

CENTRAL POINT FIRE TOTAL LOSS, NO INSURANCE

CENTRAL POINT, Oregon.—(Special). Mr. and Mrs. Coram and daughter Ruby, and her husband, Eugene, arrived here Sunday afternoon for a visit of a fortnight's duration with Commissioner and Mrs. Victor Burnett at their beautiful suburban home here.

Fire, which completely destroyed the Welch property here, perhaps better known as the Nichols property, and occupied by the Lou Smith family, broke out here early last Monday morning. In spite of all the fire department and citizens could do, and they responded promptly, nobly and well, the house and contents were a complete loss. There was no insurance on anything.

The origin of the fire is not positively known but it is thought that it was caused from sparks flying from the fireplace and catching the nearby furniture. A fire had been started in the fireplace earlier in the morning and later, while the housewife went about doing her morning work in the kitchen, the connecting door was closed, between the kitchen and living room. Smelling smoke several minutes later the door was opened and the room was found to be a mass of flames.

The alarm of fire was turned in but before the fire department could get there nearly all the inside was gone. The fire workers, including all citizens of the town and business men especially, did splendid work in saving the nearby houses and keeping the flames from spreading. Mr. Smith and family, the tenants of the house at the time of the fire, lost everything in the nearby houses and keeping the flames from spreading. Mr. Smith and family, the tenants of the house at the time of the fire, lost everything in the nearby houses and keeping the flames from spreading.

Mr. Anthony, the hide man from Eugene was transacting business in Central Point during the week. Mrs. Skryman who has been very ill at her home here for the past several days is thought to be well on the road to recovery now. This will be good news to the many friends of the Central Point lady who have been much concerned about her.

A tiny child justly made known its arrival at the Frank Mayfield home here recently. Everyone concerned is doing well, and the parents are extremely proud of their little one. Tuesday morning, while I was waiting for the morning mail from Medford, I took a stroll down Riverside boulevard and stopped in to take a look at the unfinished house at our barber, Ernest Dahack. Early last spring he bought a small two room cottage that had been built by a widow lady for a home, during the boom, and people who knew him wondered what he was thinking of to buy such a small unfinished house as that for a family of his size, wife and three children, and the house was not even fenced in and no water on it to use or drink, although it was only a short distance to the creek. But the first thing anyone knew he had the material on the ground to fence it and soon had the fence up, the land heavily coated with barn manure, and planted in all kinds of garden truck a water system established and running all over it so as to irrigate it, from a 1600 gallon tank he had put up on the tract of land he had secured from W. Hart Hamilton. And then the next move was to begin changing and enlarging his house, and now it is a neat seven room house with all modern improvements and by the time he had it completed he will have one of the best arranged houses in this vicinity and the beauty of it all is that he has done all the work himself, the carpentering, brickmasonry and painting, everything ready to use, and attended to his barber shop at the same time, but while his neighbors were asleep or otherwise taking things easy, Ernest was up and at work. My object in writing this time is to encourage others to do away with the "I can't" idea and adopt the "I will" thought instead.

J. W. Hockeramith of the Meadows was a passenger on the stage on his way to Butte Falls. Mr. Hockeramith was among the early settlers of the valley, he having settled on a homestead on the tract of land now covered by the Hillcrest orchard when a young man. And speaking of that I do remember that in 1845 that the late George Lane and I were riding over it and commenting on the character of that very piece of land and that he remarked "Here is a tract of land that is not worth the taxes being paid on it" and now it is among the best orchards in the valley. That shows how land was valued in an early day.

Mr. Kershaw and Mr. Austin of Clatsop came in together and Mr. Kershaw told of some of the trouble they were having in his road district over the way the money of that district had been taken and applied on another district, but the whole thing will come out in the papers and is likely to be aired in the courts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wattenberg, who are now living on the Thomas and Ruth Nichols farm, some six miles above here on Rogue river were business callers Tuesday. W. S. Baker of Derby is engaged in hauling wood to town. Joe Riley passed through here with four fine brood cows for Roy Stanley Tuesday.

Charley Clark, who is making his home on the Modoc orchard, came in from Fort Klamath Tuesday and stopped at the Sunnyside until now, Saturday. J. C. Nolan of Portland, representative of Hedman Mfg. Co. of Chicago, and C. D. Bayer, representative of

WIFE OF FARMER SUFFERED SO SHE ALMOST STARVED

Noting he had given her a writ of habeas corpus, the City Recorder of the City of Medford commencing to proceed and sell in the manner provided for by law, the property described in the following list, to wit: The premises situated on the East side of Park street, between 4th and 5th streets, and bounded by 4th street to the north, 5th street to the south, 1st street to the west and 2nd street to the east, containing 1/4 acre of land, together with the improvements thereon, as shown on the map of the City of Medford, Oregon, filed in the office of the City Recorder, on the 10th day of August, 1921, and the same is being sold to the highest bidder, at public auction, on the 20th day of October, 1921, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the City Hall in Medford, Oregon, for the purpose of satisfying the judgment rendered in the case of the City of Medford vs. the said premises, together with the costs of such proceedings, and the interest thereon, as provided by law.

Declaring she was actually starving to keep from suffering awful misery, Mrs. Amy Peterson, wife of a prosperous farmer of Lakeville, Mass., gave out a remarkable statement, recently, in connection with her relief through the use of Tanlac. "Sometimes I wonder how I lived through it all," she said. "I would have attacks of acute indigestion nearly every time I ate anything. Those terrible cramping pains and the distress from gas and bloating were almost unbearable and I just thought there was no hope for me. "But now I'm eating anything and I feel as strong and well as I ever felt in my life. I've gained back all the weight I lost and six pounds besides and I know from my experience what Tanlac will do. It's the best medicine in the world."

Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by the West Side Pharmacy, and by leading druggists everywhere. Mrs. Peterson's story is a true one, and it is a good example of the power of Tanlac. It is a natural, safe and effective remedy for all cases of indigestion, constipation, gas, bloating, and other ailments of the stomach and bowels. It is a true blessing for all who suffer from these troubles.

Klem-Simpson Fruit company, Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. Gus Nichols and her daughter Marie, and Miss Ruth Nichols, Mr. Reymund and four strangers were here for dinner Tuesday. Mrs. Cowdon drove in Wednesday to meet her sister, Mrs. Ira Tompkins of Butte Falls, who came in on the morning stage Wednesday. Mr. Graham, who owned the building recently burned on Reese creek, was also a passenger on the stage and so was J. S. Vestal of Reese creek. They had been to Jacksonville to interview the tax collector, N. R. Korst of Butte Falls and returned Thursday.

George Givens and son were hauling in some fine looking oak stove wood Tuesday. Among the passengers on the night McIntire Falls stage was Mr. H. McCall of Prospect, John Jay Graham, who owned the building recently burned on Reese creek, and three children, on her way to Butte Falls.

Among the business callers Wednesday were C. L. Goff of Medford, representing the Oregon Fire relief association and George E. Yeo of Ashland, special agent for Oregon Fire Relief association of McMinnville, Oregon. Carlyle Natwick, his mother, Mrs. C. H. Natwick and sister, Miss Orville Natwick and Mrs. Jones, Charles Taylor and accommodating sheriff, Charles Brown, one of our prominent farmers, Thomas Abbott, wife and two children, and Albert Robinson, all took dinner at the Sunnyside last Wednesday, beside five strangers, whose names I failed to secure.

Mr. John Simon, formerly of this place but now of Gold Hill, came in Wednesday night to visit his sister, Mrs. Allie Daley. Mr. Simon is one of the early pioneers of Jackson county, his father, Peter Simon having come to this farm in 1850 that is now the site of our prominent fruit grower, Mr. Simon. Mr. Simon spent a number of years in that business in Nevada and Mexico, but had to leave that country on account of the revolutions there, and since then has been engaged in mining in this county, but now is holding a position at the cement works of Gold Hill.

M. E. Schmitt of Derby came out on the stage from Medford. He had been to Jacksonville to settle up his taxes. Mrs. A. C. Speck of Brownsboro was transacting business here Thursday. Miss Nellie Coy our efficient and accommodating postoffice assistant, made a trip to Medford and consulted a dentist Thursday.

George W. Stowell the chicken king of these parts, was a business caller Thursday. Rudolph Peck and wife of Lake Creek were trading here Thursday with our merchants. Asked about his potato crop, he said what he had was very good, but the crop was not so plentiful as usual, that he had disposed of about all he had to dispose of.

Thursday evening our son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoyt of Fort Klamath, came in and were accompanied by Mrs. Roy Hickman and child and Miss Fern Leaver, also of Fort Klamath and after taking supper at the Sunnyside hotel, the two ladies went on to Medford that night. They report on the road in a fine condition as the late rain had packed it and settled the dust in the ruts and chukholes.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Averell of the Round Top, came in and spent the night, going on to home Friday morning. A parcel of land, bounded by 4th street to the north, 5th street to the south, 1st street to the west and 2nd street to the east, containing 1/4 acre of land, together with the improvements thereon, as shown on the map of the City of Medford, Oregon, filed in the office of the City Recorder, on the 10th day of August, 1921, and the same is being sold to the highest bidder, at public auction, on the 20th day of October, 1921, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the City Hall in Medford, Oregon, for the purpose of satisfying the judgment rendered in the case of the City of Medford vs. the said premises, together with the costs of such proceedings, and the interest thereon, as provided by law.

MOTHER! MOVE CHILD'S BOWELS WITH CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Hurry mother! Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of California Fig Syrup and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must get "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.
