George A. Mansfield, president of the Oregon Farm Bureau has returned from an extended trip over the state. Mr. Mansfield says he is going to inaugurate a campaign to have congress investigate the federal prisons of the land, and men therein serving long terms for violations of military laws and etiquette while overseas. He is inspired by the story of a soldier, now serving seven years for being drunk and shoving a lieutenant off a shell platform when he got in the road.

The Rogue River Canal company will take no legal action against "Sacramento," the aged Chinaman, who was caught last week taking coal from the company warehouse. "Sacramento" vigorously protests his innocence in his native tongue, and points to the fact that he has $1800 in the bank and five cards of wood, as proof there is no need for him to steal. As far as is known this is the first time in the history of Jackson county that a Chinaman has been accused of stealing, and it is a rarity anywhere outside their native land. "Sacramento" has been suffering with a toothache. He is known to dozens of Medford people who have employed him as a handy man around the place.

NEBRASKAN BUYS HALE RESIDENCE

One of the largest sales of city property during the past few weeks was the purchase of J. F. Hale's residence, corner Fifth and Oakdale to M. H. Bunnell of Mason City, Neb., who will occupy the same July 1st. The consideration being $70,000 cash. Mr. Bunnell is a retired business man, has spent some time on the coast looking for a place to make his home and is delighted with Medford and this valley. Mr. Bunnell and daughter are now visiting in Ashland.

The Hale residence is one of the finest in the city, has 10 rooms and basement, is splendidly built and finished throughout and is nicely located. The new proprietor is having it painted and arranged for occupancy.

We extend a cordial welcome to Mr. Bunnell and family.

And get more genuine chewing satisfaction, when you use this class of tobacco.

This is because the full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often.

And a small chew gives more real satisfaction than a big chew of the ordinary kind ever did.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
