

ASHLAND WILL CELEBRATE ON FOURTH OF JULY

ASHLAND, June 8.—The Fourth of July celebration here this year will be on a one-day basis, with parade, oration, picnics, and fireworks. Athletic games under Elks club auspices. The Civic Improvement club will supervise parade features. The Chamber of Commerce has set aside $1500 as a nucleus for the celebration fund. A. C. Ninsinger, O. F. Carson and F. S. Ninsinger are the executive committee. Invitations will be sent out to all adjoining towns to participate. For a time the celebration plan this season was held in abeyance, but considering the park environment that a lot of folks would visit these surroundings anyway, it was conceded the logical thing to do was to go ahead and celebrate. The park domain supplies the requisites—the brook, the shade, and all the attractions, both natural and artificial. In addition, the area is sufficient to accommodate all comers.

A jolly picnic gathering was the annual reunion of the Teacup club of the Methodist church, held in the parks on Tuesday. Supper was served at 6:30.

The annual meeting of the Ashland school district will be held on Monday, June 20, two directors to be elected.

Willard Pendleton and Miss Madeline Silver were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Silver, 323 Almond street, June 8. The bride is a popular young lady, esteemed for her accomplishments and womanly qualities. Willard is an industrious young man. He is a brother of Mrs. Jack Fahs of this city. The home of the newlyweds will be at 1111. Many friends extend congratulations.

Frank Powell, of Dunsmuir, was an Ashland visitor lately, in the interests of the Scot organization, a pyramid of which was organized sometime ago in that city. It is an affiliation of the Masonic order, quite numerous in California.

Numerous friends of Frances Hamlin, bride-elect, and whose marriage is soon to take place in Honolulu, are planning a shower of gift remembrances in behalf of a matrimonial event in which Miss Hamilton's former associates here are heartily interested.

Volney Colvig, of this city, present at a recent reunion of members of that pioneer family, is 80 years old. His brothers, William of Medford, and George of Grants Pass, were also present. Volney's next of kin included Mrs. George Gillette and son Virgil, Mrs. T. W. Sanford, and Helen Colvig. Other relatives from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Emery and daughter Maxine, and Mrs. George Watson and son Kendrick. This family reunion was held on the banks of the Rogue, and was a jolly picnic outing.

From $200,000 or more to $50,000 approximately, is the valuation placed upon the Benton-Bussors estate, now being appraised officially, a considerable shrinkage from supposed estimates.

Clifford Fason, Seattle hotel man, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Wood.

C. W. Nims, one of the representatives of Hillah Temple to the Imperial Council of the Shrine, left for Des Moines, Iowa, on Monday. He will join the Imperial party at Tacoma, stopping at several temple locations en route. H. C. Sparr, the other representative of Hillah, also leaves for the central west this week, accompanied by his family, as it is his intention to leave Ashland and locate in Wisconsin permanently. His new home being Marshfield in that state, a lively manufacturing town in the wash and door line especially.

Mrs. Hazel Marx and daughter Shirley, of Grants Pass, are visiting relatives in the family of W. H. Hodgkinson, on Church street.

Oto Winter sports a brand new Studebaker car, bought of local representatives of the Hittson Motors.

J. W. McCoy, cashier of the First National bank, represented that institution at the recent convention of the State Bankers association in Portland.

At the churches, last Sunday morning, there was a general exchange of pastors. Mrs. Josephine Champe, of the Christian denomination, occupied the Presbyterian pulpit; Rev. W. L. Evans, Baptist, preached at the Congregational; Rev. Randolph Sennett, of Medford, presided at the Methodist; Rev. C. F. Koehler, Presbyterian, addressed the Christian following; while Rev. W. J. Oldfield, Congregational, occupied the Baptist pulpit. The latter is a relative of Barney Oldfield, of auto racing fame, and is somewhat

5-YEAR SENTENCE FOR G. H. ROBBERS, DEFER BANK CASES

Peter Strauff, "Dutch Pete," and Frank Kozak, both ex-convicts with prison records in Montana, Arizona and Oregon, were sentenced to five years in state prison this morning by Circuit Judge F. M. Calkins. The men were found guilty last Friday by a jury after an hour's deliberation of the attempted burglary of the Bank of Gold Hill on the night of April 13. A motion for a new trial was made in behalf of the pair by their attorneys. Both men received their sentences without a tremor.

All the Bank of Jacksonville failure cases pending were deferred till the fall term of court. These include indictments against C. H. Owens, former local orchardist, now a Utah oil operator, Mrs. Myrtle Blakeley, former county treasurer, Chester C. Kubil, Applegate rancher, and R. D. Hines, former vice president of the defunct institution.

Prosecutor Rawles Moore objected to the delay in the bank cases, and remarked that the public was losing confidence in the testimony of W. H. Johnson, former cashier of the bank, now serving a ten year sentence at Salem. Denunciations were filed to all the indictments of the above and will be argued and decided before the next term of court.

TRAINS LOST IN FLOOD WANDERING ALL OVER COUNTRY

BUTCHERSON, Kan., June 8.—Passengers who boarded a westbound train here last Friday at the Hutchinson, Topeka and Santa Fe station, today, on account of the Colorado floods, still were en route to Denver, passing through Hutchinson last night on the same train, but on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific line.

Their trip so far had been through portions of Kansas, Colorado, Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas again. They will go east to McFarland and hoped to get to Denver via the Rock Island.

HEALTH IS A WOMAN'S GREATEST ASSET

Contrast the cheerful happy woman with bright eyes, the glow of health on her cheeks, the elastic step and the bubbling enthusiasm as she goes about her daily tasks, with the woman who suffers from backache, headache, dragging-down pains, nervousness and dizziness. Such conditions are undoubtedly caused by women's ailments which will yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for many, many years has been restoring weak, ailing women to health and strength. Every woman who suffers in this way owes it to herself to at least give it a trial.
