A record low figure for the cost of poisoning ground squirrels has been established by J. H. Heckner, working in Jackson county, says I. N. Gabrielson, chief rodent control inspector for the United States biological survey. According to a report received by Gabrielson, Heckner, assisted by one man on salary and 192 farmers, poisoned 40,280 acres of government land and repoisoned 42200 acres, and treated lightly 16,850 acres where the squirrels were not bad, at a total cost of $1432.42, or not over 2.3 cents per acre. This is the lowest unit cost for land poisoned in this state, says Gabrielson. Heckner is about half through with his poison campaign.

"Local people will be gratified to learn that the city council is prepared to do its part toward providing Jacksonville Engine Co. No. 1 with adequate fire fighting equipment," says the Jacksonville Post. "In preparing the annual budget it was proposed to appropriate $600 for the purchase of new hose and other needed equipment, but upon considering the matter the council decided that the amount would not be sufficient and raised the appropriation to $800. Funds thus provided, supplemented by the proceeds of a series of entertainments and dances to be given by the fire department during the winter months, as well as by popular subscription, should be ample to provide the firemen with the more necessary apparatus."

GREAT INTEREST IN THE OLSEN CONTEST FRIDAY

There is considerable interest in the wrestling match Friday night at the Nat between Ted Thyne and Lars Olsen to a finish for a $500 purse. Thyne beat Olsen at Gold Hill a month ago in one of the best contests ever seen in this section. Olsen has just returned from a tour of the northwest, and says he is in the best condition of his athletic career. Both the principals are well known in this city and valley, and each has a large number of supporters.

EVERY MEDFORD HOME TO HAVE ITS LETTER BOX

The letter carriers of Medford as well as those of all other cities in the United States were busy today in making a nation-wide survey of the number of homes without mail boxes, and stores and offices without slots cut in their front doors for the reception of mail. This survey is being made under orders of the postoffice department in line with Postmaster General Hays efforts to bring about a more efficient and time saving delivery system.

It is not known just what steps will be adopted by the postoffice department when all the reports of this survey are received to enforce mail boxes at every home and slots in the store and office doors, but it is presumed that a subsidiary campaign will be conducted at first to educate the people up to the necessity of providing proper receptacles for mail.

Although the survey did not begin until this morning Postmaster Warner of the Medford office calls attention to the fact that there are many offenders in this respect in the city. One of the city carriers informed him last night that after a cursory review he could name just sixty houses already on his route that lacked mail boxes.

"Now if this carrier, through lack of a conveniently located mail box has to lose a minute putting the mail properly in some safe place, at each one of these sixty homes, he is just delayed one hour in getting over his route," said Mr. Warner today.

"People who do not provide mail boxes at their homes are very thoughtless and do not realize how they are delaying the service. Many of them say: 'Just throw the mail on the porch. We'll get it.' That's all right until an important letter is lost. Then it's a different matter. I feel sure that all Medford people will co-operate with the postoffice department for better service when they once realize the importance of the matter."

HARVEST HOME SUPPER AT PHOENIX FRIDAY

The annual event of Phoenix will come off Friday evening. Throughout the valley the chicken pie suppers given at Clyde Hall by the Ladies' Aid Society are hailed with anticipation, for the culinary ability of Phoenix church workers is equal to the best values this year—all records broken, you know.

Supper will be served at six o'clock to the first comers. If there is time for a second service—the moon bids fair to take much time of the consumer—the later comers will be given the same generous supply. Fix the date, the place, the time—and above all the pleasant social intercourse, in your mind: October 21, Clyde Hall, Phoenix.

THIN, FLAT HAIR GROWS LONG, THICK AND ABUNDANT

"Dandergine" costs only 25 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair and in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to take up. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. "Dandergine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant. 81
