

NEW DIRECTORS FOR RED CROSS ARE APPOINTED

TOO WEAK TO WORK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Quinly's Health. Now She Does Her Housework

Shelbyville, Mo.—"I was only able to do light housework because for months my periods were excessive. I had seen your medicine extensively advertised and thought I would give it a fair trial. I took about eight boxes of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets according to directions and I feel like a different woman. I have not taken any medicine during the past three months and I believe my ailment is cured. I am now able to do all my housework and attend to my poultry and garden. If you feel that my testimonial will benefit anyone you are welcome to use it in your advertisements."—Mrs. L. D. QUINLY, R. F. D. No. 2, Shelbyville, Mo.

LAW ENFORCEMENT MEETING, MEDFORD SUNDAY, NOV. 6TH

A county law enforcement conference will be held in the Christian church in this city at three o'clock Sunday, November 6th, under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon. The conference will be held under the direction of Captain Frank H. Ebbert, recently of Washington, D. C., where as Associate Attorney of the Anti-Saloon League of America he was instrumental in helping to secure the passage of the Volstead Act and took a prominent part in the cases appearing before the United States Supreme Court as to the validity of the same. Captain Ebbert will be assisted by W. J. Herwig, Portland, superintendent, Anti-Saloon League of Oregon.

The object of the conference is to discuss every phase of the enforcement of prohibition, both federal and state laws. The conference will also take up the enforcement of liquor laws in this county. W. J. Herwig of Portland, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, issued the following statement:

"The Anti-Saloon League of Oregon is proposing to conduct a very extensive Law Enforcement campaign throughout the state. It is our purpose to hold a law enforcement conference in every county seat town, the conference to be held at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon. To this conference we shall invite all the county officials and all friends who are interested in the enforcement of prohibition. The purpose of the conference is to arouse public sentiment and get the people and county officials together; instruct the people as to their duties; show them how they can co-operate with officers and to organize the forces, if possible, for future action.

"Similar campaigns are being conducted in every state in the union. If prohibition is to be made permanent and a success, the same must be properly enforced and we are confident that this campaign will be the means of arousing a stronger public sentiment for law enforcement. The greatest immediate need in the state is to inform our people just what the law is and their duty as citizens and get the people and law enforcement officers together."

At 7:30 p. m., a public mass meeting will be held at the Methodist church where Captain Ebbert will deliver a lecture on the subject of "The Unfinished Battle." The afternoon conference and the night mass meeting are open to the public and everyone interested in law and order is urged to attend.

The Screen

At the Rialto
Elna Hammerstein, who is the star of "Handcuffs and Kisses," which will be the featured attraction at the Rialto theatre for three days beginning tomorrow. She plays the parts to which she is adapted and in this picture is seen as an orphaned ward who is railroaded to the reformatory by a hard-hearted stepmother. "Handcuffs and Kisses" is different from the ordinary feature picture. It combines thrills and romance with a powerful message to humanity—a plea for the abolishment of the rigid discipline in reform institutions which tends to bring out the bad and stifle the good in all. Such well known players as Robert Ellis, Florence Billings, Robert Schabel and Edward Davis are in the cast.

"Wolves of the North"

That there is a strain of the wolf in all men is implied in "Wolves of the North," Eva Novak's screen story of the Alaskan wilds which is to be shown at the Page theatre today, Sunday and Monday.

Norman Dawn wrote the story and produced it in the far north.

As the story opens the blonde beauty is seen as a school teacher in a desolate Arctic outpost. Two men want her enough to marry her. One is a sensitive boy; the other a bearded brute with a bad reputation and a good heart. Just which of them gets the girl is never clear until the story rushes toward its climax.

Herbert Hayes, Starke Patterson, Percy Challenger, Barbara Tennant, William Eagle-Eye, Clyde Tracy and Millie Impolito are in the cast.

An added short reel feature is called "Modern Centaurs," pronounced one of the fastest action reels ever shown.
