Secretary of State Kozer has announced that Jackson county's share of the county fair fund among the counties of the state is $1,572.66. This fund, raised by a levy of one-twentieth of a mill on the taxable property in the state this year aggregates $48,739.87. It is apportioned among the counties in amounts equivalent to that raised by the levy in each county, plus an equal share in the surplus above the $15,999 limit in Multnomah county, which this year amounted to $2311.95. The fund is designated for use in maintaining county fairs, land product shows and livestock exhibitions, but in counties maintaining one of these features it may be diverted to use in county roads.
