

OPEN MEETING OF C. OF COMMERCE MONDAY NIGHT

In accordance with a petition signed by 120 citizens of the Rogue River valley, the Chamber of Commerce board has issued a call for a meeting Monday night and they are extremely anxious that the same be attended by a representative body of citizens from all parts of the county.

The petition, addressed to the president, secretary and board of directors of the Medford Chamber of Commerce reads as follows and clearly explains the object of the meeting:

"We the undersigned, members or contributors to the Medford Chamber of Commerce, ask that an open meeting be called at an early date. The object of this meeting to be the discussion of the question of a wider publicity campaign in an effort to procure settlers on the immense acreage of land that will have to be put into intensive cultivation on the completion of the Medford, Talent, Gold Hill and Eagle Point irrigation districts, in order that they may be made a success.

"Approximately 23,000 acres will be put under irrigation at an enormous expense to the property owners, and it is vital that new people and more money be brought into the valley.

"Every new man in the valley increases the income of all local business men. With water on our Rogue River valley lands, any man will succeed who could achieve success in any district under the sun. The time is now ripe to get these settlers if we go after them as other Chambers of Commerce are doing. Let us fulfill our responsibility to the farmer now that we have made the start. It's up to us."

CAMERA MEN FACE TERROR

These pictures are the only official films of the holocaust that shook civilization and only allowed to be shown the public under the auspices of a veteran organization.

They are the complete record of the 91st, 42nd, 32nd and 2nd Divisions of the United States army in France.

The camera men were members of the signal corps and during the taking the fellows worked under conditions of terror. Whilst the camera quietly clicked, the machine guns and rifle fire played a mad staccato and overhead the big Berthas belched forth a tone of thunder as liquid fires poured forth death and devastation on Flanders field as shrapnel sang a song of fate. These fearless young Yanks helped record the deeds that made it possible to say "they shall not pass."

The battlefields where bloody action raged for days are not the only features of the films—there will be shown charming views of the ruined art palaces and razed cathedrals of sunny France.

Notice

The funeral of Wagoner Artemus E. Spooner will be held at Perle's, 2:00 Monday afternoon. A full turnout of Legion and former 7th Company men is requested, in uniform if possible.

Commander American Legion.

SCENIC SOCIETY TO HAVE FLOAT PARADE JULY 4

The most ideal location was selected by the Scenic Preservation association of Jackson county for their regular monthly meeting which was held yesterday. This was at the Table Rock school house at the base of that historic and wonderful scenic attraction, Table Rock, and there also was a magnificent view of Mr. McLaughlin to the east.

No action was taken toward making the road to the top of Table Rock accessible to auto travel, it being the opinion of the members that it was too great an undertaking for the association with its limited financial means. The fact that a view of the valley from the top of Table Rock was an exceptional scenic asset to the county, the county authorities could well afford to spend $100.00 of public funds to make it possible for tourists as well as our own residents to drive there.

As the Scenic association is dependent upon the patriotic assistance of the citizens of the county to conserve the scenery we now have, it was decided that a float be entered in the patriotic parade at the Jackson county Fourth of July celebration at Ashland. Mrs. I. C. Williams of Talent, who is vice-president of the association was requested to carry out this action.

Eagle Point was the unanimous choice of those present as the next regular monthly meeting place which will be held on July 15.

The meeting yesterday was most successful and the basket picnic lunch was enjoyed by all. A good many residents of Medford as well as from Central Point were present.

U. S. WON'T ATTEND LEAGUE MEETING

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The American government, it was learned today does not contemplate participation in the deliberations of the council of the League of Nations, which convenes tomorrow at Geneva for consideration of problems arising out of the allocation of mandates. A suggestion that the United States be represented was made by the president of the council after the United States had protested against the award of mandates without its consent.

Since the United States and Japan have undertaken a settlement by direct negotiation of pending issues between the two countries, consideration of the Yap mandate by the council is regarded here as unnecessary.

FAIL TO FIND CACHE OF GARDNER'S MONEY

PORTLAND, Ore., June 18.—After searching in the vicinity of Castle Rock, Wash., for Roy Gardner's cache of money he stole from the officers from whom he escaped a week ago, a party of federal agents returned here today empty-handed. Gardner told them he put $50 and a revolver under an old gas engine on a sand bar near Castle Rock, but careful search in this vicinity failed to reveal any trace of money or gun.

BANDITS HOLD UP U. S. MAIL JITNEY
BAXTER SPRINGS, Kas., June 17.—Four bandits held up Guy Shields, 26 years old, armed mail messenger, here early today, took him half a mile west of town, put him out of his motor car and escaped with five pouches of mail.
The last Shields saw of the bandits, they were speeding west in a motor car taken from him and a touring car used in the robbery. He walked back to town.
Banks announced today that so far as could be determined, none of their money was in the pouches. Only a small quantity of registered mail is believed to have been stolen.
Chief of Police C. H. Upson received a report that some of the mail had been dumped into Spring river.

OIL AND GAS SHOWING AT THE TRIGONIA WELL

The week at the Trigonia well has been devoted to under-reaming and setting casing in an effort to shut off water. The showing of oil and gas from the bottom of the well made this procedure advisable. Drilling will be resumed as soon as water can be shut off. Remember the stock holders election Monday, the 20th, at the Medford public library at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Luella Mackey, 16 Buena Vista St., Washington, Pa., writes: "Last winter my 3-year-old girl caught a bad cold which left her with a dry cough. It bothered her most at night and she would cough until she vomited. I think she must have had whooping cough. I saw an advertisement for Foley's Honey and Tar. I tried it and bought two bottles and her cough left her before she finished the second bottle. She had gotten awfully thin, but now she is as fat as ever." Sold everywhere.

BIG $20,000,000 MERGER OF FRUIT BY DI GIORGIA

Announcement has just been made of the consolidation of 11 fruit organizations or fruit material manufacturers of Idaho, Oregon and Washington. The organization will be known as the Di Giorgio Fruit corporation and is reported to combine assets of $20,000,000.

The northwestern companies in the merger include the Southern Idaho Dried Fruit company of Meridian, Ida.; the Westlakes Orchard company of Emmett, Idaho; the Consolidated Orchards company of Boise, Idaho; the Naches Cold Storage company of Yakima, Wash.; the Haskell Packing company of Wenatchee, Wash., and its subsidiary companies, the Oroville Orchard company of Oroville, Wash., and the Ellisford Fruit company of Ellisford, Wash.; the Klamath Lumber and Box company of Klamath Falls, Ore., and the Pine Box and Lumber company of Yakima.

These organizations will control in the northwest a considerable acreage under direct ownership and a greater acreage under which it holds marketing contracts.

The merger puts a total of 57,000 acres of fruit land of the northwest, New York, California, Georgia, Cuba, Jamaica and Florida under centralized control. It is reported to own about 7650 acres of bearing orchard and to have under lease over 5000 acres and has marketing contracts covering the fruit of about 31,000 acres.

This consolidation is a merger of the various fruit organizations through out the country in which Joseph Di Giorgio has been interested.—Oregon Farmer.

DO YOU ENJOY YOUR HOME?

If not, you may be sure it isn't the meals. Perhaps the screens sag, letting in the flies. Perhaps you need new screen doors. Possibly it's the restless nights and you need a sleeping porch, or it's the general arrangement of your house that causes extra work and ill temper.

THINK IT OVER

Some slight modification of your home, or a correction of its faults, may add to your personal comfort, as well as greatly increase the value of your property. We offer you every service at our command.
