Twenty cans of Blackspotted or cut-throat trout fry, comprising 10,000 of the little fish arrived here on the morning train from the McKenzie hatchery at Eugene enroute to Squaw lake, for the purpose of placing new blood in that body of water. Superintendent J. W. Herrian and Game Warden Patrick Dailey constituted a reception committee at the depot, and bustled the cans of little fellows onto a waiting auto truck, and started with them for Squaw lake. From the road they will have to pack the fry 1 1/2 miles on five pack horses to the lake, making two trips. They expected to have all the fry in the lake by early this evening.

TENDER FAREWELL TO H. C. GARNETT

An informal farewell reception was tendered H. C. Garnett and family last night at the parlors of the First Baptist church. A large number of their many friends gathered to express their regret at their leaving the church and city. Mr. and Mrs. Garnett have been active in an unusual degree in the various departments of church work, and their going will be a loss to the religious work of the city, as it will be in the business and civil affairs. A short program was presented, following which Lester Merriman told Mr. Garnett how much the young men's bible class appreciated his work among them for some years, and in behalf of the church F. J. Wortman told of the great work done by the guests of the evening and gave them several gifts as a memento of their going. Irwin Daily presented a gift to Fay Garnett in behalf of the young ladies.

H. C. Garnett

Refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour followed. Mr. Garnett in a feeling way spoke of years he had spent in Medford and of his connection with the church. The family leave next Tuesday for Alhambra, Calif.
