MINNEAPOLIS—Captain Phil Neer and J. M. Davies, members of the Leeland Stanford university tennis team will open a four month tour of the central west and east here this afternoon when they meet a University of Minnesota team.

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—Jasper C. Skutt of Morton established an American record here yesterday when he broke 200 straight targets to win the New York amateur championship at single targets. The best previous score in a state championship was 199.

PRINCETON, N. J.—The University of California crew which is to race the Princeton varsity on Lake Carnegie Saturday, did not go out this morning for the first time since its arrival two weeks ago and hereafter will row only in the afternoon. The men seem to be in condition and Coach H. F. Wallis is planning to spend the remaining time in polishing the blade work. The westerners covered a quarter mile in 1:10 1/2 yesterday, exceptionally fast time if this pace could be kept up over the entire mile and seven-eighths course.

HONOLULU, Cal.—Ralph Stroud, former pitcher in the Pacific Coast Baseball League, said yesterday he planned to repudiate his signature to a two year contract with the Chicago White Sox, which he stated, he signed last Sunday before no witnesses.

WALLA WALLA—Whitman college baseball team fell before Washington State's nine yesterday 9 to 2.

SEATTLE—Pal Moore, Memphis heavyweight boxer was ready for his bout tonight with Frankie Monroe of San Francisco. The bout will go four rounds.

EUGENE—Jack Benefield has been appointed graduate manager at the University of Oregon.

SALEM—R. L. Mathews, for six years Willamette university athletic coach, left yesterday for Seattle where he has accepted a position on the athletic staff of the University of Washington.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

ASHLAND, June 1.—Next Sunday evening, June 4, is the date set for the beginning of the revival renaissance under auspices of Dr. Bulgin. The meetings will be held in the Chautauqua auditorium. In the meantime various committees are busy with preliminary arrangements.

There is more undeveloped water power in northern Maine than in any other section of the eastern seaboard of the United States.

The percentage of Jews to the world's population is estimated at nine-tenths of one per cent.

There are about 700 dyes of commercial importance.

HAPPY WOMEN

Plenty of them in Medford, and Good Reason for It. Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache, aching, days of misery, nights of unrest, the distress of urinary troubles, when she finds freedom.

Notice of Sale of Government Timber General Land Office, Washington, D. C., April 16, 1921.

AUCTION SALE

At Central Point, I will sell at auction, on June 4, 1921, the following property belonging to Mrs. Edgar. Sale to be at the Methodist Parsonage on 3rd and Main streets, Saturday, June 4, at 1:30 p. m., comprising:

$10,000. A chief advantage of this installation is said to be that the purified water, free from sediment, would not impair the delicate mechanism of the meters which are gradually being introduced. Rolly water is merely temporary during the melting snow and rainy season.

Incident to Memorial Day exercises, the pioneer cemetery in the vicinity of Kingsbury Springs was also visited, where 17 volunteers of the Indian war era are buried, and their remains placed were honored accordingly.

Members to the number of 67 were added to the roster of Hillah Temple at the Shrine ceremonial held at Eugene last Saturday. As a result the membership is now approaching the 500 mark.

Mrs. Louis Lager, after a visit with friends here, left on Wednesday this week for her home at Aberdeen, South Dakota, stopping at Eugene on her way to Portland. She was accompanied north by Mrs. Ottilia Caldwell, member of the Dunn family, who has been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity, and whose home is in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Docia Pinder has returned to her home in Portland, after a visit here with a number of pioneer families. Many will remember the well known Pastore Trio of former Chautauqua days. They will revisit Ashland this summer. Prof. Henry Bickford Pastore conducting a vocal music class during the summer school season. Since appearing here the gifted daughters have won additional honors both at home and abroad.

Lithia park was the scene of a merry company last Friday; pupils of the Wagner creek school having been entertained by their teacher, Ethel Trautfeather, after "irradiation." Plans for celebrating the Fourth are under way, the chamber of commerce, having appoint A. C. Nindger, Fred Eagle and O. F. Carson a committee to perfect arrangements. The event will be a one-day celebration.

As host to children in general throughout the valley, Jesse Winburn kept open house on Wednesday to a lot of young folks who gathered at his outing camp in the midst of Winburn's cabins in Long's Lodge territory. There was a musical program and feasting galore. Misses Edith Sweeney and Frances Montgomery of Medford, and Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg, of this city, assisted in great measure in the entertaining.

The children's playground equipment has been installed in the parks in readiness for the summer outing season.
