

STAND COLLAPSES WHITNEY CONCERT, THREE BOYS HURT

At the end of the fine concert given under adverse circumstances before an audience of several thousand appreciative Medford people in the city park Sunday night, and just as the boys were leaving the temporary stand,—in fact most of them had left it,—the platform which formed the lower part of the stand collapsed and three of the smaller boys of the chorus were caught in the wreckage and sustained bruises about the legs.

There was considerable excitement at first, as it was thought the lads had sustained broken limbs. Drs. Porter and Holt, who were in the audience at once administered first aid and pronounced the injuries were only sprains and bruises. However, the injured boys were walking around, but limping, yesterday morning and departed with the chorus for Weed, Harry Thornton, aged 9, of Portland was the worst hurt of the trio and he will not be able to wear a shoe for several days, so had is his sprain.

At that, the accident was fortunate, in that it did not happen when all the boys were seated on the stand, which was flimsily constructed in circus seat fashion at a rather steep pitch, with the top seat about 20 feet from the ground. The concert was spoiled somewhat through the fears of Professor Whitney and 125 boys, ranging in years from 5 to 20 years that the stand would collapse.

In fact, when just before the concert the chorus had been seated on the stand it began to move sideways a little. Prof. Whitney at once admonished the youths to be calm and move off the stand slowly and deliberately. They obeyed, and the leader then called for volunteers in the audience to brace the stand so as to make it safe. This was done, considerably delaying the concert.

When the chorus again cautiously mounted the stand and had been seated Mr. Whitney cautioned each of the boys to keep his feet solid on the seat in front of him, so in case the stand did collapse their legs would not be caught beneath the planks.

The chorus and leader were at a disadvantage because of fear of the safety of the structure, and the boys remained seated all during the concert, singing in a cramped position. However, their concert was splendid, and considering its worth under the adverse circumstances one can imagine what it would have been had the minds of the singers been more free from worry and their lungs had had more play.

Finally Prof. Whitney announced that he would shorten the concert, as he was so worried because of his responsibility for the safety of the boys, and therefore the next number would be the last. This number, "Come Where the Lilies Bloom," was one of the best of the concert, which was composed mostly of hymns and religious music. The usual program of the chorus is a varied one with a number of clever stunts.

The Whitney Boy's chorus is en route on a concert tour through California, traveling in five big motor busses, one private car and one motor truck. During their stay in the city they were entertained at private homes. The chorus and leader left Monday morning at 8 o'clock for Weed, the scene of their next concert. The majority of the boys are from Portland, and a few of their number are from Seattle.

RALPH HAND IS BEATEN BY THYE, TWO FALLS TO 1

Ralph W. Hand of Gold Hill wrestling champion of southern Oregon met the most decisive defeat of his career Monday when, after winning the first fall in 19 minutes, he was thrown twice by Ted Thye of Portland. Over 1500 people, including many women, saw the match, which was held in the Ashland Chautauqua auditorium, as the sport attraction of the Fourth of July celebration. Thye weighed 162 pounds, Hand 164 1-2 pounds.

Hand won the first fall with a toehold in 19 minutes, after much tussling. Thye came back for the second set, full of determination, and went at Hand fast. After 26 minutes he slipped on a body hammerlock and wrist lock and forced the Gold Hill man to give up. Many in the audience criticised Blair, the referee, for not giving Thye the round, before he had painfully hurt Hand, but Blair explained that he did not hear Hand say quit the first time, and Hand refused to put his back to the floor even when he had given up.

In the final test, Hand was thrown in one minute with another wrist lock. Hand received a severe strain on his arm, and gave up without much of a struggle. He did not have much use of his arm, and looked worn from the efforts in the ring. He also hurt his back in the first part of the match, when thrown against the railing on the floor of the ring.

Begonia Singh, the Hindu challenger the winner. He was thrown Sunday night at Myrtle Point by Thye. Thye arrived in Ashland at noon from Myrtle Point, and had no sleep the night before the Hand match, which speaks volumes for his superb physical condition. Thye also was in an aeroplane accident in an attempt to reach Myrtle Point Saturday.

TWO INJURED IN ACCIDENT JULY 3

Another auto accident of Sunday night was that in which two men were injured and another escaped injury between Eagle Point and Medford. The three, Carl Natwick and Mr. O'Brien, sub-contractors on the Crater Lake Highway, with Buster McClellan driving the Dodge runabout of Mr. Natwick, were en route to Medford and in making a turn the car turned turtle.

One man, it is said, suffered a broken arm and a sprained ankle and the other bruises and a cut over the left eye. McClellan escaped injury. Natwick and O'Brien were brought to Medford to the Holland hotel where their hurts were attended to by a physician.

2 WOMEN GO ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

TULSA, Okla., July 5.—Mrs. Jessie James and Goldie Gordon, charged with the murder of John Devereaux, went on trial in district court here today. Judge Devereaux was found on the night of May 9 in a hotel unconscious and near death. He had a wound on his head and was apparently suffering an overdose of drugs.

Mrs. James and Miss Gordon, who said they were nurses caring for him, were arrested. Following the report of three Tulsa physicians that Judge Devereaux had died from a blow on the head and drugs, the women were charged with murder and bound over for trial.

At the preliminary hearing the state stressed the disappearance of a promissory note for $10,000 which the judge was supposed to have had in a safe deposit box in a Tulsa bank. Alleged contradictory statements made to the police by Mrs. James regarding his death were also introduced in evidence.

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper—secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigarettey aftertaste,

It's Camels for you.
