

Local and Personal

There seems to be no let-up in sight to the present warm wave which yesterday afternoon reached a climax of 95.5, as the prediction of this morning for the next twenty-four hours only forecasted fair weather.

Wishing to retain the good will of our patrons after a loss as well as the strongest companies in the business. This agency would like to help you insure effectively against loss.

We want second-hand furniture and stoves and pay cash. Mordoff & Woolf.

The Farm Bureau of Josephine county is planning a celebration to be held at Riverside park, Grants Pass, on July 2nd, among the features of which will be the main address by George A. Mansfield of Medford, president of the state farm bureau federation, and community singing.

Whenever better life insurance is written, Cochran and his agents will be writing it.

Evangelist Fred Scott and wife are conducting special revival tent meetings at the corner of Jackson and Central every night at 7:45. Sunday 2:30 p. m. Come and get saved, receive the Holy Spirit, and be healed of your disease, Jesus the same yesterday, today and forever. All welcome.

The Medford W. C. T. U. has received the following from the Ashland W. C. T. U.: "Ashland W. C. T. U. night is Thursday. Please come and bring a large delegation to help increase our membership. Take seats a little to right of speaker's stand. All wear white ribbon. Don't disappoint us. Come."

Save money by insuring in an obscure mutual fire insurance company? Not likely. Save money by insuring in standard stock companies historically sound? More than likely—much more.

Another big drop in shoe prices at the Medford Shoe Hospital, 119 East Sixth street.

Clarence Evans who with his wife and child had been visiting his mother at Seattle and sisters at Bremerton for the past two weeks, arrived home this forenoon. Mrs. Evans and baby will continue on their visit at Bremerton for some time yet.

We do not specialize on any one make of car, but are equipped to repair all makes. Experienced mechanics with excellent equipment of tools and machinery enable our shop to turn out work promptly and at a satisfactory price.

People wishing to go to Chinabur Springs can go on the L. H. Newton Daily Stage Line, Hornbrook, Calif. 96 in cooperation with the farmers of Jackson county, the biological survey division of the department of the interior is continuing its war against the gray digger squirrel, according to Ira N. Gabrielson, head of the rodent animal section, who recently returned from field work near Medford.

Two popular dances this week by the Majestic orchestra: Friday night at Jacksonville and Saturday night at Eagle Point. Enuf sed.

George Barton and James Caven of Grants Pass, spent Wednesday in overseeing the installation of a new pump at the Gingham orchards.

Automobile penants in official blue and white. Medford Book Store.

R. A. Holmes, the Insurance Man, Insurance, and Bonds, plus Service.

Clarence Roames enjoyed his visit here so much that he postponed departing for his home in Seattle until today.

The "Dokey" orchestra will furnish the music for the K. P. dance Thursday night. All knights and their ladies are invited.

There is a penalty for violating the city ordinance stating that there shall be no shooting of fire crackers or any fireworks at any time or any place in the city of Medford.

When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them.

Among the northern California visitors in Medford are Mr. and Mrs. H. Young of Dunsmuir.

Pay your interest before July first and avoid the penalty.

The First Baptist church announces its final sacred concert for the season for next Sunday night at 8 p. m. The many who have heard with much pleasure these concerts will be glad to know that this one will be given. Mr. Seoung, who has sung previously in the choir, and Mr. William Vawter will assist in this concert. A full program will appear later.

Wishing to retain the good will of our patrons after a loss as well as the strongest companies in the business. This agency would like to help you insure effectively against loss.

We want second-hand furniture and stoves and pay cash. Mordoff & Woolf.

The Farm Bureau of Josephine county is planning a celebration to be held at Riverside park, Grants Pass, on July 2nd, among the features of which will be the main address by George A. Mansfield of Medford, president of the state farm bureau federation, and community singing.

Whenever better life insurance is written, Cochran and his agents will be writing it.

Evangelist Fred Scott and wife are conducting special revival tent meetings at the corner of Jackson and Central every night at 7:45. Sunday 2:30 p. m. Come and get saved, receive the Holy Spirit, and be healed of your disease, Jesus the same yesterday, today and forever. All welcome.

The Medford W. C. T. U. has received the following from the Ashland W. C. T. U.: "Ashland W. C. T. U. night is Thursday. Please come and bring a large delegation to help increase our membership. Take seats a little to right of speaker's stand. All wear white ribbon. Don't disappoint us. Come."

Save money by insuring in an obscure mutual fire insurance company? Not likely. Save money by insuring in standard stock companies historically sound? More than likely—much more.

Another big drop in shoe prices at the Medford Shoe Hospital, 119 East Sixth street.

Clarence Evans who with his wife and child had been visiting his mother at Seattle and sisters at Bremerton for the past two weeks, arrived home this forenoon. Mrs. Evans and baby will continue on their visit at Bremerton for some time yet.

We do not specialize on any one make of car, but are equipped to repair all makes. Experienced mechanics with excellent equipment of tools and machinery enable our shop to turn out work promptly and at a satisfactory price.

People wishing to go to Chinabur Springs can go on the L. H. Newton Daily Stage Line, Hornbrook, Calif. 96 in cooperation with the farmers of Jackson county, the biological survey division of the department of the interior is continuing its war against the gray digger squirrel, according to Ira N. Gabrielson, head of the rodent animal section, who recently returned from field work near Medford.

Two popular dances this week by the Majestic orchestra: Friday night at Jacksonville and Saturday night at Eagle Point. Enuf sed.

George Barton and James Caven of Grants Pass, spent Wednesday in overseeing the installation of a new pump at the Gingham orchards.

Automobile penants in official blue and white. Medford Book Store.

R. A. Holmes, the Insurance Man, Insurance, and Bonds, plus Service.

Clarence Roames enjoyed his visit here so much that he postponed departing for his home in Seattle until today.

The "Dokey" orchestra will furnish the music for the K. P. dance Thursday night. All knights and their ladies are invited.

There is a penalty for violating the city ordinance stating that there shall be no shooting of fire crackers or any fireworks at any time or any place in the city of Medford.

When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them.

Among the northern California visitors in Medford are Mr. and Mrs. H. Young of Dunsmuir.

Pay your interest before July first and avoid the penalty.

A new forest road on which bids will be received July 5 by the district engineer's office in the bureau of public roads, Portland, will open up the Oregon Marble Caves in Josephine county from the west side of the Siskiyou national forest to motorists. There is no road into the Marble Caves country at present. Persons visiting it are forced to pack in over a trail several miles in length. With the completion of the new forest highway, motorists may make the entire trip in a machine going west from Holland. The forest road will be eight and a half miles in length and built on a 6 per cent grade.

We have a large stock of used and rebuilt tires. Get your spare tire and save trouble. Exchange Tire Co. 85.

Two popular dances this week by the Majestic orchestra: Friday night at Jacksonville and Saturday night at Eagle Point. Enuf sed.

Henry Mackey, the photographer, expects to leave in four or five days on a two months vacation. His itinerary has not been completed but he will spend his regular two weeks in the hayfields of Klamath county, after which he will retire to the seashore and the mountains. "I have had the flu two winters hand running," said Mr. Mackey, "and I'm going to get the pneumonia out of my system, and away from the click and clack of Portland."

Swimming at Nat, hours 2 to 5 and 7:30 to 9:20 p. m.

For Sale—or trade Columbia drag saw, only used 20 days. See Medford Shoe Hospital, 119 East Sixth street, Medford.

Arthur L. Hill will return Thursday from San Francisco, where he went on business, and to look after the interests of the War Eagle mine, a quicksilver property in the Meadows district. The owners recently received word that the general tariff bill now pending before congress will provide an increase of $26 per flask on imported quicksilver, and increase the price of American quicksilver from $50 to between $65 and $70.

Horse-Shoe tires and tubes are the cheapest per mile. Call and inspect before buying tires. Exchange Tire Co. 85.

Lawn mowers sharpened. Mitchell Ladder Co., 318 East Main.

T. L. Richardson and wife of Los Angeles, who have been visiting his nephew, Sam T. Richardson of this city, left Wednesday evening for the East on an extended tour.

F. F. Stone, the barber, O'Brien's old stand.

Knights, don't forget the dance Thursday night. D. O. K. K. orchestra.

George Cotterill, a carpenter employed on the Gold Ridge mine development work, fell on a snag Tuesday afternoon inflicting a painful injury to his side. He came to this city Wednesday for medical treatment.

Mrs. C. E. Goble, teacher of piano, 219 W. Main, upstairs.

Mrs. Paul Hansen, corsetiere for Nulbome. Phone 555-J.

Trove Lumsden who leaves June 28 to accept a position with a Los Angeles bonding house, is making preparations for his departure. His place as assistant cashier of the Jackson County bank will be filled by William Vawter, and the latter's place taken by Scott Davis.

We develop kodak films free. West Side Pharmacy.

C. L. Goff writes insurance on anything anywhere.

James Whitaker of Yreka, Cal., spent a few hours in the city Wednesday visiting friends on his way to Canada by auto.

The Farm Bureau will give a moving picture show at Hoagie, Sat. eve., June 25. Proceeds to go to home demonstration fund. Everyone invited.

Tree props and pine flume lumber. Big Pines Lumber Co.

George Maddox (Little George), a well known local barber-shop porter, expects to leave about August 1st for his old home in Maryland.

Invest your savings in the Jackson County Building and Loan association.

K. P. dance Thursday night. D. O. K. K. orchestra. Refreshments served. All Knights and their ladies are expected to be there.

Attorney Gus Newbury and wife who have been at Eugene attending the graduation exercises of the law department of the University of Oregon will return home Friday. They made the trip by auto.

We are paying 25c for eggs at the Farm Bureau Co-Operative Exchange.

Will exchange new goods for second hand or pay cash. Mordoff & Woolf.

A carload of hides were shipped out Tuesday by Nichols and Ashpole to a Portland firm. This is the first sale of Rogue River hides in many months, and brought four cents a pound—not enough to pay for skinning them off the carcasses, let alone salting and curing. During the war hides sold for 25 cents, and before for 11 cents. Up to this time it has been impossible to dispose of them even as a gift.

Sugar-Bowl taxi, country trips specialty, phone 127-R.

We develop kodak films free. West Side Pharmacy.

Victor Berg and family of Dunsmuir, Calif., visited the family of R. E. Caven of this city Monday and Tuesday, and left for Seattle Wednesday.

Hemstitching 8c per yd.

Buttons covered.

Handicraft Shop.

Arthur Kleinhammer of the Applegate was a business visitor in the city Wednesday afternoon.

New line men's caps, lowest prices, very latest. Don Springer, 105 W. Main.

Dan Bashaw, Jr., has returned to his home in Jacksonville from Idaho where he has been for several months.

Boys of the city are engaging in arguments over the outcome of the Dempsey-Carpenter fight July 2. In the backyard of C. M. Thomas his sons and heirs held a debate Tuesday with neighbors' children, but left the decision to their lawyer father when he came home. The debate was long and vociferous. The youths are more excited about the outcome than their elders.

Interest on city assessments will be delinquent after July first. Better take care of it now lest you forget. 87.

Among the auto tourists enroute north who are guests at the Holland are Albert Deike and family of Pasadena and Mr. and Mrs. R. Davis of Los Angeles.

Probably due to the hot weather of the past two days today's public market was a poor one with but comparatively few offerings.

Anyone knowing Mrs. V. A. Peters' address please call 333.

Quite a little excitement was created Wednesday afternoon by a small fire which broke out at 3:50 o'clock in the boiler room at the Bullis & Skewis saw mill, which was extinguished by the plant's own fire department, but not before the city fire department had been called as a precaution. The fire caught from some saw dust on the floor close to the boiler and caused but little damage. The plant is located outside of the city limits, at which the fire department stopped and waited. This is the second boiler room fire at the same plant in its history, the first one having caused much damage to the machinery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Currie and two children of Sacramento arrived here Wednesday with the intention of locating and are stopping at the city auto camp.

Mrs. Geo. Maddox, dressmaking, room 1, Sparta Bldg. Prices reasonable.

South bound passenger travel has been so heavy the past two days that train 13 has been run in two sections on both days.

James Grieve who came down from Prospect yesterday afternoon and departed for home again today says that the Derby road is in fine condition. He made the trip down in two hours over this road.

Owing to a change in plans there will be no Woodmen picnic next Sunday.

The man wanted in California towns for working the cheap jewelry selling fake is under arrest here. Chief of Police Timothy claims, in the person of J. B. Donaldson of Los Angeles, whom he located this morning in a local garage where he was having his car repaired. He is wanted at Dunsmuir where a warrant is out for his arrest, and is being held for the officers from that city to come and get him. The chief also arrested another man, who was a companion of Donaldson, but let him go on finding no warrant was out for his apprehension. A third man is being sought in the city in connection with the California swindlers.

A farewell picnic party incidental to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clark leaving soon to spend the summer at Crater Lake was tendered Mrs. Clark in the park at Ashland last evening by twenty of her neighbors and friends. Mr. Clark is at present at Camp Lewis with the local national guard company.

The carboniferous geological strata sometimes attains a thickness of 20,000 feet.

Funeral services held at 2 p. m. Friday, 24th.

Hart's Picture Scores

William S. Hart's latest Paramount picture of the west, "O'Malley of the Mounted," scored a triumph at its presentation at the Rialto theatre yesterday. It is certainly one of the strongest character portrayals with which Mr. Hart has favored his followers in many months, to say the least.

Thrills abound throughout the action of this virile photoplay. As O'Malley,

OBITUARY.

McDONALD—Mrs. Euren Ann McDonald, wife of J. O. McDonald, passed away at the home of her son, J. E. McDonald at Trail, Thursday, 9:20 a. m. at the age of 75 years. Deceased had been an invalid for two years and suffered the third stroke of paralysis one month ago, which was the immediate cause of death.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, one daughter and nine sons, most of whom were at her bedside at the last.

Funeral services held at 2 p. m. Friday, 24th.

The Screen

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

The man wanted in California towns for working the cheap jewelry selling fake is under arrest here. Chief of Police Timothy claims, in the person of J. B. Donaldson of Los Angeles, whom he located this morning in a local garage where he was having his car repaired. He is wanted at Dunsmuir where a warrant is out for his arrest, and is being held for the officers from that city to come and get him. The chief also arrested another man, who was a companion of Donaldson, but let him go on finding no warrant was out for his apprehension. A third man is being sought in the city in connection with the California swindlers.

A farewell picnic party incidental to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clark leaving soon to spend the summer at Crater Lake was tendered Mrs. Clark in the park at Ashland last evening by twenty of her neighbors and friends. Mr. Clark is at present at Camp Lewis with the local national guard company.

The carboniferous geological strata sometimes attains a thickness of 20,000 feet.

Funeral services held at 2 p. m. Friday, 24th.

Hart's Picture Scores

William S. Hart's latest Paramount picture of the west, "O'Malley of the Mounted," scored a triumph at its presentation at the Rialto theatre yesterday. It is certainly one of the strongest character portrayals with which Mr. Hart has favored his followers in many months, to say the least.

Thrills abound throughout the action of this virile photoplay. As O'Malley,

OBITUARY.

McDONALD—Mrs. Euren Ann McDonald, wife of J. O. McDonald, passed away at the home of her son, J. E. McDonald at Trail, Thursday, 9:20 a. m. at the age of 75 years. Deceased had been an invalid for two years and suffered the third stroke of paralysis one month ago, which was the immediate cause of death.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, one daughter and nine sons, most of whom were at her bedside at the last.

Funeral services held at 2 p. m. Friday, 24th.

The Screen

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Expectant Mothers

Mother's Friend

Carnation Milk

Universal Tire Filler Rides Easy Try Our Dodge Car Gaylord 110 N. Riverside. Phone 188-M

DR. RICKERT Optometrist

Eyes Scientifically Tested and Glasses Properly Fitted NO DROPS USED Broken Lenses Accurately Duplicated FACTORY ON PREMISES 808 E. Main, Urestral

GREAT CELEBRATION SALE!

Only a few Days left in which to do your shopping before the Fourth of July

Ready-to-Wear and Summer Goods Reduced

Skirts, Dresses, Waists, Coats, Suits, Corsets, Sweaters

Advertisement for clothing sale with various items and prices: Ladies' Coats $14.98, Long Silk Gloves 98c, Gowns and Envelopes $1.39, White Nubuck Oxfords $6.25, Canvas Oxfords $5.50, Black Kid Oxfords $6.75, Brown Low Heel Oxfords $4.00, Children's Summer Hats $1.50, Organdie Blouses $2.75, Muslin Skirts 98c.

AUGUST McALL PATTERNS