

WHITNEY BOY CHORUS TSING HERE TODAY

About to select 16 from the great Whitney Boy chorus of over 700 voices of Portland sing in the City park at 8 p. m. today evening. About 50 boys sang last year in the park under the direction of Mr. Whitney and their concert was pronounced a great success. We are informed that the group this year will surpass in size of last year three to one.

Accompanying the choir will be a number of vocal soloists, a cornet and clarinet soloist and a boy orchestra. This will be the beginning of the union series for a summer Sunday evening series. It is expected that the park will be filled. A large platform is being erected near the band stand and for the Sunday evening concert a graded chorus list will be built. Play of seats will be provided for the public and sufficient lights will be for illumination. There is no question but what the concert Sunday evening is the greatest musical treat any person who can, all over the Rogue river valley should hear. A free will offering will be taken to defray the traveling expenses of the chorus and people of Medford are asked to open their homes and provide supper and breakfast for them. These boys are the cream of Portland and you will enjoy entertaining one or more in your home while they are here. Those who can provide a meal or bed for any number of boys should phone Mr. D. E. Millard, 123, before Sunday evening. Remember the date and the place and that this will be Medford's greatest musical treat.

SENATE PROBE OF R. R.'S SUSPENDED

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Senate investigation of the railway situation was suspended today by Chairman Cummins until the middle or latter part of August. This was taken to mean that there would be no railway relief legislation at the present extra session of congress.

Chairman Cummins said suspension of the inquiry was deemed advisable in view of the inclination of the senate to take a summer vacation. Representatives of labor and ship-owners are yet to be heard. The original plan contemplated a committee report and possibly the proposal of legislation for consideration at the present session of congress.

U. S. A. BEATEN BY FRANCE IN TENNIS

WIMBLEDON, July 1.—(By Associated Press.) Miss Suzanne Lenglen retained the British turf court women's singles tennis championship by defeating Miss Elizabeth Ryan of California in the challenge round here today.

Miss Lenglen won in straight sets 6-2, 6-0. Miss Ryan started strongly and for a time it looked as if the match would be a close one. The stellar play of the remarkable little French woman, however, proved too much for the challenger. The match progressed and the result was never in doubt after the middle of the first set.

The huge barn-like two-story frame building was 150 feet long. It attained considerable notoriety a good many years ago when an old time Portland gambler, following the ending of public gambling in Portland, opened it as a gambling resort. His venture was quickly suppressed.

Charging that the federal reserve banks were calling loans and forcing farmers and business men into bankruptcy, although there was ample funds for commerce, he declared this was "the most monstrous showing ever made in the midst of the agricultural and business distress."

THY IS CONFIDENT HE'LL THROW HAND ASHLAND JULY 4TH

ASHLAND, Ore., July 1.—(Special.) The arrival of Ted Thye in Ashland yesterday made him a sort of advance guard for the great Jackson county parade and celebration on the Fourth. He motored down from Portland with his wife and is stopping at the Hotel Austin. Thye was busy yesterday afternoon arranging with Paeghorn, the flying machine stunt man, to take him by airplane from Ashland to Myrtle Point, where he is to give an exhibition match on Saturday with an unknown competitor. He is in the pink of condition and expressed the opinion that he would win the finish match with Hand in Ashland on the afternoon of July 4. As Hand thinks he will win from Thye the public will have to go to the match and see which man is right for only one can win in a finish contest.

From Ashland Thye will go south to Los Angeles and take part in a match there with Miller, the present middle-weight champion.

Mr. Young who has charge of the fireworks display on the night of the 4th, arrived in Ashland from Portland yesterday. He reports a fine layout for the event and says he has some surprises to spring that will make everyone stare in wonder. Among the features he spoke about was a humorous piece showing Mutt and Jeff.

The stunts in the great parade are going to be so numerous and so funny that the judges will have the hardest job of their lives deciding the prize winners. The general committee reports that every day new things are coming to the front that they never heard of before. There are many more folks working in secret on stunts than the public has any idea about, and this feature of the parade will alone supply something worth coming a long way to see.

Mr. Bergner of the Vining theatre, has gone to heavy expense to get two particularly good reels to show on the Fourth. They are "Snowblind" and Buster Keaton in "Hard Luck," and he says they will supply as good a movie entertainment as he has ever had in the Vining. The show will open at 10:30 and continue until after midnight.

Great things are ahead for those who are fortunate enough to attend the Jackson county parade and celebration and the city will be packed with visitors from everywhere.
