ASHLAND PEOPLE ERECT 6 SUMMER COTTAGES IN PARK

ASHLAND, June 15.—Six cottages more or less, will be installed in the park, south of the Chautauqua building, to accommodate the demand for transient housing during the summer school season which opens June 20 for a six weeks session. These constructions are not mere shacks, but comfortable abodes already furnished, costing about $300 apiece. A rental of seven dollars a week for each cottage is considered about the fair price to charge. Regulation tents are already being pitched in the parks in readiness for the approaching schools and conferences which will open up here early.

"What's the matter with the churches of Ashland?" was defined by Dr. Bulgin, incident in his theme last Sunday afternoon at 2:30. At 5 o'clock there was a complimentary luncheon at the Presbyterian church, for the young people of the city, preliminary to a young people's meeting for them at 5:45. At 7 p. m. there was a big union rally at the Chautauqua "tabernacle," as most people still choose to term it, when Bulgin gave reasons for the faith that is in him. "What do we have the Bible to the inspired word of God?" Responding to a hearty invitation to attend the meetings on the part of lodge affiliations in general, the Odd Fellows put in an appearance on Monday night, the invitation being extended to the Masonic order on Tuesday evening. Dr. Bulgin does not use any specific text at these gatherings as applying to the lodge membership, but talks on the stated theme, and incidentally weaves into the wool practical exemplifications of fraternalism mutually helpful to all concerned. The Lewis Sunshine chorus is making a decided hit, all boys and girls under 18 constituting two companies of young folks enthusiastically devoted to sharing the patriotic, religious, and intellectual development available at these lively gatherings.

A resident of Dead Indian, wishing to take absent treatment of a local dentist for a new set of teeth, wrote as follows: "My mouth is three inches across, hummocky on the edges, shaped like a horse's nose, too forward. If you want me to be more pertikular, I shall have to come there."

Hotel Austin is in the throes of a foreclosure suit, pending non-payment of mortgage installment. The purchase price is said to have been $45,000, ten thousand down and balance on time. Several parties are interested ones in a deal which promises extensive improvements to hotel and other properties throughout the city.

"Lest we forget." At the funeral services of a young soldier boy, held last Sunday, the weather was fine—so fine, in fact, that most everybody was out joyriding, and as a consequence the attendance at these final rites was small. Even legion members present barely exceeded a corporal's guard literally. We honor the flag and then neglect to observe what obligations the observance implies. We subscribe and oversubscribe to various funds, patriotic and otherwise, and in the meantime subscriptions towards the local soldiers monument lag behind that desired quota by quite a sum.

Malta Commandery meets Wednesday evening, June 15. New uniforms arrived.

In scant habiliments, Ed Staples staged a scenario last Sunday night that would have done justice to a "September Morn" environment. Some one undertook to puffer a tire from the rear of his car, but Ed discovered the thieves hence the commotion at an unseasonly hour, which disturbed the slumbers of the police. This midnight raid failed of its purpose, and as a further result the ostensible owner of a strange car is subject to a severe questioning regarding a situation involving the absence of a license number and other rather compromising circumstances.

Ed Hughes has appeared in a new role other than a promoter of orchards mines and oil wells. On Tuesday he was exhibiting containers of peppermint extract, product of extensive fields in Klamath county which are "coming into bearing." The mint does upon a peat bog habitat, and these conditions flourish in certain sections of the Klamath basin. A company has been formed and the mint is being cultivated on a large scale justifying marketing the extract and its by-products commercially, the price during war times having reached nearly ten dollars per pound.

"A key with a suspicious mark inside," as recently announced in these columns, might possibly prove to be a clue in foresting out the location of an illicit still, but "a keg with a suspicious mark inside," as was written, would, in all probability be considered the better testimony.

Edd White, for years a familiar figure at the depot, where he supervised the handling of train newsboys' supplies, died last Sunday, after protracted illness. Funeral services were held at the family home on Monday, interment being in Mountain View. Edd was a genial companionable fellow. He was a civil war veteran, and the G. A. R. assisted in paying the proper tribute of respect at the final obsequies.

A new addition to the county clerk's official family is Miss Alice Poor, of this city.

Leonard Pettit, expert violist, will fiddle the tunes away at Crater Lake lodge during the summer tourist season, having been engaged by the management to take charge of this particular phase of musical entertainment at the big resort.

Alfalfa hay in the shock is being offered in the Valleyview section at prices ranging from $7 to $12 per ton, according to quality.

A man called for a canoodle or casegale at a local hardware store recently, he couldn't remember which article he was told to purchase. "It all depends upon what kind of a chicken you want to put in it," was the only suggestion the dealer could offer.

Local lodge officers are numerous in Portland this week. Dr. W. E. Buchanan, as master, George Leachover as senior warden, and Dr. R. L. Bardie as proxy for junior warden, represent Ashland lodge No. 23 at the Masonic grand lodge; Victor Mills, represents Siskiyon chapter at the grand chapter; and Mrs. Elizabeth Bush represents Alpha chapter at the grand chapter gathering of the Eastern Star.

J. H. Hurn and Bob Shaw are passing the summer vacation season on their respective mining claims in this locality.

N. Y. Stocks

NEW YORK, June 15.—The Northern Pacific today declared its regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent.

After the directors meeting, Howard Elliott, chairman, said: "This payment is not from earnings of property in 1921, which, in common with other railroads, have been at a lower level than in previous years, but out of surplus heretofore accumulated and not distributed."

NEW YORK, June 15.—Latest developments affecting the Mexican oil production and more depressing notices regarding domestic industrial conditions prompted further selling of the general list in the stock market today. Sales approximated 750,000 shares.

Thankful He Was Not a Woman. The late Lawson Tall, of England, the great woman's doctor, said he never went to bed at night without thanking heaven he was not born a woman. No doctor ever knew better than he what women have to suffer at some times of their lives. It was an American woman, being asked to be rewarded, who introduced a combination of roots and herbs called Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that has proved wonderfully successful in mitigating suffering and relieving diseases of women. It has brought relief to thousands of women who suffered from female ailments.

PLEADS FOR TIMBER CRUISE

(Continued from Page One) sawmill by-products and forestry whistles" said Mr. Coleman. Mr. Coleman urged that the cruise, if launched, be taken along efficient lines, and procure competent cruisers. "Anybody who knows anything about Jackson County lands," said the speaker, "knows that you can get a fair price in any direction without running into different kinds of soil. A classification of the timber lands would equalize agricultural land values. I can not assess one farm at $150 per acre, and jump over a fence and assess the land there at $90 per acre." Dr. J. D. Ricketts favored the plan set forth by Ricketts Coleman, with the argument that tax adjustments as they should be would insure the timber interest either by adjusting the tax, or by selling the timber to somebody that would. He argued for the placing of the tax problems on an efficiency basis without delay. Postmaster W. J. Warner reported that the postoffice department had ordered the Medford office in the distributing center for all mail to Crater Lake. Heretofore, the Crater Lake mail had been routed via Klamath Falls. "This," said Mr. Warner, "improves Medford's claim as the gateway to Crater Lake." Attorney Geo. Newberry acted as a chairman of the meeting and the meeting was in charge of P. E. Merrill, acting in the absence of the Rev. D. E. Mihalch.
