As the Fighters Appeared in the Ring

SOCIETY WOMEN, U. S. SENATORS RICH, POOR, HALT, LAME GATHER TO SEE "FIGHT OF THE CENTURY"

Unprecedented Scene at Jersey City When Fight for Heavy-weight Championship of the World Is Started—Thousands Camp Out All Night to Secure Good Seats in Early Morning—Elderly Man Drops From Exhaustion—W. C. Teagle, President Standard Oil, Entertains Party of 20—Large Number of Notables On Hand—Governor Sproule Declines at Last Moment.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—Governor Sproule of Pennsylvania who was invited by Governor Edwards of New Jersey to be his guest at the big fight said today he would not attend because he does not believe the people of Pennsylvania would like it. JERSEY CITY, July 2.—The elite of the fight crowd began moving toward the arena at noon. A party of twenty, including several United States senators, was the guest of W. C. Teagle, president of the Standard Oil company.

Large sightseeing busses cruised through the theatrical and hotel district in New York, charging $2 to transport passengers to the arena gates. Tickets offered accommodations for $5 a seat. Governor Edwards was the host at a luncheon party of the Union League club here.

Thomas Tuohy, a cook on a Jersey City lunch wagon was the first in line for the $5.50 seats. He arrived at the arena at 8 o'clock last night and could not be budged from his place, although a policeman finally took pity on him and hid his place while he skipped off for a bite to eat.

Behind him was Cornelius Noonan, 58, a retired police lieutenant. Third in line was Charles Rosenbloom, a 17-year-old crippled newboy from Memphis, Tenn., but he permitted a woman to precede him into the arena. An elderly man, who had stood in line most of the night, dropped from exhaustion just before reaching the gate.

By noon the last four rows of $5.50 seats had been filled and all the standing space about the outer rim occupied. Close around the ring were several girls, apparently about 18, who sat constantly with their eyes glued on the squared circle. It was evidently their first fight.

There were comparatively few persons turned away for presenting counterfeit tickets. Three young men, who claimed they purchased $25 seats at a prominent New York hotel, were informed they were not genuine when they reached the gate. They were allowed to enter the arena after purchasing tickets at the box office.

Hudson tube officials estimated that 50,000 more passengers than usual had traveled through the tubes between six a. m. and 1 p. m. Crowd Starts Early. RINGSIDE, Jersey City, N. J., July 2.—(By the Associated Press.) Gates to the big fight opened at 9:30 and in popped the crowd. The mace of yellow pine which, when the sun was out, glistened like a giant bowl of brass, was soon decked with humanity, but, unlike an ordinary saucer, it tilted from the brim down instead of the bottom up, for the first to arrive WIMBLEDON, July 2.—(By Associated Press.) William Tilden of Philadelphia, world's lawn tennis champion, successfully defended his title in the challenge round of the British turf court championships here today, defeating R. I. C. Norton, the South African. The score was 4-6, 2-6, 6-1, 6-0, 7-5.

WIMBLEDON, July 2.—(By Associated Press.) Randolph Lycett of England and Miss Elizabeth Ryan of California defeated Max Woosnam and Miss F. M. Howkins of England in the final of the mixed doubles in the British turf court tennis championship today, 6-2, 6-1.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—Philip Noer of Leland Stanford university won the inter-collegiate lawn tennis championship today by defeating J. B. Fenno, Jr., of Harvard, in a five-set match. Scores: 3-6, 6-1, 6-4, 1-6, 6-1.

as ever entered the ring, the French birdman kept his eyes turned up, watching planes circling overhead with a noisy staccato at the very moment the boxers appeared. There was not the usual rush to the ring after the knockout, that championship rush that carries all before it. What rush did start soon was checked by a heavy detail of police around the ring.

The throng, which during the bout

rose and sank in their seats in a wave which ripples from ringside to rim stood in their places after the knockout came. The crowd cheered the conqueror, but it also cheered the vanquished. The Frenchman's supporters clung around his corner until he was revived and staggered from the ring—the "battle of the century" was over.

RINGSIDE, July 2.—Jack Dempsey the world's heavyweight champion, knocked out Georges Carpentier of France a few seconds after the fourth round opened today, sending him heavily to the canvas with a short right hook to the chin. The actual time of fighting in the fourth round was one minute and sixteen seconds. Previous to the knockout, Carpentier was floored with a left to the body, and a right to the chin. Carpentier took the count of nine before springing to his feet, where the grim, determined Dempsey measured him with a punch to the chin which ended the battle. Dempsey stood over the fallen French idol until the count was finished and then tenderly picked up the bleeding and dazed Frenchman and dragged him to his corner.

Dempsey gave Carpentier an unmerciful beating. He opened up a cut under the Frenchman's eye and battered him viciously around the head with rights and lefts until Carpentier's face was swollen and bleeding. Carpentier fought gamely back at the champion, but he was outclassed. Once he was half knocked and half pushed through the ropes and most of the time was going away from the champion. Dempsey kept after him, driving him to the corner, whenever he had an opportunity. Carpentier was out only for a few seconds. Manager Descamps applied first aid, as quickly as the dazed Frenchman dropped into his chair. Police immediately climbed into the ring and made a path for the champion and Carpentier to go to their dressing rooms.

Crowd Goes Wild. When Dempsey drove home the winning punch the swelling crowd that packed the arena was on its feet yelling. The crowd, so apathetic during the preliminaries, went wild when the fighters entered the ring. During the four rounds and at the knockout the shrieks of the women, as blow followed blow and blood was drawn, joined the din.

The sudden manner in which the main bout was staged with postponement of the last preliminary caught the spectators by surprise. There were cheers when the American champion was introduced, but the crowd, the arena around, cheered itself hoarse as Carpentier was hailed as champion of the old world, idol of his country and a soldier of France. As calm and unperturbed a fighter

The second bout between Packer O'Gatty and Frankie Burns, bantamweights, followed immediately. Frankie Burns had an advantage on points in the second eight-round preliminary.

The referee stopped the Herman Metzanga bout, the third preliminary, in the fifth round when Metzanga was hanging helpless on the ropes.

The fourth bout between Griffin and Coster was stopped in the sixth round when Coster was kneeling on the floor.

CHECK FORGER FACES CHARGE OF DESERTION

James L. Burke Arrested for Attempting to Pass Check On Local Merchant Proves to Be Deserter From U. S. Army.

A message received by Chief of Police Timothy this morning from the commander of the army post at Vancouver instructed him to hold James L. Burke on the charge of desertion from the army and robbery. This was a very easy task for the chief to perform, as Friday afternoon in Justice Taylor's court Burke was bound over to the grand jury in $500 bail for forging a check, and is a prisoner in the county jail.

Burke arrived here several days ago wearing an army uniform, assumed the name of Hanson, and to raise money forged the name of Ray Toft to a check for $20, which he tried to pass at Davidson's cigar stand. The clerk, however, called up Ray Toft by phone and learned that the check was a forgery, whereupon Burke seized the check from his hand and hurried away. He was later found and arrested by Patrolman Adams. It was learned that he also tried to pass the same check, or another of a similar nature, on a Medford rooming house.

PRELIMINARY BOUTS RESULT IN KNOCK OUTS, CROWD SHOWS LITTLE INTEREST

RINGSIDE, JERSEY CITY, July 2.—(By Associated Press.) The carnival of blows, with tens of thousands massed about a little 18-foot ring in Jersey City, opened at 12:10 with preliminary bouts that served as cocktails for the feast. The first bout was between Mickey Leimont and Jackey Curtin. In accordance with the New Jersey boxing law no decision was rendered in the preliminaries, but Curtin was generally conceded to have outpointed Belmont in the first tilt, a featherweight match.
