

ASHLAND D. A. R. TO MARCH JULY 4 CELEBRATION

ASHLAND, June 20.—Mrs. March Mitchell has been appointed as generalist in behalf of the Ashland chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and her activities will assist those interested in tracing their lineage back to colonial times. The chapter membership is now exceeding the two score mark, with several applications yet to be passed upon. Miss Palmer is historian of the organization. The chapter will participate in the Fourth of July celebration, notably parade features. Mrs. Walter Everson having charge of these details. The recent gathering was held last Friday, with Mrs. E. V. Carter as hostess.

The temporary presiding officer of the Woman's Auxiliary, American Legion, is Mrs. A. E. Littlechild. Mrs. Henry Pace being chosen as secretary. At the initial state convention of the order, to be held at Eugene, July 1 and 2, the local auxiliary will be represented by Mrs. P. Murphy as delegate. A special meeting is called for Friday evening of this week, at which a permanent organization will be effected, and in the meantime, Mrs. Emily Hammond, 42nd street, will have charge of details for this gathering. In common with other civic organizations, the D. A. R. will not allow the national holiday on July 4th to pass without taking a prominent part in the patriotic observance.

Funeral services of the late De Witt Clinton Agler, veteran Southern Pacific passenger conductor, who died in Portland last Friday morning, were held in that city at the crematorium, June 20, under Knights Templar auspices, the deceased having been a member of Malta Commandery of Ashland, also a past grand commander of the order. Rev. R. K. Hammond, vicar of Trinity church, who is in Portland, attended to the moral details to behalf of local Masonic affiliations. Mr. Agler was 87 years of age, having been born in 1834, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. For 25 years or more he was in the service of the Southern Pacific, his assignments being on principal passenger trains in and out of this terminal, notably the Shasta Limited, in connection with which train he was a familiar employe with the traveling public. The family home of Mrs. Agler and daughter, Alice, is at 744 East Main street, Portland.

The local police search for the "mystery man," supposed to be one W. H. Burke, wandering recently through this territory, probably refers to Charles Gilbert, aged 77, who last Friday fell exhausted by the wayside near Bend, after a tramp through southern Oregon and northern California, having left the Josephine county poor farm, Grants Pass, March 11, and who was in 1918 recently in and about June 1. Bend authorities will return him to Josephine county.

The evangelistic meetings will close on Sunday evening, June 26. Last Friday night, Medford Epworth league, led by Dr. Sasmitt, made the Chautauqua tabernacle welkin ring. Pastor Edwards, of the local Methodist church, welcomed the visitors, the delegation including representatives from various denominations. Dr. Leach, of Medford, responded and congratulations over the great success of the revival movement were mutually felicitous. The writers of anonymous letters reflecting upon the work of Dr. Bulgin here are being exonerated by local clergy. The parade on Sunday afternoon assumed proportions of a holiday observance on a big scale, all portions of the valley being represented, enthusiasm being at concert pitch. Sunday evening, Dr. Bulgin's subject was "Is there a hell?" a topic which reminds this correspondent of a story. A certain man, unimpaired of entreaty, positively refused to attend church services, emphasizing the assertion that he didn't believe in hell, heaven, or purgatory. The minister went his way dejectedly. A few days later the non-churchman died, and the minister, gazing on his casket features as he lay in state awaiting cremation, sadly remarked, "Poor fellow! All dressed up and no place to go!"

Ring Sketches of Bygone Years

Some time after he defeated Jeffries, Jack Johnson was indicted on charges of violating the Mann Act, but he evaded arrest and finally journeyed to Paris.

When the exchequer shrivled a bit, he accepted a challenge from Frank Moran, of Pittsburg, and they faced one another in France on June 27, 1914. The negro warrior scored a victory on points in 29 rounds.

Moran was game and stubbornly stood up to Johnson's assaults, which had not the steam of the champion's earlier attacks. Johnson possessed all of his old-time skill, however.

There was not a single knockdown, nor anything that smacked of a finishing blow. Johnson's superior skill and his incessant uppercutting kept Moran in submission. Moran's attack lacked the power to dispose of his adversary.

The crowd was as cosmopolitan as Paris itself. There were barons and dukes at the ringside, and earls and duchesses, too. Sporting men of many nations, clad in the formal evening garb with which Europe honors its boxers, were part of the throng.

Johnson was proud of his victory, for it was the first time that a champion as old as he had ever defended his title and won. He was then 26 years old. Moran's senior by almost a decade.

The referee of the fight was Georges Carpentier, who now aspires to become heavyweight champion by whipping Dempsey.

Troubled for Ten Years

If you suffer pains and aches during the day and sleep-disturbing weakness by night, feel tired, nervous and run down, the kidneys and bladder need to be restored to healthy and regular action. J. T. Osburn, R. F. D. No. 1, Lucasville, O., writes: "I had kidney trouble for ten years. I tried many remedies but they did me no good. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me so much that now I am well." Don't delay. Sold everywhere. Adv.

SALTEM, Ore., June 20.—Despite the late rains and unusually cold weather that prevailed early in the season, reports reaching Salem today from the rural districts indicate that in many of the lowland sections this year's crop would be almost normal. The hill lands will produce only a small crop, reports indicate, while on the extreme elevations there are prospects of a fair yield. The cherry crop in Marion county is normal this season, and thousands of pounds of the product have already reached the market.

The world's population just before the war was estimated at 1,649,000,000.
