'PASSION PLAY' IN PICTURES AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

In connection with the "Passion Play" pictorial, which will be given at the First Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday evening, June 8th, will be shown what is said by eminent authorities to be the only true likeness of Christ as He really looked when He walked among men. Dr. J. M. Wilkinson, who will present the beautiful pictorial, compares this true likeness with Hoffman's picture of the Christ. He holds that the famous masterpiece of Hoffman's is too effeminate for the one who so fearlessly denounced the scribes and Pharisees, the hypocrites of His day. Dr. Wilkinson also brings out the fact—not very generally known—that the model for Hoffman's picture was a woman—Hoffman's own wife.

The play as given by Dr. Wilkinson will be illustrated by seventy-five beautiful hand-printed slides taken from official negatives. Dr. Wilkinson made two pilgrimages to Oberammergau to witness the play, and became acquainted with the leading actors. He spent some time in the home of Anton Lang, who played the part of "Christus." The leading churches of California have had "packed houses" wherever it has been presented. Thirty-seven hundred people saw it in Dr. Brougher's church in Los Angeles. Dr. Bulgin knows Dr. Wilkinson, and has seen the play as presented by him, and says that it is wonderful. Dr. Bulgin expressed the wish that it might be given in the tabernacle where a great throng could be accommodated. This arrangement, however, could not be effected.

The "Passion Play" as presented in the little valley of Oberammergau in Bavaria has become internationally famous, and has attracted thousands of tourists from all parts of the world. It was first given in 1650, and every tenth year thereafter until 1920 when the war took some of the principal actors. Whether it will ever be given again in Bavaria is a question. Efforts are now being made to reproduce it in the Santa Monica canyon which is said to resemble Palestine even more than the valley of the Ammer.

The public is cordially invited. There will be no admission charge, but a free will offering will be taken.

Y. W. C. A. DRIVE LAUNCHED WITH MAYOR'S SPEECH

The campaign for the Y. W. C. A. started off with the greatest enthusiasm with the supper held at the Presbyterian church Monday evening. The teams and their captains were seated in groups, as were the guests and members of the board and trustees.

The tables decorated by Ruth Daniels, were lovely with roses and each place was marked with the Y. W. C. A. purpose cards and the song sheet. Rev. Leach asked the blessing.

After a splendid dinner served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church under the direction of Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Sweeney, Mrs. Hurd introduced Mayor Gates. He spoke most enthusiastically of the work accomplished by the Medford organization in the one short year of its life. He said the boy always had a place to go in Medford to spend an evening, but until a year ago there was no place for the girl. The coming of the Y. W. C. A. on North Bartlett has provided a gathering place for a pleasant evening or a place to entertain a young man when, as is often the case, there is no suitable place at the rooming house. He spoke of the many activities, classes, etc., and said, considering the work being done among our girls, who are the women of tomorrow, that $3000 was a modest sum to ask for and because so many more people are interested this year than the few who made it a reality last year, that each one doing his or her part, the campaign would easily go over the top. His whole speech was splendid.

After several peppy songs with appropriate words, Mrs. Hurd introduced Miss Sarvay, who talked delightfully on the local organization, complimenting Medford and those who have made it so. It is a splendid fulfillment. She spoke of the lonely girl and what the Y. W. C. A. has meant to her, giving local illustrations and of the value to the friend-loving girl of a place to go evenings to see other girls. She said the good the Y. W. C. A. does cannot be counted because so often it is never known. The right thing said at the right time may change a girl's whole life and who of us can count the birth of an ideal.

The workers were filled with a deep enthusiasm to put the campaign over the top and with the people's help they can. Be ready with your gift or pledge when they call.

They never made a cigarette like this in my day—

The Camel idea wasn't born then. It was the exclusive expert Camel blend that revolutionized cigarette smoking.

That Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos hits just the right spot. It gives Camels such mellow mildness and fragrance!

The first time I smoked Camels I knew they were made for me. I knew they were the smoothest, finest cigarette in the world, at any price.

Nobody can tell me anything different.

C. OF COMMERCE MEETING TONIGHT AT THE LIBRARY

A special membership meeting of the Medford Chamber of Commerce is to be held at the public library this evening at 7:30 and because of the importance of the subject under consideration a large attendance is desired.

Medford will advance in its commercial importance just as fast as the citizens are willing to get in back of any movement having as its aim a constructive program. There are some people who are of the opinion that every time a suggestion is offered which has as its object community advancement that it implies that money is needed to carry it to success. Many projects which are an important factor in making a community of greater importance commercially, as well as a better place in which to live, require not money but a united citizenship, backed by a strong public sentiment. Such a sentiment it is desired to be brought about at the meeting this evening and a large attendance of the membership is desired to bring this about.

MAYOR GATES TO BE SPEAKER AT FORUM TOMORROW

Has Medford a future? What is there here to be optimistic of the future? Are the natural advantages being developed? These are questions which will be answered by Mayor Gates at the forum of the Medford Chamber of Commerce tomorrow noon at the Medford Hotel.

The official title "The Honorable Mayor" somehow or other does not seem to gain great favor among the friends of the mayor to whom he is known as just plain "Pop" Gates. His friends know that when "Pop" consents to talk, he has a message worth while. Tomorrow will be no exception. There will be a deep sober thought of what the future has in store for our community and he will not hesitate to call attention to our weaknesses, however, he will not be critical without offering a constructive solution.

"Medford—this year and the years to follow" is the subject of his address. He is intensely interested in Medford because it is his home and no man gets a greater pleasure out of life than does "Pop" when he can do his fellow citizen and neighbor a kindly act.

The forum tomorrow is guaranteed to be worth while attending.

GOLD HILL H. S. CLASS GRADUATES

The first class to receive high school diplomas in the new auditorium at Gold Hill graduated last Friday evening. Those receiving diplomas in the regular class were Curtis Parker, Elmer Byerly, Gerall Owen, Bertha Coy. Those receiving diplomas who had finished their work in the United States training school were Vernon R. Miam, Lloyd H. Wade and Raymond, I. Loutens.

Professor Roy R. Hewitt of Corvallis gave the address of the evening. Mr. Hewitt took the subject, "Power of Intellect." He showed by his many illustrations that the cultivated mind was the thing that counted in this age, that with this must go sympathy to make a useful citizen.

The music was excellent and the large audience joined in with the parents of the graduates in giving the most hearty congratulations to the senior class of 1921.

HARRISON, N. J.—Benny Leonard defended his title of lightweight champion last night by cleverly outpointing Rocky Kansas, of Buffalo, in the opinion of the majority of experts at the ringside.
