

Local and Personal

A harmless grass fire yesterday afternoon and a false alarm turned in last night broke the monotony of waiting duty around the station for the firemen Tuesday. The grass fire was on a vacant lot next to a dwelling on Second street and the department was summoned as a precautionary measure. About 9 p. m. a phone message was received to the effect that there was a fire on South Oakdale. The department responded quickly and searched through the whole of the thoroughfare and vicinity without finding any fire.

Spend your vacation at DISC SPRINGS. Wonderful mineral water, fishing, hunting. All accommodations for camping furnished at Dead Indian Store. For information and transportation phone 374.

The Elks will hold a big social or bingo session tomorrow night at which a large attendance is expected. There will be no regular session of the lodge until the third Thursday of July.

School for drawing and painting Mrs. Edmondson, College bldg. 927-X.

Mrs. M. C. Helms of Maplewood, N. J., and Mrs. E. L. Proebsting of Newark, N. Y., are house guests of Dr. and Mrs. T. G. Helms.

Latest patterns in ties. Don Springer 165 West Main.

Clayton A. Long, horticultural specialist of the O. A. C., arrived in the city Tuesday to investigate the crop situation and various phases of agricultural work.

The Economy Groceries is having Roman Meal bread extra. A phone message was received here by Chief of Police Thomas Cole from the sheriff at Eugene to the effect that the Chevrolet car of DeVos's, which was stolen from along side his place of business last Sunday night, had been found in Eugene and that the suspected thief was under arrest.

Property Owners Attention. Better pay the interest on your assessments before July first and avoid the penalty.

A number of Jackson county people will attend the big picnic of the Josephine county farm bureau next Saturday at Riverside park in Grants Pass, including County Agent Cate and Geo. A. Mansfield, who will be the chief speaker on that occasion.

Expert dressmaking, piecing, hem-stitching, 19 S. Fir, phone 215-R. 984

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Lewis of Washington, Ind., of the Bulgin-Lewis evangelistic party, arrived at the Medford yesterday from Ashland and departed today for visits at Prospect and Crater Lake.

Try our merchants lunch. The Shastra.

Of interest and importance to all mining men is the fact that the United States senate has passed a bill, which is now pending in the house to stipend the requirement for assessment work on mining claims during the calendar year 1920 and up to July 1, 1921, with a proviso that claimants of this benefit shall file notice of their desire to hold their claims under it not later than August 1, and that hereafter the yearly period for doing such work shall date from July 1 instead of January 1.

Dr. E. H. Murphy's dental office will be open evenings with the exception of Saturday.

Among the Klamath Falls men visiting in Medford are James Stevenson, Jas. P. Halesman, J. H. Brown and George W. Brown.

Hemstitching 8¢ per yard at the Stylcraft shop. We also do dressmaking, piecing, embroidery, buttons, braiding and mending. Phone 744-J. M. F. & H. Bldg. Mesdames Eaton & Roberts, props.

The delegates from the Medford post to the state American Legion convention which will be held next Friday and Saturday are Frank E. Farrell, present commander, George Gooding, past commander, and Ben Hilton.

You can get Roman Meal bread at the Economy Groceries.

Two other men are also expected to arrive in the city Tuesday from Portland with the expectation of staying in Medford permanently. They are stopping at the city camp.

Horse-Shoe tires and tubes are the cheapest per mile. Call and inspect before buying tires. Exchange Tire Co.

All those who plan to enter their cars decorated in Ashland next Monday for the Fourth of July parade, will please notify Mrs. Frank Owen.

Eastman Kodak films DeVos's. Cooler weather is probably due soon following yesterday's maximum temperature of 90, as the prediction of this forenoon is for probable showers the next 24 hours. A slight shower fell about 7:15 this morning and another at about 11 a. m.

We develop kodak films free. West Side Pharmacy.

While no definite word has yet been received as to when Separate Company A will arrive back in Medford from Camp Lewis, the company will probably entrain for this city tonight following the big parade of the national guard in Portland this afternoon and may arrive on the regular southbound passenger train at 9:56 Thursday morning.

Lawn mowers sharpened. Mitchell Laddie Co. 318 East Main.

Application for certification of $250,000 in bonds was recently filed with the state brigation securities commission by the Grants Pass irrigation district. Bonds previously certified for this district by the state aggregate $265,000.

F. F. Stone, the barber, O'Brien's old stand.

A daughter, Joan Kathleen, was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson on the 19th of June.

Mrs. Paul Hansen, corseters for NuBone, Phone 585-J.

Dr. Bulgin left this morning for Diamond Lake near Klamath Falls for a hunting and fishing trip. His vacation is for the purpose of resting up after the evangelistic campaign concluded in this city Sunday. Ashland Tidings.

When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them.

Miss Florence Sherman who has been in Medford since last fall, leaves tomorrow morning for Seattle.

Interest on assessments will be delinquent after July first and a penalty of five per cent will be added.

The Dempsey-Carpenter fight at Jersey City next Saturday will begin at 12 o'clock, Medford time, and the Mail Tribune as usual will post bulletins of the progress of the big event.

Pay your interest before July first and avoid the penalty.

H. A. Lundgren, the O. A. C. livestock specialist, is again in the city and vicinity looking after the hog feeding tests throughout the county.

"Whenever better Life Insurance is written, Cochran and his agents will be writing it."

Joe Taber, the deaf mute boxer, who appeared in Medford and Ashland last winter in bouts, will appear against French King in a bout in the Fourth of July celebration at Weed, Calif., which will be held under the auspices of the American Legion post of that place.

Another big drop in shoe prices at the Medford Shoe Hospital, 119 East Sixth street.

Mrs. J. L. Gartonson and Miss Louise Gartonson of Oakland, Calif., are auto tourists enroute north who are guests at the Holland.

People wishing to go to Cinnabar Springs can go on the L. H. Newton Daily Stage Line, Hornbrook, Calif. 96 Cottage prayer will be held Friday at 2:30 p. m. at the Free Methodist parsonage, 337 West Tenth street. All interested are invited to attend.

W. G. McDonald, of the Rogue Elk resort at Trail, was in Medford today and reports several tourists already stopping at the resort and everything pointing to a big business this season.

Tree props and pine, fume lumber. Big Pines Lumber Co.

W. H. Stewart, president and G. H. Charters, vice president of the Stewart Fruit company of California, accompanied by Earl Stewart, son of the former, are in Medford on business connected with the handling of the Oregon Growers fruit crop.

Feed wheat $2.50 per cwt. at the Farm Bureau Co-operative Exchange.

Levi Christmas of The Dalles, sheriff of Wasco county, departed this forenoon with George Anderson, the 18 year old youth captured in this city last Saturday with a Ford auto stolen from The Dalles, by State Motor Traffic Officer J. J. McMahon. The youth sticks to his story that the older young man who escaped from McMahon by running is the thief, and that he first met him with the car at Roseburg last week and traveled with him to Medford, where they were stopped by McMahon, Anderson, who is a very nice appearing boy, says that his parents are dead and that he has no home. No trace has been found of the 18 year old youth who escaped.

Alford's "Four O" at Nat tonight. Spot dances. Prizes. A big time. Admission 10c.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Branyen of Minneapolis who are touring south, arrived at the Medford yesterday with the expectation of departing today for Crater Lake, and were much disappointed to learn that the opening of that season would not take place until July 1st. Among other tourists at this hotel are Mr. and Mrs. N. H. George and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boerstein of Great Falls, Mont., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Pringle of Los Angeles.

R. A. Holmes, the Insurance Man, Insurance, and Bonds, plus Service.

The special train which will be run from Grants Pass to Ashland and return for the Fourth of July celebration in Ashland will consist of 10 passenger coaches. In addition the regular south bound passenger trains of the Southern Pacific will carry extra coaches that day to accommodate those who do not desire to go on the special train.

Swimming at Nat, hours 2 to 5 and 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Creel and five children of La Center, Wn., arrived at the city auto camp Tuesday with the expectation of locating somewhere in the valley. They plan to purchase a ranch.

For ice cream—Oakdale and 11th.

C. E. Bado, the Portland contractor who is well known in Medford, was a visitor here last Saturday, enroute home by auto from Klamath Falls. He will return to Medford in August for a longer visit.

Two business lots for sale. Will trade for house and lot in residence district. Phone 111-R-3.

John Billings and family accompanied by Miss Lola Bowman left Wednesday by auto for San Francisco and Los Angeles where they will visit relatives.

Dr. H. E. Murphy has established a dental office 403 M. F. & H. Bldg.

Mayor James Grievie, down from Prospect today, says they will have a big crowd there the Fourth, although there will be no fireworks or firewater. "It's the scenery, service and surroundings," says Jim.

Save money on wrapping paper by using white print paper in rolls. Ask this office.

Some of Medford's best instrumentalists gathered at a local studio last evening and began the systematic ensemble study of standard orchestra music. An enjoyable evening was spent with the Masters overtures and operatic selections and modern novelties, under the conducting of J. Albert Kennedy. Mr. Kennedy and his wife, who is an accomplished pianist, have recently located in Medford. Mr. Kennedy has for years been a conductor of musical comedy, in a vaudeville and pianist, and has selected Medford for his home. It is expected that the orchestra will be developed and afford opportunities for those who like standard music and instrumentation to enjoy their concerts.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Bowers of Gold Hill were Medford visitors for a few hours Monday evening.

Morris Corturi, special agent of the Southern Pacific, arrived in the city Tuesday on his regular tour of inspection. Mr. Corturi participated in the capture of Roy Gardner, notorious mail bandit, and helped take him to McNeill's Island. It is the opinion of Mr. Corturi that Gardner escaped from Castle Rock in an automobile and not on the cowcatcher of an engine as he claims, paying most of the money he took from the Deputy United States marshals for the ride. Mr. Corturi also expressed regret that Deputy United States Marshal Mulhall, who was in charge of Gardner when he escaped had resigned. "I have known him for a good many years," said Mr. Corturi, "and he was a very efficient officer. Gardner was the first man who ever got away from him." Corturi has known Gardner for many years.

Alford's "Four O" at Nat tonight. Spot dances. Prizes. A big time. Admission 10c.

Dr. and Mrs. Bert R. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill will leave Saturday afternoon by auto for Crater Lake to spend the Fourth of July holidays.

The banks and barbershops and city, county and federal offices will be closed next Monday on account of the Fourth of July.

Dr. R. W. Stearns has returned from his trip to Crater Lake and is at his office again.

Arthur Kleinhammer of the Applegate was a business visitor in the city Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. J. Pigras, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Spokane, Wash., is spending a few days visiting with her son Tom, who is stationed at Bremerton, Wash., aboard the U. S. S. Arkansas, will return the end of the week. Tom Pigras who is a musician in the navy, will sail for the Atlantic coast aboard his ship the middle of July.

Dr. H. E. Murphy has established a dental office 403 M. F. & H. Bldg.

Floyd Hart left Tuesday evening for Portland where he will attend a session of the state aircraft board, of which he was recently appointed a member by Governor Ben Olcott.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lamport and Mrs. Vern Van Dyke and son Sam will leave today by auto, for Portland, Tacoma and Seattle. They will attend the auto races at Tacoma, July 4th, and return home in about two weeks.

Attorney O. C. Bezgs is in Salem this week attending to legal matters before the supreme court.

Harry Childs who is employed on the Rogue River Canal company ditch work near Eagle Point spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. M. M. Childs of this city.

PHONOGRAPHIC STAR WITH ELKS MINSTRELS

Among the soloists with the Minneapolis Elks Minstrels Glee club, book-to appear at Ashland theater on July 7th, will be Charles S. Laird.

Dr. H. E. Murphy has established a dental office 403 M. F. & H. Bldg.

Mr. Laird, who is a professional performer, is at present under contract with the Columbia and Emerson Phonographic companies and it was by special permission from these companies that he is appearing with the Minneapolis Elks in their trip.

For many years he sang in grand opera and now sings with the famous Stellar quartet.

Lots of old papers 10c the bundle at this office.

At a Mother's Meeting
The wife of a noted New York designer said to her listeners, "Watch carefully your daughter's physical development. Mothers should keep their daughters well informed as to matters pertaining to health, and should see that nature is assisted if necessary, to perform its office."
Irritability and pain are warning symptoms of some trouble, and mothers may depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to correct them and restore the system to a healthy, normal condition.

DANCE At TRAIL
SATURDAY, JULY 2
GOOD MUSIC
4-PIECE ORCHESTRA

RIALTO
Abandon the idea you have a right to expect of a picture whose locale is the snow covered forests of the Great Northwest. "The Magnificent Brute" is indeed an attractive combination of strong story and beautiful scenery.

Frank Mayo
In the Vile Story of a love as big and as strong as its own mighty pines.
"THE MAGNIFICENT BRUTE"

The Cave Man of Every Woman's Dreams

BIG DOUBLE BILL!

PAGE

NEW SHOW TODAY

CECIL B. De MILLE'S "FORBIDDEN FRUIT"

A vividly intimate revelation of love and married life. Staged by a great company, with settings and gowns more varied and gorgeous than anything else De Mille has brought to the screen.

Cast includes AGNES AYRES, THEODORE ROBERTS, KATHLYN WILLIAMS, FOREST STANLEY, THEODORE KOSLOFF and others.

MRS. AND MRS. PUBLIC:
There will be no advance in prices during the run of "Forbidden Fruit" and Larry Semon in "The Hick" which will provide the highest form of screen entertainment ever offered in this theater.
GEO. A. HUNT CO.

SPECIAL COMEDY FEATURING
LARRY SEMON in "THE HICK"
It will keep you laughing for weeks

Coming Sunday
THOMAS MEIGHAN in "THE EASY ROAD"

H

WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY

On your automobile insurance. It costs you nothing to ask us to show you.

R. A. HOLMES
THE INSURANCE MAN
All Forms Insurance and Bonds
Jackson County Bank Bldg.

Notice to the Public!

We have bought out the stock of groceries, and fountain supplies of W. A. Cowley at Central Point.

We sell for cash at the lowest prices and pay the highest market prices for eggs.

COME IN AND INSPECT OUR STOCK, AND COMPARE OUR PRICES WITH ALL OTHERS

We will endeavor to treat you right at all times.

Casebeer & Hubbard
Central Point, Ore.

Watch for Our Once-a-Week Specials