CARNIVAL PLEASURES LARGE CROWD HERE

A large crowd of local and out-of-town people filled the grounds of the Levitt-Brown-Hungins Carnival located on North Fir street of this city yesterday and last night. This carnival is being held under the auspices of the Buckhound circle of the Medford Elk lodge. The dare-devil motorcycle performer has supplied one of the main features, while large crowds have enjoyed the wrestling matches held in connection with the show.

The Levitt-Brown-Hungins carnival is one of the most complete Southern Oregon people have enjoyed. The carnival will not leave Medford before Saturday night.
