

MANY EXPECTED TO TOSS THEIR HATS IN RING

Mayor Baker, Kelly, Kay and Patterson Are Mentioned As Candidates to Oppose Olcott for Governorship of State.

SALEM, Ore., June 9.—(Special).—Who will be the republican aspirants for the nomination for governor in the primaries of next year?

Who is going to run for the republican congressional nomination in the three Oregon districts?

Who is going to be a candidate for the republican nomination for state treasurer?

What are the democrats going to do?

These are some of the questions that are ripe for the asking in Oregon politics.

Olcott Silent

Governor Olcott has not told anyone he will be a candidate in 1922—at least he hasn't said so where it would reach the public. A year ago it was frequently said that Olcott would not be a candidate. No one says it now, and it may safely be said that he will be in the race. There are three reasons for this. One is that the legislature this year increased the salary, so there is at least more than bread and butter in it. Another reason is the human desire to hold office by election of the people as well as by inheritance. The third is the reasonably safe political policy adopted by the governor which his friends believe has maintained for him the level of friendship he held when he became governor. Whether that is sufficient to elect him governor would have to be determined at the polls. No one is going around singing Olcott's praise, and, on the other hand, little criticism of the administration is heard.

No one has yet come forward with any definite information whether Mayor George L. Baker of Portland will be a candidate nor whether Colonel George Kelly, member of the Port of Portland commission and business man, will be a candidate. Both Baker and Kelly talk is strong in Portland and sporadically about the state.

Senator I. L. Patterson has everyone guessing except those who are on the inside. The senator is rarin' to go for governor. But he is a close personal and political friend of Mr. Olcott. Whether his ambition to be governor is strong enough to cause him to discard sentiment and run against Olcott is a question. There

VAMPING A HUSBAND MAY BACKFIRE

By Mary Ethel Paige

Did you know a husband could be over-vamped?—fed up on vampishness which would cause a backfire of opposite result?

Lila Lee a Paramount screen celebrity who appears with Lois Wilson, Conrad Nagel and Jack Holt in William De Mille's production of "Midsummer Madness" has created a new type of woman. One she told me she had labeled the "Vamp Vamp"—the overloving wife who loads her husband with tender little attentions until the game has lost its charm—for him, at least.

"These three pictures explain thoroughly what I mean," said Lila Lee when I saw her at the Paramount studios. "There am I, as Daisy Osborn, wife of Julian Osborn (Conrad Nagel) showering attentions as I help him dress—until, like all men, his conceit and ego lead him to believe that he wants new worlds to conquer—and that's just the start of much midsummer madness."

Then I saw just what she meant by "Vamp Vamp," the pictures she handed me registering the conceit in man when a wife is "over-attentive!"

So, women, let's learn a lesson from Lila Lee and none of us be a "Vamp Vamp" to any man.

And there's many a married life that may be learned from Lila Lee, Lois Wilson, Conrad Nagel and Jack Holt in their portrayal of two married couples and their family friendship.

is a rumor that Patterson will stay out of the gubernatorial race and become an aspirant for the republican nomination for state treasurer. Should Olcott not be a candidate, it is said the administration support would go to Patterson.

Friends of Colonel George A. White, adjutant general of Oregon, have been importuning him for several months to seek the governorship, but the colonel is said to have discouraged their efforts. Before the war White was sometimes mentioned as a gubernatorial possibility.

Kay Might Run

T. B. Kay, former state treasurer and member of many sessions of the legislature, is under consideration. Kay's record for retrenchment and economy in the last legislature gave him strength among farmers' organizations and a percentage of business men. He would be able to poll a large vote in western Oregon both because of his record and his acquaintance.

Senator Jay Upton, of Prineville, is among the latest to be talked of as a gubernatorial possibility.

The halls of congress where he might sit in place of Nick Sinnott is believed to be more of a lure to Senator Roy Rittner of Pendleton than is the governor's office. There is no Rittner talk relative to the governorship. I. J. Simpson of Coos Bay is still considered a gubernatorial possibility. A new figure now occupying some attention is Judge Thomas J. Cleaton of Portland. It is said he might aspire to the governorship or try to beat Pat McArthur for the congressional nomination.

Ryan for Treasurer

As for the office of state treasurer recent gossip has it that O. P. Hoff will be a candidate for re-election. Senator Thomas Ryan of Oregon City, who was deputy under former State Treasurer Kay, and whom Hoff barely defeated in 1918, is looked upon as a certain entrant. Should Senator Patterson not run for governor, he may run for treasurer.

In the first congressional district which W. C. Hawley has represented for years at Washington, L. E. Bean of Eugene has designs on the place. In the second district Senator Rittner doubtless may try to unhorse Mr. Sinnott. Rittner is also talked of for national committee man to succeed Ralph E. Williams.

Much interest is beginning to center on the third district, Multnomah county. Information comes to the surface that Barge E. Leonard and Maurice Crumpacker want McArthur's place and may try to get it in the next election. Judge Cleaton is mentioned also in this connection as well as a possible candidate for governor.

May Run Teal

From the democratic camp it is said that either Lester Humphreys, United States attorney and overseas veteran, or Joseph N. Teal, who was a member of the United States shipping board, will be put forward for governor. Colonel Creed Hammond, soldier and banker, had been mentioned until he indignantly asserted that no longer would he be on the registration books of the democratic party.

MOVIE CRAZE IS JUST REACHING TAHITI ISLES

PAPEETE, Tahiti.—The greater number of the films displayed at the only picture house here are of American manufacture, and, as the explanations are in English, it is necessary to interpret the story as the picture proceeds. The one who performs this office is a young man of French descent who was born in the islands. He is a master of the Tahitian language and is endowed with the gift of eloquence—a veritable William Jennings Bryan of the South Seas.

Standing in the center of the gallery, he plays upon his audience as a master musician upon his instrument, rousing them to laughter, plunging them into despair and tears and inspiring them to roof-shaking cheers as the emotions of the pictured actors ebb and flow.

The moving pictures have had a great influence in changing the life of the islands. They have brought knowledge to the natives of the manners and customs of other lands and have changed the Tahitian's viewpoint from that of an isolated islander to the broad expanse of one who has travelled in many countries. He has seen pictured on the screen all the achievements of the white man, has viewed his famous cities, been instructed in his vanities and therefore no longer considers himself provincial.

It is something of a shock to the visitor who, believing the hectic tales told in books, expects to find a horde of naked savages, is met instead by the spectacle of brown women in Paris gowns, picture hats and high heeled shoes.

G. CARPENTIER PROVES HE HAS THE K.O. PUNCH

French Champ Floors 240-Pound Joe Jeanette With Overhand Right—Dempsey Put on Two Meals a Day, Following Lay Off.

MANHASSET, N. Y., June 8.—Georges Carpentier is well aware of the fact that he will enter the ring on July 2, several pounds lighter than Dempsey, but he does not worry about it. He has demonstrated to his own satisfaction in sparring with Joe Jeanette and Paul Journee, that he can drop a heavy man with ease.

Jeanette who tipped the scales at 240 pounds, went down Monday afternoon under the challenger's overhand right.

Georges is in the air when delivering the short right overhand blow and he is working for a speedy recovery, knowing it to be dangerous business to be caught off balance.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 8.—Mrs. Cecelia Dempsey, the 61-year-old mother of the world's heavyweight champion, is a newspaper fight fan. Although she never has witnessed a ring battle, nor expressed any desire to see her son in action, she has been an interested reader of glove contests, even before she became the mother of the world's titholder.

"It's a strange thing, but our mother has been always an ardent reader of fights, even before Jack was born," Bernard Dempsey, Jack's eldest brother, said today. "She knows more about heavyweight history than either Jack or myself. All of the old clippings of famous fights, now musty and yellow with age, are still in her trunk at home. She can give you an account of the Sullivan-Corbett fight as well as any person who sat at the ringside."

Mother Dempsey will get her account of the championship contest next month as the blow by blow story trickles off a press wire.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 8.—The noon hour dinner bell no longer rings for Jack Dempsey. The world's heavyweight champion today was placed on a restricted diet and his eating was reduced to two meals a day, breakfast and dinner. How long this order of things will last depends upon the speed and manner in which he takes off weight.

The order cutting Dempsey to two meals a day was issued following his enforced layoff from boxing, due to the reopening of the gash over his left eye. Lack of work with the gloves his handlers believed, would not make it possible for the champion to reduce as scientifically as had been planned, so it was decided to eliminate the noonday meal.

Spectators who watched the champion work out yesterday gasped in astonishment at his terrific punching power and speed in shifting.

ICONOCLASTS BUSY, NOTHING SECURE, HARDING ASSERTS

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Declaring that "almost nothing" remains secure today in the attacks of iconoclasts, President Harding appealed to the graduating classes of the nation's universities and colleges in an address here today to dedicate themselves to an unselfish service in the preservation of civilization.

"We look to this month's graduating classes," said the president, speaking at the commencement exercises of the American university, "to provide for more than their numerical share of leaders for the nation in a future not far ahead."

The nation must constantly be on its guard against the tendency to tear down established institutions before a plan of re-constitution has been devised, the president continued.

"After all," he said, "unsatisfactory as some earnest people regard the present structure of society and existing human relationships, a reasonably conscious world has been a long time traveling far on the road toward as ideal conditions as it now has reached. History has afforded many illustrations of society's crumbling and going to pieces, and the process has invariably been attended with superlative disaster to great masses of humanity.

It is a commonplace that at this time the world stands on the brink of what looks very much like a precipice. It must not be allowed to take the fatal plunge. It will not if it shall be able to summon to its leadership in the coming generation men and women who will unite a necessary measure of conservative purpose with an equally necessary portion of willingness to consider new expedients, to test out old formulas, to apply the acid test even to what we have learned to believe is pure gold.

New Low Price Makes Chalmers a Finer Investment

At the new low prices, the Chalmers is a particularly satisfactory investment. It is a remarkably good value; and it costs the owner less by the month or the year.

Since last fall, the Chalmers has been reduced $300 to $450 in price, according to the type, bringing it down to about the price asked for many smaller cars.

Its upkeep is exceedingly low. Replacement and maintenance charges are less. The life of the car is longer.

This is largely due to the wonderful Chalmers motor.

Fuel is Pre-Heated

The hot-spot pre-heats the fuel before it enters the cylinders. Combustion is much better and more complete.

Scored cylinder walls, burned bearings and other motor ills are avoided. Adjustments are less necessary. Costly shop lay-ups are almost unknown.

A Beautiful Car

Besides being fine mechanically, the Chalmers is a beautiful car, worthy of comparison with those costing a great deal more.

Its design, its fittings and its upholstery are all in thorough keeping with its wonderful motor.

We suggest that you permit us to demonstrate the marked Chalmers superiority.

DARLING BABY

BRIGHTENS HOME

Children's Laughter a Pleasing Sound

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We had six children die almost at birth. From one hour to nineteen days is all they have lived. Before my next one was born I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound, and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth, for this baby is now four months old, and a healthier baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says 'That is a very healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show these few lines to anybody."—Mrs. C. W. BENZ, 131 3rd Avenue, Altoona, Pa.

Mrs. Janssen's experience of interest to childless wives. Millston, Wis.—"I want to give you a word of praise for your wonderful medicine. We are fond of children, and for a considerable time after we were married I feared I would not have any. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it strengthened me so I now have a nice, strong, healthy baby girl. I suffered very little at childbirth, and I give all the credit to your medicine, and shall always recommend it highly."—Mrs. H. H. JANSSEN, Millston, Wis.

Mrs. Held of Marinette, Wis., adds her testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She says:

Marinette, Wis.—"I was in a nervous condition and very irregular. My doctor advised an operation. My husband brought me one of your booklets and asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It overcame my weakness so that I now have a healthy baby girl after having been married nine years. I am glad to recommend your medicine, and you may use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. H. B. HELD, 330 Jefferson St., Marinette, Wis.

There are many, many such homes that were once childless, and are now blessed with healthy, happy children because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored the mother to a strong and healthy condition, as it acts as a natural restorative for ailments as indicated by backache, irregularities, displacements, weakness and nervousness.

Women everywhere should remember that most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones—they are not caused by serious displacements or growths, although the symptoms may be the same, and that why so many apparently serious ailments readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it acts as a natural restorative. It can be taken with perfect safety and often prevents serious troubles.

Therefore if you know of any woman who is suffering and has been unable to secure relief and is regretfully looking forward to a childless old age, ask her to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it has brought health and happiness into so many homes once darkened by illness and despair.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.
