DISAGREEMENT IS PREDICTED EDWARDS CASE

Up to 3:30 today the jury in the trial of James (Shine) Edwards charged with selling intoxicating liquor had not reported, after 5 hours deliberation. The general impression around the court house was there would be a disagreement.

Court Gives Instructions
The instructions of the court were given to the jury this morning upon the reconvening of court in the trial of James (Shine) Edwards, charged with selling of intoxicating liquor. The court explained to the jury that the reason he had excused them yesterday afternoon at the conclusion of the arguments on both sides, was to give them a day for the deliberation of the case, as he did not consider it proper to keep a jury up all night for their deliberations.

The court instructed the jury to be guided solely by the evidence as given by the witnesses from the stand, and the law as given to them by the court, and to ignore in their deliberations the comments and legal opinions of counsel.

The instructions set forth that the only issue in the case, was the sale of liquor by the defendant, as charged in the indictment on the eighth day of August and that they must find the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. The court then gave the jury the legal definition of "reasonable doubt."

The court cautioned the jury that they should not in any way destroy the evidence, but that they might investigate the contents of the bottles by breaking the seals, if they so desired. Violation of this rule, the court informed, would be contempt of court, and would work a hardship on the state in the event of a retrial. The jury was then escorted to the jury room, and began its deliberations at 9:30 o'clock.

Asks Jury Probe
The closing arguments in the trial of James (Shine) Edwards were made Thursday afternoon by Attorney Gus Newbury for the defense, and by District Attorney Rawles Moore for the state. Considerable bitterness cropped out in the debates, the defense attorney castigating in vitriolic language, the chief witness for the state, A. B. Gates. The methods of the state in employing hired detectives to "procure evidence was assailed, and the charge made that the state of Oregon "prostituted itself by using such tactics."

Attorney Newbury said he "demanded and insisted upon a grand jury investigation of the expenditure of county money, whether it was authorized by the county sheriff, the prosecutor, or the county court, in bringing in outsiders to induce men to commit crime."

"In my 20 years of experience before this court, I have seen hundreds of liars take the witness stand, but in all my experience, I never saw or heard, so vile, so licentious, so lascivious a witness as this fellow Gates. If I wanted to accurately describe him I would have to take you outdoors, where no woman could hear, and then there are not enough words in all the dictionaries in the world to do the subject justice."

District Attorney Moore in his closing address said there was but one issue involved, did the defendant sell liquor as charged on the eighth day of August, to the state's witness. He vigorously resented the imputation of the defense that he had "been unfair."

WILSON'S HEALTH BETTER THAN FOR SEVERAL YEARS

"I eat better, sleep better, work better and feel better than I have in years and from now on Taniae is the only medicine for me," said J. O. Wilson, 199 North Seventeenth St., Portland, Ore., employed at the Independent Iron Foundry.

"Stomach trouble was the curse of my life and I couldn't eat anything, but what would sour and ferment in my stomach. I had awful sick headaches and dizzy spells at times, and my back hurt me so right over my kidneys I couldn't sleep much at night."

"Taniae has made a new man out of me and I haven't a sign of my old trouble. I am twenty pounds heavier and never felt better in my life. My advice to people with stomach trouble is to lose no time in getting Taniae; it certainly does the work."

Taniae and Taniae Vegetable Pills are sold by the West Side Pharmacy, and by leading druggists everywhere. Adv.

When the Foods You Eat No Longer Seem to Do You Any Good—Look For the Danger Signals Which Denote Waste Products In The Blood.

How to Clear Your Blood of Waste Products.

The blood is the means by which all the tissues of the body are directly or indirectly nourished. You will at once realize that unless the blood is pure, some part of the body will soon become diseased. Waste products in the blood are an element of danger. Ninety per cent of the people "below par" are suffering with waste products in the blood. When your blood is loaded with waste products, you become weak, nervous, irritable and easily upset. Other symptoms are pimples, boils, or some other skin disorder; loss of weight; and probably rheumatism. Your blood is your fountain source of energy—therefore keep your blood rich and pure. For over 50 years, thousands and thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear their blood of waste products. S. S. S. will improve the quality of your blood by relieving you of the waste products which cause impoverished blood and its allied troubles—skin disorders, rheumatism and a lowered vitality. S. at your druggist. Beware of substitutes. Write Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., D-719 S. S. S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. for special medical advice (without charge).
