CHAUTAUQUA AT ASHLAND TO BE RICH IN MUSIC

The splendid musical program for the Chautauqua season has been arranged by H. B. Pasmore of San Francisco, who was especially retained to engage the best available talent.

The girls' quartette: Four young women with voices just budding into the beauty of youthful artistry. The personnel of the quartette follows: Therese Zahmaty, soprano soloist of St. Stephen's Episcopal church of San Francisco; Dorothy Dunn, with a high flexible, coloratura soprano; Vera Matthews, soloist at the Hayward Presbyterian church, San Francisco; Esther Lindsey, soloist of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Berkeley.

The two quartettes have been rehearsing for several weeks under Mr. Pasmore's direction. They have practiced for long periods, unaccompanied, without varying a hair's breadth from the pitch—a result seldom reached even by the greatest singers.

Albert Rosenthal studied in Germany for ten years, has a technique that can scarcely be surpassed, has played concerts with the famous Philharmonic Orchestra of Berlin, has conducted in most of the principal orchestras in various parts of Germany, and has made a tour of the United States.

Ethel Johnson has been one of the most welcome artists of the University of California Extension concerts, for the past two seasons. She has a powerful soprano voice and is, at the same time, a coloraturist of no mean capacity.

Margaret Caldwell Speer was an Ashland girl. She had a few lessons with Mr. Pasmore, when he first visited Ashland. Since then she has studied with the best teachers in Los Angeles, and for the past year, has been again working under Mr. Pasmore's guidance.

And now a word about H. B. Pasmore's singing. Mr. Pasmore is older than he used to be, in years, but not in voice. He says he has put it up to his family to say "Time to stop, Dad." But they still say "Go on, Dad, you never sang so well before."

G. W. Rasmussen can sing "High C" with perfect ease. He recently sang Mendelssohn's "Then Shall the Righteous Shine Forth," before a large audience at the Greek Theatre, University of California, with great effect.

Samuel Hume, director of the Greek Theatre Dramatic and Musical activities, wrote Mr. Pasmore a personal letter thanking him for the splendid program. Mr. Rasmussen being one of the soloists.

Therese Zahmaty was also soloist on the same occasion and the Pacific Musical Review story read: "When Miss Zahmaty sang that hush came over the audience which only comes when a notable thing is being enacted."

Vera Matthews is a favorite singer in club circles of San Francisco. Her beautiful mezzo contralto and winning manner always captures her audience.

Dorothy Dunn is a young girl from Eugene, which may account for her lovely voice. She has been studying with Mr. Pasmore for a little more than a year. Just hear her and see what may be accomplished in a short time.

Esther Lindsey is another novice with a reputation to achieve. She is second alto, and "her voice is low and sweet, an admirable thing in woman."

These artists are all actuated by one motive, the love of their beautiful art. On the whole, they present phases of the development in art—finished and noted musicians and young singers, well on the way to achievement of artistic excellence, with fame beckoning them on and urging greater endeavor.

SPOKANE MAN HAD SPENT ENOUGH TO BUY A GOOD FARM

"I spent money enough on medicines and treatment on my wife's health to have bought a nice little farm," said August Anderson, 2239 E. Sprague Ave., Spokane, "but Tanlae has relieved her completely at a cost too small to mention."

"For ten or twelve years she suffered after nearly every meal from acute pain in her stomach, palpitations, shortness of breath and nausea. She had awful headaches and hot flushes all over her body and was subject to fainting spells and attacks of dizziness. She never slept well and suffered from nervousness day and night. She complained of being weak and tired much of the time, couldn't do her housework and, in fact, was forced to spend a great deal of her time in bed."

"But Tanlae acted different from any other medicine I ever found and I have been surprised and delighted at the way it has brought her out of her troubles. She sleeps like a child and never complains of an ache or a pain of any kind. In fact she is so different that she would hardly be taken for the same woman. Feel like I would be dodging a duty if I didn't give others the benefit of my wife's experience with Tanlae." Adv.

DEMPSEY GIVEN SURPRISE PARTY 26TH BIRTHDAY

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 24.—Jack Dempsey today is celebrating his twenty-sixth birthday by taking a 24-hour layoff from all training activities. The camp was closed to the public for the day.

Dempsey received a hundred or more telegrams from admirers and relatives, extending birthday greetings and wishing him good luck in his defense of the championship against Georges Carpentier at Jersey City, July 2. He looked eagerly forward to a message he expected from his mother in Salt Lake City.

Dempsey is in such splendid condition that Manager Jack Kearns has decided that he will not require the services of Kid Norfolk, negro lightweight and others who were expected to be in camp for the final week of training.

The full training program will be resumed tomorrow and the champion also will box Sunday with his present sparring partners.

The titleholder will do his last work with the gloves Tuesday and Wednesday, according to the schedule laid out by Manager Kearns today. Dempsey will take some light exercise on Thursday to loosen up his muscles, but on Friday will remain in seclusion at his camp until the time for his departure for Jersey City.

Newspaper correspondents plan to give Dempsey a surprise party at his camp tonight. Teddy Hayes, the champion's trainer, had a cake baked for him with 26 candles on it. The newspaper correspondents have a jazz band to serenade the champion during the party.

EDEN PRECINCT

There occurred a most beautiful and happy wedding at the historic old Colver home in Phoenix, last Sunday, when Miss Juanita Mae Furry of Phoenix, became the bride of Neil H. Franklin of Medford.

Miss Furry is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Furry and granddaughter of the late Samuel and Hulda Colver, pioneers in the Rogue River valley, is a most beautiful and accomplished young lady who has grown to young womanhood in our midst. She is possessed of musical and business ability, and has filled a most important position in the office of the county pathologist the past two years.

The groom is also a young man of education and business ability, and has been in the employ of the Mail Tribune office for a year or more, having come to Oregon from Missouri two years ago.
