

REPORT OF SIMS TALK INCORRECT

U. S. Admiral in Brief Reply to Sec'y. of Navy Denby Declares Parts of Speech Were Garbled—Said Nothing Not Said Before in Book and in Speeches.

LONDON, June 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—The reply of Rear Admiral Sims to the request of Secretary of the Navy Denby for an explanation of his speech here Tuesday, expresses the opinion of Admiral Sims that some parts of the speech, to which objection had been taken, had been garbled. This was learned unofficially but on good authority, here today.

In his answer which is not long, Admiral Sims declares he said nothing in his address which he had not said before in speeches in the United States and in his book.

Admiral Sims did not seem perturbed by reports that the United States senate had taken action calling for an investigation of his speech, but expressed curiosity as to when the senatorial inquiry would be begun. "I am returning on June 15," he said.

Too Energetic Perhaps

LONDON, June 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—Rear Admiral William S. Sims made no direct mention of Americans in sympathy with the Irish republican cause today in an address at a luncheon given in his honor by the American Luncheon club.

"Perhaps we have used too energetic adjectives on some occasions," he said, "but let us hope that will be amicably explained away."

Admiral Sims paused a moment and then added:

"But I am going on doing the same thing."

This declaration brought from the two hundred guests a repetition of the uproarious applause which had greeted the remarks of Wilson Cross, vice president of the American Chamber of Commerce in London, in introducing Admiral Sims.

Labor Asks Recall

DENVER, June 10.—The recall of Admiral Sims from England and his dishonorable discharge from the United States navy by President Harding, if his remarks in London on the Irish question are found to be correctly quoted, was demanded in a resolution presented today in the annual convention of the Metal Trades department of the American Federation of Labor.

The resolution, presented by Timothy Healy, head of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers, urges that the full force of the American Federation of Labor be asked to co-operate and assist in the repudiation of the "slur cast upon the American people, upon their honor and their intelligence by Admiral Sims."

Secretary of the Navy Denby was commended for his "straightforward and emphatic Americanism in demanding an explanation from Admiral Sims," and the resolution demanded that "if he finds the admiral

IRISH LABORERS TO DEMAND IRELAND'S RECOGNITION BY PRESIDENT HARDING

DENVER, Colo., June 10.—Immediate recognition of the Irish republic, withdrawal of the British troops from Ireland and the refund by Great Britain of the $9,000,000,000 loaned by the United States is demanded in the resolution tentatively drafted by Irish sympathizers to be submitted to the convention of the American Federation of Labor next week.

This resolution, it was learned today has been decided upon at a meeting of delegates with Irish sympathies. The committee that will complete the document is headed by Peter J. Brady of New York.

The Irish sympathizers will ask the federation to call upon President Har-

Masked Mob Beats Up 'Tim' Sullivan's Pal; Death Expected

DAYTONIA, Fla., June 10.—The death of Lorillard Reynolds, for more than 30 years intimate associate of "Big Tim" Sullivan, New York politician, was momentarily expected today as the result of wounds received when a mob of masked men severely beat and shot him last night at Seabreeze, a fashionable beach resort in the suburbs of this city. Reynolds received a bullet in the left breast which missed his heart by less than an inch.

Reynolds was the owner of the Seabreeze Opera house, which with several residences was destroyed by fire a week ago and because of rumors that he was responsible, feeling against him had been high. He was overpowered last night while standing near the ruins of the theater and during the struggle was beaten about the head and shot.

JURY VERDICT IS MURDER, BUT DEATH OPPOSED

Camp Lewis Soldier Found Guilty, But Jury Refuses to Follow Instructions of Court and Votes Not to Pronounce Supreme Sentence.

TACOMA, Wash., June 10.—Edward Filion, Camp Lewis soldier was at noon found guilty of murder in the first degree for the killing of Earl Timbs, taxicab driver, on May 8. The jury voted not to hang the defendant.

The jury of six men and six women had debated on a verdict for 20 hours before the agreement was reached on first degree without hanging. The instructions of the court forced the jury to find the defendant guilty in the first degree or to acquit. Filion was unmoved when he heard the verdict read. His father, A. Filion of Ontario, Canada, the boy's old home, was in court.

The evidence in the case showed that Filion and three other soldiers, George W. Sharp, Carl C. Perrin and James Sparks, hired the taxicab of Timbs here on May 8, drove into the country, hit Timbs with a rock, asphyxiated him with chloroform, and hid the dead body in underbrush along a road near Seattle. Filion did the actual slugging with the stone.

The soldiers were arrested two days after the crime while going over the mountains in Timbs' machine. The trial of Sharp has been set for next Monday. He will be defended by W. W. Hastings, former congressman from Oklahoma. Sharp is a Cherokee Indian, and was sergeant at Camp Lewis. He served in France during the war with the Fourth division.

Mrs. Mallory Beaten. BECKENHAM, Kent, England, June 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, American woman tennis champion, was defeated today in the semi-finals of the singles in the tennis tournament in progress here by Mrs. Beaush, the English star, 6-4, 6-1.

ding to immediately communicate a message to congress urging recognition of the Irish republic and formally protest against the alleged "barbarous warfare" being carried on by British troops in Ireland. Repayment of the English loan is asked on the ground that the British government has failed to pay its interest and was using the money available for this purpose to maintain soldiers to suppress Ireland and other small nations and to carry out a great naval extension program.

"Approximately 95 per cent of the delegates to the convention are Irish sympathizers," said Mr. Brady who asserted that support of the resolution had been pledged by a large majority.

PERU, Ill., June 10.—Six hundred miners, who were trapped in the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad mine at Mark, ten miles south of here, when fire started half a mile from the shaft, shortly before noon, are all believed to have escaped via emergency shafts. The state rescue crew sealed the burning tunnel.

GHOSTS DID HUSBAND IN SAYS WIFE

Weird Murder Case Is Revealed By Confession of Mrs. Dan Kaber, Lakewood, O.—Hired Spooks to Shake Civility Into Husband, But They Killed Him.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Dan F. Kaber, wealthy Lakewood, Ohio, publisher, met death after attacking two foreigners engaged by Mrs. Kaber to pose as spirits to frighten him into a better attitude toward her, according to a statement which the New York Evening World today says Chief of Police Christensen obtained from Mrs. Kaber here. The newspaper quotes Chief Christensen as saying that Mrs. Kaber had consulted a woman medium for advice as to how to change her husband's attitude toward her. The publisher's surly manner after an illness was said to have occasioned the visit.

By advice of this medium, Mrs. Kaber was said to have employed two foreigners to appear at her husband's bedside in the night as ghosts and, as she expressed it, "try and shake a little civility into him."

Aroused from his slumber Mr. Kaber was alleged to have attacked the two men and to have been stabbed to death by them in the struggle.

According to the newspaper Chief Christensen said Mrs. Kaber had declared that she had refused to pay the two foreigners when they reappeared after the funeral, asserting they had not fulfilled the role of ghosts as she had intended and that she would not involve herself by paying for murder.

Mrs. Kaber was then said to have fled to New York to escape the foreigners without advising the Cleveland police for fear of involving herself.

Mrs. Kaber Confesses

CLEVELAND, June 10.—Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber has confessed that her husband, Dan F. Kaber, was murdered with her knowledge in their Lakewood home two years ago and Marian McArdle, Mrs. Kaber's daughter, has confirmed much of her mother's story, the Cleveland News announces this morning on information telephoned from New York by Police Chief Christensen, of Lakewood, to County Prosecutor Stanton here today.

The "man with the cap" now in custody here, is the man who drove the knife twenty-four times into Kaber's body, according to the statement attributed to Mrs. Kaber.

A woman whom Mrs. Kaber says planned the murder was arrested in her home here today by Prosecutor Stanton and Chief of Police Frank W. Smith. The woman refused to make any statement.

According to Prosecutor Stanton's information from Chief Christensen, Mrs. Kaber said "two foreigners did the murder," and declared that a woman arrested by Cleveland officers in Sandusky, Ohio, Wednesday morning and now held in jail here, procured the actual slayers.

Man With Cap Arrested "The man with the cap" was arrested here Wednesday and his companion, a cousin, who, according to the statement, sat at Kaber's head to stifle his cries is being sought by police.

Mrs. Kaber's alleged confession declares, according to Prosecutor Stanton's information, that the two foreigners went to the Kaber home to "beat up" Kaber. Instead they stabbed him to death.

Mrs. Kaber and her daughter broke down and confessed, according to Stanton's advices from New York, after being questioned ceaselessly for several hours by detectives sent to their cells during the night.

Woman Jurors Bill Apparently Defeated Bonus Vote Grows

PORTLAND, June 10.—Latest tabulated returns from the special election Tuesday wiped out the favorable majority which had been held by the woman jurors measure, and the result continued in doubt. The figures were 54,924 yes, 55,002 no. The official canvass will probably be necessary to determine finally the fate of the measure, according to observers of the count.

Newest returns increased the majority in favor of the bonus measure to more than 48,000.

FUNERAL COLONEL GAILBRAITH TO BE HELD ON SATURDAY

CINCINNATI, June 10.—The funeral of Colonel Frederick W. Gailbraith, Jr., commander of the American Legion, who was killed in an automobile accident in Indianapolis, will be held Saturday afternoon in Music Hall, the largest auditorium in the city. This was decided upon today by Robert J. Bentley, post, American Legion, of which Colonel Gailbraith was a member and after the widow expressed the wish that the best make all arrangements for the funeral. It is considered most likely that the burial will be in Arlington cemetery, Washington, D. C.

It is expected that the funeral will be the largest ever held in Cincinnati. The entire 147th United States Infantry, troops from Fort Thomas, Kentucky, various service men's organizations and all the civil clubs in which Colonel Gailbraith was a leader, will participate.

Mrs. Gailbraith expressed the desire this morning to be allowed to remain alone with the body all day.

UNION LABOR SAFE SAYS S. GOMPERS

Venerable President of A. F. L. makes An Eloquent Address Before Annual Convention—Declares Labor Movement Is More Practical and Progressive.

DENVER, June 10.—"As long as I live, no matter how placed, I shall endeavor to pursue my life's work until the end."

With this pledge of service to the perpetuity of the American labor movement, President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor closed his address today before the annual convention of the federation's metal trades department.

"When that end comes," added the veteran labor leader, "I hope I may be conscious so as to express to my fellows past and here the justice and the confidence that I have in them and the hope for the perpetuity of the great American labor movement."

President Gompers urged the metal trades unions to be optimistic as to the future, asserting that the present reaction would not be lasting. Organized labor, he declared, is going to hold all that it has gained and has made a successful fight against its enemies.

Labor Is Safe "The American labor movement is safe," said the labor chief. "It is progressive. It is less fantastical but it is more practical."

A resolution was presented to the convention urging the department to call upon the civil service commission, secretary of the navy and secretary of war to immediately discharge all aliens in the government employ who do not immediately qualify for citizenship.

Owing to the failure of committees to report the convention of the building trades department was adjourned until tomorrow.

Before adjourning the convention received a resolution from the Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers demanding that steps be taken to have the organized workers of the country boycott British manufactured goods and materials until Great Britain stops its "war of reprisals, killing of people and destruction of property in Ireland."

Another resolution urged the executive council of the department to investigate the possibility of establishing a national building material supply company. This is declared necessary as it is alleged building material supply dealers have allied themselves with the different elements and associations that are trying to destroy the building trades unions.

CAR OFF COLUMBIA HIGHWAY, 2 DEAD

PORTLAND, Ore., June 10.—Frank D. Wilson, injured when an automobile plunged over a 400-foot cliff from the Columbia river highway at Bridal Veil, Ore., yesterday, died at a hospital this morning. Mrs. Margaret Garland, who was in the machine with Wilson, was instantly killed in the accident. Deputy sheriff yesterday searched for a supposed third victim as a result of Wilson's numbed statement when picked up in a dazed condition that two women were in the car with him, but failed to find another body. They finally abandoned the search, believing Wilson was delirious and that there was no third victim.

Wilson was a Portland real estate dealer. His son today said he did not know Mrs. Garland.

DENVER, Colo., June 10.—Delegates to the convention of the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor this afternoon by an overwhelming vote defeated the proposal designed to bring about the organization of one big metal trades union in the United States.

Bomb Throwers Try To Kill Bone Dry Officers in Ohio

NEW PHILADELPHIA, Ohio, June 10.—Attempts were made by bomb throwers today to kill Russell Bowers, 39 years old, prosecuting attorney of Tuscarawas county, and L. O. Haug, safety director of Dover, both of whom have been active in enforcement of the prohibition laws in Tuscarawas county. A dynamite bomb was thrown on the front porch of the Bowers home in New Philadelphia at 1:30 a. m. from a passing automobile. It blew the porch to splinters and wrecked the house, but no one was injured. A dynamite bomb was also thrown on the porch of the Haug home in Dover at about the same time, but it failed to explode.

Nick Nigro and his son Chauncey of Dover, were arrested as suspects. The son was found hiding under the porch of the Nigro home.

DEATH LIST AT 500, LOSS $20,000,000

Unofficial Reports After a Careful Survey of Situation Show First Reports Not Exaggerated—Flood Waters of Platte at Denver Show Decline.

DENVER, June 10.—A census of deaths and property damage in the flooded areas of Colorado, instituted by the Associated Press, has established the fact that it probably will be several days at least before anything like an accurate estimate of the lives lost or of the damage done can be made. The census, made by telegrams sent to the mayors of towns in the flooded areas, is only partially completed.

In northern Colorado is established that four persons were drowned at Sterling, one man died of exposure at Union, where a Rock Island train was wrecked last Tuesday night and one man was drowned and another is reported missing in Denver.

In the Pueblo area, embracing the territory from the city of Pueblo along both sides of the Arkansas river to the Kansas line, the reports thus far received are as follows:

In Pueblo, 47 bodies reported recovered in the city itself and ten others recovered on the St. Charles Mesa. A list compiled by the Red Cross, fixes the number of missing at 130. Property damage estimated at from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000. Unofficial estimates of the dead, place the figure at around 500.

To the east of Pueblo, Holly, close to the Kansas line, reports no lives lost and no serious damage done. Manzanola reports eight bodies recovered from the Arkansas but no lives lost in the immediate vicinity. The mayor of Manzanola says the flood caused no damage in the town itself, but he estimates the damage to farms, crops, irrigating systems and from loss of livestock in the vicinity at close to half a million dollars.

Las Animas reports four dead, but no authentic estimate of property damage has been sent from there. La Junta reports eighteen dead in the district near the city, with no official figures given out on the property damage.

Reports from other towns in the flooded areas are expected during the day.

DENVER, June 10.—The flood waters of the South Platte river continued to recede during the night and this morning only railroad yards and property on the immediate banks of the stream were still inundated. At the water recedes the flooded area is left behind a foot deep in mud and slime. Arthur Medaris, chief of the municipal inspection bureau has ordered several carloads of lime spread over the district as a sanitation measure.
