' Association, committees from the various churches, Queen Esther circles regular meetings, and monthly spread and the Greater Medford club executive luncheons have all been held here.

Sunday afternoon is open house, when all girls and their friends are welcome. Tea has been served nearly every Sunday and occasionally a program. At noons all winter chocolate was sold at five cents a cup.

The Y. W. C. A. house is a busy place and fills a long felt want in Medford.

COLORS OF OLD RUSSIA NOW FLY AT VLADIVOSTOK

TOKIO, May 31.—(By Associated Press.) Anti-bolsheviks are still in control of Vladivostok, which is quiet, although the general political situation is somewhat obscure, it is said in press and official advices.

The city is gaily beflagged with the old Russian colors.

M. Merkuloff, head of the government, established in Vladivostok, has issued a statement saying the primary task of the new regime is to maintain order.

The formation of the administration will follow the popular will, the legislative powers of the old assembly will not be altered, although communists will be urged to serve. Members of the old government, except those liable to criminal prosecution, will be liberated from prison and the freedom of the press is guaranteed.

There have been reports that General Semenov, Cossack anti-bolshevik leader, would go to Vladivostok from Port Arthur to direct the new movement but it is declared his leadership will not be accepted.

Harvey Stanley, another one of our stockmen was also procuring supplies from our merchants Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed E. Barnes, formerly of Burns, Oregon, but now of La Center, Washington, called for dinner Thursday on their way to Prospect, Mrs. Barnes was formerly Mrs. Joe Stickle of this place.

HUNT NEBRASKA ANIMALS WITH A PICK AND SHOVEL

AGATE, Neb., May.—(By the Associated Press.)—The annual big game hunt of trained geologists and paleontologists of the world is under way at the Agate Springs ranch, near here.

The Agate Springs Ranch, owned by Captain James H. Cook, extends along the Niobrara river for ten miles in Sioux county and is about twenty-five miles southeast of Harrison.

Since its discovery 30 years ago, persons interested in the study of fossil remains have been making explorations. During the coming season, the quarries will be worked by the United States National Museum, Smithsonian Institution, under the direction of J. W. Gidley, and others.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Kowlett

W. H. Crandall and family passed through here Tuesday morning on their way to Medford. Mr. Crandall said that although he was very busy he thought he would just take a day off and go to Medford, a disc harrow and some things for his haying tools and so concluded to just take his family and make a day of it.

E. D. Ross of Yankee creek, Wellen postoffice, was in town having his team shod getting ready for the harvest work.

Charles Seefield and wife of Lake creek, were also among the business callers and so was J. K. Joy of Reese creek, who came in with Rube Johnson and Alex Mathews.

Raymond Daugherty and his sister, Miss E. Daugherty and Lawrence Hanson of Ashland passed through here Wednesday on their way to Big Butte for an outing. They said that they did not know just where they were going, they simply wanted to have a good time camping out, fishing, etc.

Robert R. Minter who owns a fine farm near the Reese creek school house, and two of his daughters, Mrs. Sam Courtney and Mrs. W. E. Hammel, passed through here on their way to Central Point Wednesday morning.

Speaking about Central Point, if the Medford merchants don't wake up and begin to cut on their prices the first thing they know they will find that there is a slacking up among their customers, for several out this way have already begun to go there to do their trading, although quite a number are still sticking to our old merchants here and as they own their own buildings and have no rent to pay and no clerk hire to pay, they will of course put the prices of their goods so low that they will hold the most of their old customers.

R. C. Weidman, one of our prominent orchardists and dairymen went to Medford Wednesday to look after his interests in the fruitgrowers association.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cole and two sons from Weed, Calif., passed through here to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Maxwell, near Brownsboro, five miles above here.

Messrs. David and Frank Edgar of Portland were here for dinner. Herman Meyer of Lake Creek, drove into town early Thursday morning and went right to Holmes and Macdonald's garage to have some repairing done on his auto.

George Given, one of our prominent stock men and farmers made a business call the same morning, as did Wm. Wright.

Miss Belford, who has charge of the Stewart farm, a short distance north-east of Eagle Point, came in to bring Mrs. Ed Cowdon so that she and her two children could catch the stage for Butte Falls. After visiting her mother and sister in Butte Falls they returned Friday via the same route for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed E. Barnes, formerly of Burns, Oregon, but now of La Center, Washington, called for dinner Thursday on their way to Prospect.

Mrs. F. R. Wymore, whose husband is working in California, but has a homestead on McNeil creek, was a passenger on the Medford-Eagle Point stage Thursday on her way up home. W. S. Clark and wife of Ashland were also passengers on the stage that morning.

The Civic club of Eagle Point held their regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Frank Brown and they not only had a good

GENERAL CROWDER TO ASSIST CUBA IN BUILDING ARMY

HAVANA, Cuba.—Reorganization of the Cuban army is one of the tasks facing the new administration of Dr. Alfredo Zayas. The Menocal government which preceded that of Dr. Zayas took a preliminary step by abolishing the custom of promotion of officers by selection. The presidential decree effecting this reform will become operative on July 1, but no selection will be made between the present and that date.

The motive for army reorganization is economy and was discussed at conferences between Major General Enoch Crowder, special agent in Cuba for President Harding and both President M. G. Menocal and Dr. Zayas, ten president-elect.

While the army itself numbers only about 11,000, the high salaries paid and the cost of this branch of the national defense to more than $6,000,000, a figure considered excessive. Some sentiment has been shown for the abolition of the army and the creation of a force of rurales; but the general trend seems to be for a smaller force than at present but of greater efficiency, the result of the acquisition of most modern forms of automatic rifles and machine guns.

attendance, but a very pleasant time. Those in attendance were Mrs. Lottie Van Scoy, Mrs. R. S. Brown, Mrs. Mattie Brown, Mrs. S. B. Holmes, Mrs. Wm. Hardenberg, Mrs. William von der Hellen, Mrs. Hamon, Miss Hanson, Mrs. T. E. Nichols, Mrs. Mc-Nichol, Mrs. Wittensadt, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Roy Stanley, Mrs. Ralph Stanley, Mrs. B. F. Fuller, Mrs. Roy Ashpole, Mrs. Paul Rynning, Mrs. Ernest Dahack, Mrs. Clements, Mrs. Amy Brown and Mrs. R. A. Weidman, the two last named being hostesses. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. H. Brown and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. von Hardenberg will serve. They transacted but little business outside of the regular routine, unless it was that they decided to give another dance tonight, May 28, and try to raise funds to finish up the Union Hall that is now used as the town library. They also discussed the subject of lighting the streets, but as they had not heard from the company as to the cost, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Seaman, who could not arrive at any conclusion, were recently married, have moved into the P. B. Daley house. Mr. Seaman is one of the civil engineers working on the Crater Lake highway in this neighborhood.

Henry Meyer of Lake Creek was a visitor Thursday on his way to Medford. Mr. H. H. Noel, one of the auto dealers of Medford, was a dinner guest at the Sunnyside Friday.

Mrs. Barbara Jones of old Angeles is here visiting the family of J. L. Robinson, Sr.

S. M. Baker and wife were trading here Friday.

Mrs. M. L. Richardson of Butte Falls spent Thursday night at the Sunnyside and went up home on the stage Friday morning.

Everett Abbott and Mrs. Hildred Smith of Butte Falls came out and took breakfast at the Sunnyside Thursday morning on their way to Medford. There was quite a number of the Butte Falls people came out Thursday morning to meet the state commission to see what they were going to do with regard to the railroad being used for the mail and for them to get their supplies out. Sam Chasley and wife passed through here Thursday going to Medford.
