The four men who stole A. B. Cunningham's car recently and abandoned it in the woods near Sisson, Calif., proved to be burglars and holdup men as well as auto thieves, according to Mr. Cunningham who has returned to the city with the recovered car. The same night they abandoned the car they burglarized the Southern Pacific office at Edgewood, Calif., and held up an auto of people returning from a dance at Weed. Then the steering gear became bent in some manner and they ran the car into the brush, stripped it of tools and most of its outer equipment, and abandoned it with the lights burning. A hunter found it a day or so later. The car body was badly scratched, but outside of this and the bent steering gear was not damaged.

Many of the local O. A. C. supporters are in high spirits since having learned the score of the O. A. C.-Willamette game last Saturday. Oregon played Willamette two weeks ago and defeated Willamette by the small score of 7 to 2, while O. A. C. defeated them 54 to 0. However the Oregon enthusiasts account for the small score piled up by Oregon due to the early date of the game, and maintain that the U. of O. team has been entirely "changed around" and that they will give O. A. C. a hard fight if not a complete defeat at Eugene on Nov. 19.
