BUDGET LAW

Director of Budget Says Might As Well Tunnel Pikes Peak With Toothpick--Law Must Be Strengthened and Business Men Must Be Extended & Aid.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Charles G. Dawes of Chicago, chosen by Presi dent Harding to head the new govern ment budget system, announced after a conference with the president today that he would call on a number of experienced business men to serve on the budget bureau without pay beby congress wholly inadequate,

Mr. Dawes declared in a statement that if the budget system was to be a success reliance must be placed on something else than the pitiful machinery provided by law.

"One might as well be handed a toothplck," he said, "with which to tunnel Pike's Peak."

General Dawes declared he would ask that Brigadier General George Van Moseley, former assistant chief of staff in General Pershing's quarters in France and Colonel Henry Smither, former assistant chief of staff in the service of supply be as signed to the bureau. He is said to have asked his business associate William T. Abbott of Chicago, to serve as acting assistant director tempora

Mr. Dawes in his statement said: We all know the desperate condition of the business of the country at present-industrial, agricultural and commercial, and that it is staggering under a tremendous burden of taxation from which it must be relieved if it is to properly revive."

For the budget work, which he termed a "collossal task," Mr. Dawes said congress had appropriated $225. 000, but that it was provided that the directors assistants in each depart-ment should be appointed by the caballowed to select four employes at not more than $6,000 each. ming up these congressional provisiens, Dawes remarked:

"On or before August 1, I shall ask the president to invite a number of leading American business men to come to Washington to serve without compensation in an advisory capacity to the budget bureau, he said.

As soon as possible, pending the organization of my office and before August 1, I will call together en masse all the bureau chiefs of the by December 1."

No penalty can be too severe or 'should opposition develop among bureau chiefs or others."

Mr. Dawes said he expected to retire from the directorship in December after the first budget had been presented to congress.

Bantamweight Champion of France Confident Brain Wil Win Over Brawn-Carpentier's Aide Sees Dempsey in Action-Champ Pleased.

NEW YOUK, June 23.—Georges arpentier has more than an ever hance of carrying away the heavy weight boxing title in the opinion of the vanguard of European sporting writers, who arrived yesterday aboard the new French liner Paris, on her maiden trip from Hayre. Charles Ledoux, the bantamweight champion of France, predicted Car-pentice would knock Dempsey out in six rounds.

'I have seen both men in action, he said, 'and base my opinion on per-sonal observation. For the first time in his career Dempsey will be called upon to fight a brain. Carpentier's brain, coupled with his strength and precision in bitting, will win." Andrew Glarner, French track star, who will report the fight for the Ex-celsior and the Petit Parisien, said: "Every Frenchman is sending Car-pentier the message: Bring home the bacon, and I am sure he will do it."

MANHASSET, N. Y., June 23.— Georges Carpentier is hiding his real fighting ability behind a series of list-less public workouts.
