

IF FOOTBALL WERE JUST KICKING

Miss Elsie Westcott thinks she might be a star on the gridiron, too. Witness this picture, which shows her, at the Oak Street Beach, kicking a foot above her head. A. R. McCarthy, star halfback of Hyde Park High school, is shown following through his punt, not near so high, but then—he's handicapped by clothes.

OREGON CITIZEN DECLARES HE WAS IN NEED OF RELIEF

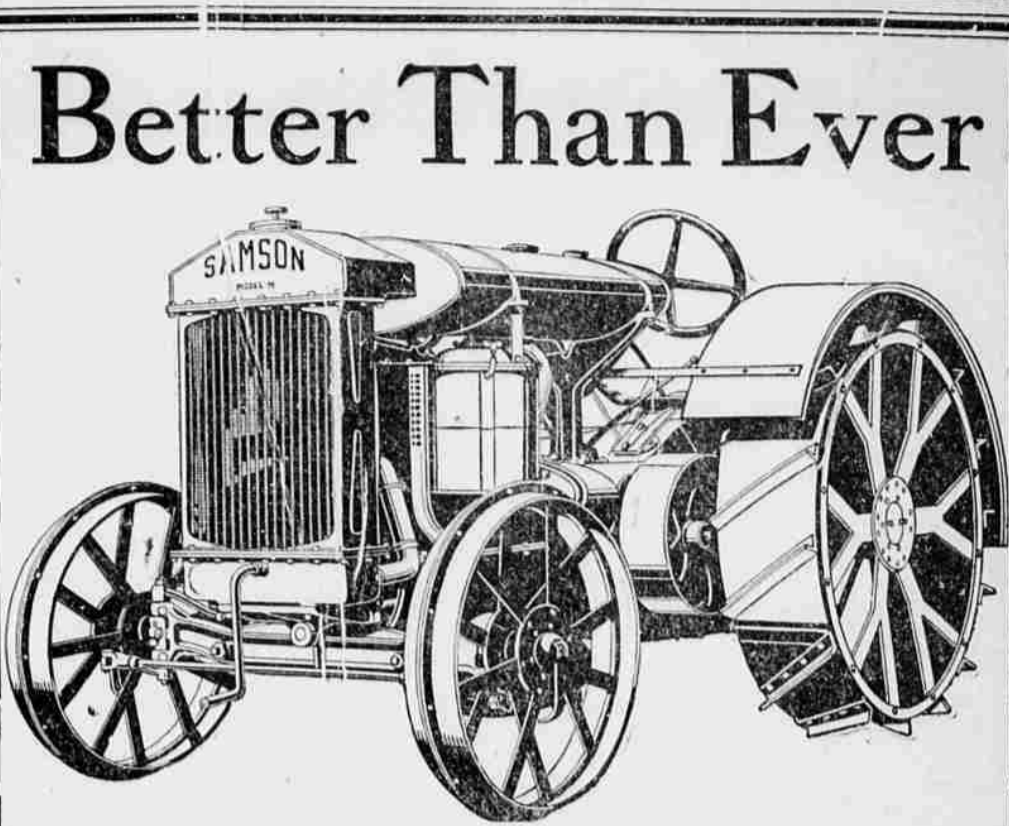

"Tanlac came to my rescue when I needed help and needed it quick," said Walter Barnett, 1427 Omaha Ave., Portland, Ore.

"I never dreamed there was a medicine that could make as big a change in a man as this one has made in me. I had stomach trouble of the worst sort, my whole nervous system seemed on the verge of a breakdown and I had awful headaches at times.

"Luckily for me I began to take Tanlac and now I'm sound and well in every respect. In fact, I just feel good clear to my finger-tips and have more life and energy than in years."

Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by the West Side Pharmacy, and by leading druggists everywhere.

LARS OLSEN TO WRESTLE THYE NAT. OCT. 21ST

George Adams of the A. W. Walker Auto company has completed preliminary arrangements for the holding of a wrestling match in this city at the Nat Wednesday, October 21st, between Ted Thye of the M. A. A. C. of Portland, and Lars Olsen of Athens, Ohio. This is a return bout between the two, Thye winning two bouts from Olsen, one at Gold Hill, and one at Ashland. Olsen claimed that his defeats were due to lack of condition, and asked for a return match. Olsen is now wrestling in Montana, and has evidently hit his stride as he has not lost a match since leaving here. A telegram was received from Thye Friday, saying he would be here.

This is the first match that has been held in this city in years, the wrestling events being staged heretofore at Gold Hill and Ashland, necessitating an auto ride for local fans. This time they will be able to see a good bout without going out of town.

The Natatorium has been secured for this event. It is highly probable that a match will be arranged at a later date with Ralph Hand as one of the principals.

News dispatches from Salem say the open season for burning slashings began Saturday, according to announcement by H. E. Eberly, deputy state forester. From now until June 1 permits will not be required for slash burnings. At a meeting of the state board of forestry in Portland, Eberly states, a policy of annual burnings of the year's slashings was adopted. Accumulations of slashings, however, must be inspected by the state forester's office and approved before burning.

The home talent comedy play given by the Ashland Elks lodge in Ashland under direction of C. J. McNaughton on Tuesday and Wednesday nights of this week, and which was attended by a number of Medford Elks and their ladies proved a splendid and well acted attraction, which compared favorably with the average professional road show. Throughout the entire performance of two hours the house was in a constant uproar of laughter at the mirth-provoking complications of a swift-moving plot centered about the antics of a non-working Ferris wheel and the jealousy of a questioning wife.
