

"The Great Moment" is Great Gloria Swanson's first stellar role in Glyn.

"The Great Moment," which is on view at the Page theatre this week, has pleased her admirers mightily. It is a great picture and this dainty star never appeared to finer advantage in any production. Milton Sills renders adequate support as leading man. The story was written by Mme. Elinor...

Suspense reigns supreme in "Riders of the Dawn," now playing at the Rialto theatre. One exciting situation follows hard upon another, and the picture as a whole affords entertainment of the best and most convincing quality. Roy Stewart contributes the most vividly impressive character sketch of his career.
