OHIO QUARTERBACK IS DROPPED FOR CHEATING

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 23.—Harry H. "Hoge" Workman, a sophomore and the quarterback on Ohio State university's football team which won the western conference championship last season, and 39 others have been suspended from all student activities for one year by President Thompson for alleged cheating during the last May mid-term examination, it became known today.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Kowlett

W. C. Brooks and wife, a piano tuner of Medford, were here for dinner last Friday. Mr. Brooks is connected with the Palmer Piano house of Medford. He came out to do some work in his line for parties in Eagle Point.

J. Heckner, the official who is trying to rid the country of the digger squirrel is making his regular trips through our town and seems to be accomplishing his purpose, for our farmers don't seem to be troubled with them as in the past.

F. J. Ayres of Reese creek and Carl Stanley were among the business callers last Saturday. Mr. Stanley has been troubled with his tonsils for some time past but had just had them removed and consequently could not eat with any satisfaction.

Mr. Cummings, the water boss of Jackson county, and Bernard Roberts of Medford, were here for dinner Saturday.

Mrs. Merrill of Reese creek and J. W. Maxwell now of Brownboro but formerly of Reese creek, were doing their week's trading here Saturday, and Alex Vestal and T. E. McCabe one of our substantial farmers and orchardists who lives near the mouth of Reese creek, and Perry Foster, one of the pioneers of Rogue River valley, who owns a farm on Rogue river near Debeneger Gap, was also among the business callers Saturday.

W. H. Isbell was in town also Saturday and while here took dinner at the Sunnyside. Mr. Isbell has charge of the Wm. Von der Hellen ranch on Reese creek and has his goats on shares, says that he has quite a lot of mohair on hand but there seems to be no market for mohair or wool either.

George Singwald of Oakland, Calif., and wife nee Hattie Cingade, one of our townsmen, David Cingade arrived here by private car last week to visit Mrs. Cingade's parents, brothers Thomas and Charles Cingade and a number of her old friends who are still here. Mr. Singwald is engaged in the art picture business making the plates used in printing the pictures in newspapers, books, etc. He has a shop of his own and keeps eight men employed all the time and then can hardly keep up with the demand. They remained until Tuesday morning.

Carl Bergsman of the upper Rogue river country and Leonard and Carl Mitchell of the Meadows, called for supper Saturday night.

Mrs. Mildred Smith of Butte Falls, and Everett Abbott, also of Butte Falls, came in Saturday evening and remained until Sunday afternoon.

time in Medford when he expected to return and work during the summer. He reported the snow at White Horse to be four feet deep and between there and the lake in some places as much as twenty feet deep. That the crust was so hard that the horses walked right on top of the snow, but that they were using powder and loosening it up so as to push it out of the road. He and his wife have a large roomy car and carry their household effects right along with them. They expect to camp and care for themselves while he work on the government works.

In looking around for items of news since I have recovered from my little sick spell I notice that our energetic barber, Ernest Dahack, has not only fenced in the long narrow strip of ground he recently purchased along the bank of the creek, but has his 1650 gal. tank up and properly piped so as to supply his shop and bath with an abundant supply of pure water but has also extended the pipe into his house some hundred yards below the wagon bridge and has one of the finest gardens in the entire community. He also is putting up an addition to his dwelling house and has it ready for the roof and in addition to all this, for he does the work himself, he is attending to his barbering business and seems to be doing quite a human live wire.

I am sending the following clipping from the Medford Sun of Sunday, the 19th:

"A quiet wedding took place at the Episcopal rectory on Thursday afternoon, the 17th. Earl E. Tucker and Miss Winifred Haak were married by the Rev. Wm. B. Hamilton, vicar of St. Mark's church. A few relatives were present to witness the happy event. The bride and groom departed immediately upon their honeymoon."

The groom is one of the prosperous, energetic young farmers and stock men of Brownboro and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Haak, one of our well to do farmers and orchardists and dairymen. Mrs. Haak had just returned from an extended visit to Michigan where she has been visiting relatives and friends and probably looking after business interests. The many friends of the young bride and groom are wishing them a long and happy voyage thru life and a reunion where the wicked will cease to trouble and the weary will be at rest.

Getting Along Good
Women are as great sufferers from kidney and bladder ailments as men. Foley Kidney Pills help rid the blood stream of impurities that cause rheumatic pains, backache, swollen, aching joints and stiff, painful muscles. Mrs. Carey, Box 91, R. F. D. No. 2, Middletown, N. Y., writes: "I had kidney trouble ever since I was a little girl, but I am getting along good since I have taken Foley Kidney Pills." They act immediately and help restore the kidneys to healthful activity. Sold everywhere.
