

GRAND JURY ASKS FOR HOLD OVER TO FINISH WORK

The grand jury failed to complete its work last week, and has adjourned temporarily, after filing a report with the court requesting that they be allowed to hold over this term.

The report is as follows: To the Honorable F. M. Calkins, circuit judge:

We, the grand jury, respectfully report to the court that at various times since our appointment we have conducted investigations of certain matters we deemed to be of importance to the county, and had expected to complete our work on these matters this week. However, at this regular session of the grand jury, beginning Monday, October 17th there was a large number of criminal cases to come before the jury, and we have at this session returned 18 true bills, and three not true bills, and investigated certain other matters without action. This large amount of routine work made it impossible for the grand jury to complete this week the work started some time ago.

It will probably require a week at least to complete this work, and in view of the large criminal docket at this term of the circuit court, of course it will be impracticable for the grand jury to be in session during the term, or, at least it would work a hardship on the officers who would have to assist this jury.

We believe the matters we have yet to complete are of sufficient importance to justify our holding over this term, as much as we would like to be released from the duties we are trying to perform.

It is our desire to be in a position when this work is finished to make a full report of our investigations to the court, for the benefit of the people of the county on one or more matters of importance to them, and in which they are interested.

We have no other report to make at this time.

Respectfully submitted, JOHN W. ELDEN, Foreman of the Grand Jury.

The Screen

BUSTER KEATON.

One of the outstanding features of the bill at the Page theatre with Hobart Bosworth in "The Brute Master," written by Mrs. Jack London, beginning with the performance tomorrow matinee will be the first comedy starring Buster Keaton.

Buster Keaton, it will be remembered, was for several years one of the famous Three Keatons, in the vaudeville act which appeared all over the country under that name. He was the little chap with the long and serious face whom his daddy used to throw about the stage much as one would toss a bean bag or a sack of potatoes.

The management of the Page theatre promises a great treat for all who come to see Buster Keaton in "One Week."

MRS. JANE KUBLI HONOR GUEST AT PORT BANQUET

An event of interest was the eightieth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Eleanor Jane Kubli, which was celebrated with a dinner Thursday night at the Imperial hotel by members of her immediate family. Mrs. Kubli is an early Oregon pioneer, having crossed the plains by ox-team in 1842, coming direct to Jacksonville, Ore., where she settled. Since those early days the Kubli family has been an important factor in making the history of the state. Mrs. Kubli is the mother of a number of prominent Portlanders, including K. K. Kubli, Mrs. Howard D. Kilham, Mrs. Phil Met-schan and Mrs. Eleanor K. Watson. She is also grandmother of Mrs. Rufus Holman.

Mrs. Kubli was born in Indiana and came west with her parents when 11 years old. She related her early experiences in crossing the plains and in Jacksonville with clearness and enthusiasm. She met Kaspar K. Kubli while crossing the plains, and married him later at Jacksonville. Her father was Daniel Newcomb, a member of the convention which adopted the constitution of Oregon. Part of the original donation land claim which Daniel Newcomb took up on the Applegate river is still in the Kubli family.

Those present at the birthday anniversary dinner, in addition to Mrs. Kubli were: Mrs. Eleanor K. Watson; Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Kubli, Margaret and Katherine Kubli; Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Kilham, Laura, Horace, Mary Helen and Harold Kilham and Maxine Morrell; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Met-schan; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Holman and Eleanor Holman.—Oregonian.

HOSPITAL TALK AT FORUM LUNCHEON

Father George Thompson of Portland will address the members of the Medford Chamber of Commerce forum tomorrow on the standardization of hospitals. All physicians and surgeons of Southern Oregon have been extended the privilege of this forum of which Dr. E. B. Pickel will be the presiding officer.

This will be the eighty-second forum held in eighty-two weeks which is a record that but few chambers of commerce can boast of. The topics given consideration at each are educational, besides every member is given the opportunity to present to the forum that which he believes of importance to the community.

This will be the last forum to be held at the Medford Hotel this month as those in November will be held at the Holland.

LIQUOR SHIPMENT IS NOT CALLED FOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—A liquor shipment that had been watched for four days by internal revenue agents here was taken by the coastwise steamer Admiral Schley today after the failure of the consignee, T. J. Walker, to appear. The shipment consisted of five cases of rum and two cases of Vermouth. The Schley had just completed a trip from Victoria and Seattle.

According to the internal revenue agents Walker had been "tipped off," not to claim the liquor.

VETS. ON RETIRED LIST GET NO BONUS

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 25.—Nine questions, one of which raises a new issue, have been asked by Attorney General Van Winkle, relative to application of the bonus and loan law for ex-service men. All are answered in an opinion of the attorney general given out today. The questions raising a new issue pertain to men who have served several terms in the army, the last expiring after the signing of the armistice and who are now on the retired list with retirement pay. The opinion holds that this class is not benefitted by the bonus and loan act.

It never rains but it pours!

IT WAS "company night."
 BUT WHEN I got home,
 I FOUND the Browns,
 HAD A sick baby,
 AND COULDN'T come,
 SO I chortled "Oh, Joy,
 WON'T SUE and I have,
 SWELL EATS for two!"
 BUT NO, Sue said,
 "YOU DON'T suppose,
 I'D WASTE all this food,
 JUST ON you!"
 AND SO I said,
 "LET'S PHONE the Smiths,"
 BUT THEY had headaches,
 THEN WE tried the Joneses,
 AND THEY fell for it,
 AND WHEN grub for four,
 WAS JUST about ready,
 THE PHONE bell tinkled,
 AND THE Brown baby was better,
 AND A minute later,
 THE SMITHS changed their mind,
 AND THE Missus fainted,
 "OH, WELL," I said,
 "THE MORE the merrier,
 WHAT'S THE difference?
 IF THERE isn't enough food,
 I'LL FEED the males,
 ON THE cigarettes that satisfy,
 AND YOU women can talk,
 AND BETWEEN the two,
 WE'LL ALL be Satisfied."

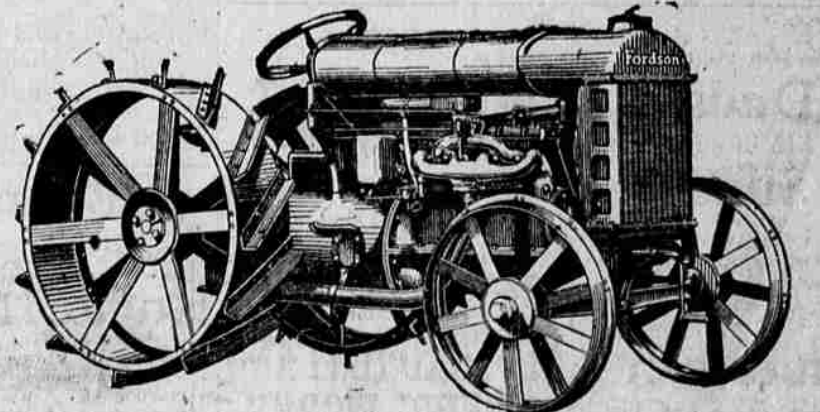

WONDERFUL company, Chesterfields—any time, anywhere. Just seem to "hit the spot." Good tobaccos, good blending, (by a private formula that can't be copied), good-looking package with an air-tight wrapper. On every count, an all-around downright good smoke. "Satisfy" All over the place.

Women of Middle Age

THE critical stage of a woman's life usually comes between the years of 45 and 55, and is often beset with annoying symptoms such as nervousness irritability, melancholia, heat flashes which produce headache and dizziness, and a sense of suffocation. Guard your health carefully, for if this period be passed over safely, many years of perfect health may be enjoyed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted to help women through this crisis. It exercises a restorative influence, tones and strengthens the system, and assists nature in the long weeks and months covering this period. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and contains no harmful drugs or narcotics. Its value is proven by many such letters as these:

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During Change of Life I was in bed for 18 months and had good care, but did not improve. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and in a short time I felt better. That was five years ago, and now when I feel run down and nervous I take the Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during Change of Life, for I know it will do them good."—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tenn.

Thomas, Okla.—"I first used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my girlhood days, by the advice of a friend. At the age of 47 I was troubled with dizziness, hot flashes, and became very weak so that I was unable to do any work. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with the result that I felt better and stronger than I have for years. I have also given it to my three daughters, and always with good results. The Vegetable Compound is certainly grand for the ills of women."—Mrs. J. G. SWANEY, Route B, Thomas, Okla.
