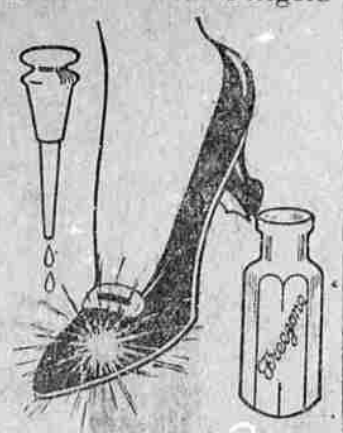
CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers



Doesn't hurt a bit! Put a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly! Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Burning of Mail Order Catalogues Starts U. S. Probe

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Destruction of catalogues of mail order houses, which are in competition with members of the chamber is the complaint on which the Chamber of Commerce of Missoula, Mont., its officers, directors and members of the Northwest Theaters company of the same city have been cited by the federal trade commission. The complaint made by mail order houses recites that since January, 1919, at regular intervals of about one year, the respondents have collected and burned catalogues of mail order houses soliciting business in Missoula, and adjacent territory in competition with local business houses.

The mail order houses petitioned the commission for action.

The Screen

The Sign on the Door

In "The Sign on the Door," Norma Talmadge, incomparable emotional actress of the silent drama, is seen at her best in the most interesting and absorbing screen vehicle yet given to this talented star.

"The Sign on the Door" opened to a capacity house at the Page theatre yesterday. The splendid plot is extremely well presented on the screen. The story concerns Ann Hunniwell, a pretty stenographer, who, through no fault of her own, is compromised by her employer's scapegrace son. Later, when she marries a man of high character and social standing, the fellow comes into her life again. He is killed in a struggle with her husband. The husband does not know that his wife has witnessed the tragedy. An extraordinary denouement follows her act in summoning the police and accusing herself of the shooting.

In this production Norma takes full advantage of the opportunities for dramatic and emotional acting in wonderful fashion.

The star has excellent support. Charles Richman is seen as her leading man, and others prominent in the cast are Lew Cody, David Proctor, Helen Weir and Paul McAllister.

Bucking the Tiger

"Bucking the Tiger," which is now appearing at the Rialto theatre for a run of three days is what might be termed a melodramatic comedy, for in an ingenious manner it combines the best elements of melodrama and comedy and the fact that the denouement is a happy one removes it from the strict drama class. For the benefit of those who do not know the derivation and definition of the expression, "Bucking the Tiger" the following explanation may be of interest:

The game of faro is generally known under the euphonistic term of "the tiger" among players of high stakes, and the term "bucking the tiger" simply denotes taking a chance in this fascinating and precarious game. The name originated in China and is that of a Chinese deity, and the figure of a tiger standing on its hind feet, grasping a large cash in its mouth or paws, is a favorite sign in that country often seen outside a gambling house.

Sometimes the image is made of wood or clay, or drawn on a piece of paper or board. The title of the beast His Excellency the Grasping Cash Tiger" is sometimes written on a piece of paper and placed in the gambling room between two bunches of mock money suspended under the table or on the wall behind it. "The Fighting Tiger" is also a popular name for Chinese faro houses.

Although the expression "Bucking the Tiger" is used in an allegorical sense for this picture it will be admitted after one has seen the production, that it is most appropriate.

WOMEN ENTER INTO OIL FIELD STRIKE

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Oct. 6.—A new element entered the strike of the oil workers of Kern county and Coalinga today when more than a hundred women, wives, daughters and mothers of strikers, set forth for the Kern river field to interview man who remained at work, and to try to get them to quit. The movement was underjaken at the request of strike leaders.

Strike leaders said today there probably would be little change in the situation until a response was received to their telegram to the department of labor, sent Sunday night urging the department to arrange government mediation.

Major Hines Promoted

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Major General John L. Hines was designated today by Secretary Weeks to succeed Major General Dickman, retired as commander of the eighth corps area, with headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

MOTHER, QUICK! GIVE CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP FOR CHILD'S BOWELS

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.
