SAN JOSE RING ARTIST TO MEET JOHNNY CARLSON

"Mexican" Peat, the clever little San Jose ring artist, who has been working out at the Nat in preparation for Friday's smoker, has been matched with "Fighting" Johnny Carlson for a six round go because of the class he has been displaying the last few days. Matchmaker Dixon, although opposed to the weight difference between the two boys, predicts that the little Mexican will make Johnny step some. Both boys are in A-1 shape for this battle, Carlson having spent the last several weeks in working out at Lars Olson's camp on Rogue river, and his adherents promise a surprise when he enters the ring Friday night.

Billy Huff, the Klamath fighter arrived here today for a short preliminary training before he meets Tom Sharkey of Medford in a ten round main event Friday evening. Those men are light heavyweights and should provide a good scrap. "Batting" Frick has been showing a marked improvement in recent exhibition work-outs and K. O. Joe Blackburn will have to work some if he stays in the ring six rounds at the Friday smoker. This semi-windup event has aroused great interest among local fight fans because each boy has scored a knock-out in his last appearance in smoker exhibitions. Two other preliminary four round goes, together with a four round curtain raiser in which Sonny Austin will appear, will complete Friday's card. The fighters will work out at 2:30 tomorrow at the nat and a cordial invitation is extended to those interested to attend.
