Ye Smudge Pot

Things have come to a pretty pass, when a bill is introduced in congress providing that makers of wool pants, put some wool in them. (Cries of "Czar").

"Parts of this car can be seen all over California."—(Ad. Chico Enterprise). The nuts and bolts are flying fast.

Among the achievements of the Harding administration not listed in the graduation of Joe P. Barnaby, ex-private sec. to Mr. Wilson, who has not been heard of since March 4th.

When German shells were falling in Paris, and the allied lines were bending back before the Prussian huns, and French soldiers were yelling, "Enfin la guerre," some of the ex-servicemen, who "are raiding the state treasury," via the bonus bill, arose and started the retreat that ended November 1, 1918. How much would the state of Oregon have been willing to pay for a victory in the Argentine, C. O. D.?

Now and then events coming to pass, prove that Barnaby's estimate of "a sucker being born every minute," was a trifle low.

NO APPLICATIONS. (Albany Democrat) Wanted—A mechanic at Irving garage. Do not apply if you are not a mechanic.

G. Fabrick cooked a fish for G. Newbury Sun, which was devoured voraciously by G. Collins, et al. The interior of the member of the finny tribe was first decorated with onions and lemons, sliced thinner than a Ladies Aid society sandwich. The late resident of Rogue River was sewed up in a flour sack and tightly wrapped in 3 issues of the leading democratic paper of the northwest. More mud was then slapped on to the depth of a foot, and the same wrapped in a gunysack, put on a piece of tin roofing, and laid on a hot fire to roast for 1 hour, 47 min. At the expiration of this time, the outer casing is carefully knocked off, and John Fish revealed well stewed in his own juices, and served in a dry state. The assembled guests then proceeded to eat like a delegation of starving Armenians. All well.

The clinging ivy of politics is wrapping its tender tentacles, around the sturdy oak of religion, and the purification of the earth in general, and Jackson county in particular, proceeds by the process of community agitation.

"Dr. Long has practised here for 12 years, and was badly rebuked on his departure."—(Marshfield News)—Poor aim again.

IT MUST BE. (Klamath Herald) For Rent—Pleasant bed room adjoining bath; 227 Jefferson St., or phone 447-B.

Old Sol has started to work again, and somebody will sweat for it.

HE'S BEEN THERE. I like to read O'Brien's books. About the South Sea lure; They give one little joyous looks. Of life one could endure.

I like to read O'Brien's tales. They make a lovely showing. For bliss where sunshine never falls—'Tis better far than going. HEN LAMPMAN.

SUPPORT THE Y. W. C. A.

WHEN a strange young man comes to Medford, there are many places he can go and feel perfectly at home.

When a strange young woman comes to Medford, there is only one place she can go and feel perfectly at home, and that is at the local Y. W. C. A.

The strange and lonely young woman represents a problem in every city and town, and that problem is splendidly solved by the Y. W. C. A. The home in Medford which has been established during the past year, has more than justified its existence. It has provided a refreshing home atmosphere for many young women, who have come to this city strangers, and it has contributed materially to making Medford a better place in which to live.

The Mail-Tribune therefore enthusiastically endorses the present campaign to raise funds necessary to insure the continuance of the local Y. W. C. A. Three thousand dollars is the budget to be raised, and when the benefits to the community are considered, this is indeed a modest sum. The Y. W. C. A. has filled a long felt want in this city, and it must be maintained. Every dollar contributed to this worthy institution will return dividends in a finer clarity, a higher sense of service, and a more spontaneous response to those in need.

KEEP YOUR WORD.

YOU'LL be rated as a bird, in the busy haunts of trade, if you always keep your word, never let a promise fade. If you promise you will pay for your wagonload of lime on the twenty-ninth of May, do your paying right on time. Then the smiling merchant prince will say with beaming eye, "It is many ages since I have seen so prompt a guy." And the merchant prince will say to the other princes near, "There is no more honest jay from Dansheba clear to Beer." If you promise you will meet James Adolphus Arthur Mix on the corner of the street at ten minutes after six, do not make Adolphus wait for the fraction of an hour, or he'll think you are a skate, and his spirit will be sour. And upon a future day, when you need him in your biz, and approach him, he will say, "Moly Hoses and Gee Whiz! Once I had a date with you, and you kept it—in a horn; so I naturally view you and all your works with scorn." One has great renown for wit, one can wrestle like a Goteh, and another makes a hit when he warbles "Larboard Watch"; one can write a classy ode, one can rear up and orate, one can scorch along the road at a Barney Oldfield gait. There are many kinds of fame, and some samples are absurd; but we all admire the game of the man who keeps his word. He is loaded to the guards with the laurel wreaths he's won, when the statesmen and the bards retail at ten cents a ton.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

Miss Alice Harper, Mrs. Rose Gay and four children, Mrs. G. D. Jones, and the Misses Nellie and Lyndall Jacobs left Friday morning in their cars for points in California. Mrs. Jones will stop off at Oakland, the Misses Jacobs will go to Los Angeles where Miss Nellie may enter the cafeteria business. The rest of the party expect to return in about three weeks.

H. D. Jones is a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Alden at Medford. Mr. Jones was received into full membership in the Masonic lodge at that place Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carley who have been living on the L. H. Porter place the past year moved to Phoenix the last of the week where they have purchased a home.

The L. H. Porter family have moved back to their ranch after an absence of a year or more in Grants Pass.

Adelbert Elliott is making a visit with friends in Medford.

The Paul McQuat children are recovering nicely from mild cases of chickenpox. Pauline Champlin is also about over an attack of the disease.

Mrs. Hodges is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Hosmer on Foots creek.

Mrs. Abbie Champlin was given a delightful surprise on her 81st birthday. Those present besides the immediate family were Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Champlin and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wahl and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Matthews. A sumptuous dinner was enjoyed at 6 o'clock.

The Riverside Recreation club was entertained by Mrs. Grant Matthews Thursday afternoon, it being the last meeting for the coming year. For president, Mrs. Rose Gay; vice-president, Mrs. Chas. Gray; secretary, Miss Lyndall Jacobs; treasurer, Mrs. Hattie Alden. Bouquets of roses were presented to the retiring president, Mrs. Beatrice Jones and the retiring secretary, Mrs. Maude Champlin. Mrs. F. E. Wahl, Mrs. C. C. Furnas and Mrs. G. B. Alden were present from Medford. Foots creek guests were Mrs. Hosmer, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Bolling and Mrs. Schaffer. Delicious refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Pickett returned Thursday from a trip to the sheep camp on Elk creek. They expect to leave next week on an auto trip to Corvallis where they will be joined by their son Bruce who is attending school there and will continue their trip on into Klamath county.

F. C. Elliott is a busy man these days attending a large garden and the increased store and service station patronage.

The highway is now all paved to the Rock Point bridge and no one can appreciate this better than those living on Riverside and vicinity who have traveled the rockstrewn roads for the past two years.

D. H. Stead and R. W. Engel were Medford visitors Saturday. Miss Bertha Woolverton who is now living in southern California, returned Saturday evening for a three weeks visit at Phoenix and Medford and Riverside friends. Miss Raymond who has been attending school at Fresno returned with her and will spend the summer at the Lee Raymond home.

Mrs. D. H. Stead is confined to her home with a case of the mumps.

The usual good time was enjoyed by all those who attended the Riverside Community dance Saturday evening. About seventy-five couples were in attendance mostly from Medford and Grants Pass.

By request of those present arrangements were made for another dance to be given May 18 with the same good music.

A party consisting of Messrs. John Butler, Clarence Noe and Carl Bowman camped for the remainder of the night at Savage Rapids and were joined by their families next day for a picnic and fishing party.

A Series of Human Interest Talks on Insurance

SAY FOLKS

Have you ever considered just what makes a prosperous community?

If every person sent away for their merchandise what kind of store would we soon have. Our home merchants accommodate us when we need help.

If we sent away for legal advice when we need an attorney, it would be inconvenient, wouldn't it?

If we sent our bank deposits away, our banks could not help the farmer market his products.

Oregon Life Insurance Company is a big bank. Takes your deposits and reinvests your funds right in your home community and state.

WHY DO GIRLS LEAVE HOME? ANSWER: BECAUSE THEY WANT TO

No One Reason Given for Disappearance of Girls in New York City—If It Isn't One Reason, Then It Is Another.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Why do girls leave home?

Investigation of the cases of a number of girls found missing has been made here and in different cases a different excuse for the girl leaving home was given.

Miss Beatrice Dietz

Miss Beatrice Dietz, sixteen, living in Brooklyn, worked in a paper box factory. At night she returned to her sick father in a two-room flat. One day in February she disappeared and has never been seen.

Her father said: "She was very fond of dancing and fun, but her work gave her no time. She used to come home feeling depressed. I can't imagine why she left home unless she wanted a change or something."

Wanted Pretty Things. The mother of Anna Vohrer, seventeen, told another:

Mrs. Anna Vohrer

"Anna is such a pretty girl. She has wonderful eyes and big lashes and perfect skin. Ever since she was a child she attracted admiration. She used to stay out nights. Then she wanted pretty clothes and other finery which I couldn't afford. One day she left home.

"She was gone for a month. Then, unexpectedly, when we had given up hope, she came in again. In a few days she left again, saying the house was too dull. I have not heard from her since."

This One Stage-Struck. Loretta Krankovitz, fifteen years old, also of Manhattan, disappeared in January. Her parents say that after she disappeared she sent them a note saying that she had gone out to Los Angeles to get a job in the movies. Afterward she wrote that she had obtained a position as a dancer.

Loretta Krankovitz

Her brother said: "She was always stage-struck. She'll come back soon."

HAWAIIAN TEACHERS MARRYING TOO FAST

HONOLULU, T. H.—The "high matrimonial rate" among public school teachers of Hawaii is adding to the worries of the commissioners of public instruction, according to Vaughan McCaughey, superintendent. More than one hundred vacancies will have to be filled at the beginning of the new school year in September and many of these have been caused by the substitution of a marriage license for a teaching contract.
