

Local and Personal

The last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. camp candidates for the camp which that organization will establish on Rogue river near Butte creek next week will be held at the public library Saturday night at 7:30. This gathering is to make final arrangements for the 12-mile hike to the camp from the city park next Tuesday morning. Any boy of Jackson county over 15 years of age and of good character is eligible. The camp equipment will be sent by auto. Indications are that boys from all parts of the county will be present. The return trip from the camp will be made next Thursday.

The June bride harvest in this county has been a very good crop this year and there yet remain six days with splendid prospects for many more weddings. Prospective brides and grooms, as well as their relatives and friends, should particularly read the page ad in this issue with suggestions of where to purchase the trousseau and presents. Medford merchants are especially well prepared for everything in this line.

The cooler weather of today with its nice forenoon breeze was welcomed. The maximum temperature of Thursday was 93.7, an compared with that of 95.6 of Wednesday. A generally cloudy condition is predicted for tonight and Saturday.
