

"Who said Kellogg's Corn Flakes? Oh, good, I am, but we're going to have KELLOGG'S for our supper, 'tween we won't dream!"

Leave it to the kiddies to pick Kellogg's Corn Flakes—yes ma'am, just like you will!

Put a bowl of KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes and a bowl of imitations in front of any youngster! See KELLOGG'S disappear! Try the experiment on yourself! It's great to know the difference in corn flakes—the difference between the genuine and the "just-as-goods"! Kellogg's have a wonderful flavor that would win your favor by itself—but when you know that Kellogg all-the-time crispness! Well—they just make you glad. That's the only way to say it!

Kellogg's will snap-up kiddie appetites something wonderful! And, our word for it—let the littles have their fill—just like Daddy must have his! You'll never know how delicious corn flakes can be until you eat KELLOGG'S!

BOOKING OFFICE TO BE FEATURE AT ANDREWS BENEFIT

Something entirely new in the line of stage production will be seen in part two of the Andrews Complimentary concert, on Tuesday evening at the Page theatre. Not only are the lines of "The New York Booking Office" written for this occasion, but the applications for tryouts for the vaudeville stage bring forth talents heretofore unsuspected in our midst.

The writer "listened in" at a rehearsal of this part last night, and while sworn to secrecy as to the personnel of the play, we are privileged to state that the audience will see its next-door neighbor in a side-splitting role. Every merchant who has a slow account hanging on his books will be enlightened as to a sure-fire method of turning those accounts into cash.

Every mother who has a daughter away from home cannot afford to miss the screaming solace offered her in a rare bit of song.

Paganini, who has just finished a world tour and looks the part, will be one of the stellar numbers of this skit. But why enumerate? There are seven burlesque numbers which combine to make the funniest act ever staged by local talent.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS
HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have bladder trouble—Take a glass of Salts.

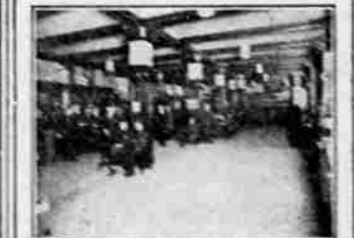

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium, and has been used for generations to flush and cleanse the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and causes no injury; makes a delightful after-dinner drink; water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding many kidney complications.

2-HEADED SNAKE
FOUND ROGUE R.
NOW AT CARNIVAL

While driving through the country about seven miles from the town of Rogue River, Mrs. Gunning Davis stopped her car and descended the bank of a small creek for the purpose of getting some water for her car. As she descended the bank she noticed a small snake and at about the same time Darrell Garmon, who was fishing along the creek noticed it and picked it up discovering that it had two heads; whereupon Mrs. Gunning Davis gave the lad $20 for the possession of the creature, and brought it to Medford.

Anyone wishing to see it may do so by paying a slight fee in addition to the regular admission price to the Australian Entertainer's show with the Leavitt-Brown-Huggins Carnival, as the snake is now being exhibited here. The two heads of the snake move independently and the little creature which measures 5 inches in length is perfect in every respect save for the superfluous head. Both heads are perfect and of equal size.

So far as can be learned this is the only specimen in captivity. The representative of the Mail Tribune who viewed the snake will vouch for the genuineness of the two-headed feature.

MEDFORD WOMAN CAME INTO BRUMFIELD CASE

The following sidelight on the Dr. Brumfield murder case is reported by the Roseburg News Review, and was revealed in the closing argument for the defense, the name of the woman writing the letter not being revealed:

"With that statement, the attorney picked up some of the letters found in the Brumfield auto wreckage and declared to be the personal effects of Dennis Russell. One of the letters was postmarked Medford and addressed to 'W. D. Russell.' It read as follows: 'Please don't send any more letters to me. I don't care to hear from you at all. You claim to be a man but I don't think so. If you was you'd pay your honest bills. Do not write to me any more. I'm married and live a nice clean life and have the finest man in the world.'"

Out of the Snows
"Out of the Snows" is the production at the Rialto in which Ralph Ince acts in the double capacity as director and leading man, has more variety of scenery and speed of motion than is usually found. The locale of the story is Canada, from Quebec up to the Arctic.

Among many novel scenes in this thrilling drama is one which depicts the destruction by fire of the fur-trading ship, "Pole Star."

An unusual photographic feat in another part of the picture is that showing a man hunting a blinding snowstorm. There is physical action galore when Ralph Ince and his six feet two of brawn and muscle engages in one of the snappiest screen fights seen in many a day.

It is a long time since Mr. Ince has been seen as a leading man, and his return was warmly received by those who like good, lively pictures with a "twack."

At the Page
Constance Talmadge in her latest starring vehicle "Lessons in Love," will be the feature photoplay attraction at the Page theatre for a three days showing beginning tomorrow matinee.

Miss Talmadge's latest production is a peppy farce comedy presenting the star in a light and pleasing role, that of a flapper who chooses to be wooed as a servant girl rather than as the blue blooded member of society. In support of the star is a flawless cast of well-known players that includes Flora Finch, George Pawcett, Kenneth Harlan and Jimmy Harrison. The picture was taken in Florida last winter and contains beautiful tropical scenic shots.

A vital, dramatic picture is "Sowing the Wind," adapted from Sydney Grundy's story and starring Anita Stewart. The picture which closes tonight at the Page theatre and is punctuated with good detail and an array of interesting sequences, is staged handsomely and acted by a cast that includes Myrtle Stodman, William V. Mong and Ralph Lewis.
