

SELECT JURY TO TRY WOLGAMOTT MOONSHINE CASE

The trial of Ernest (Dud) Wolgamott, charged with the sale of intoxicating liquor was begun in the circuit court this morning and the work of selecting a jury occupied the morning session. The defendant is represented by Attorneys Gus Newbury and George Roberts, and the state by District Attorney Rawley Moore.

A special venire was issued for the trial of the case, which promises to be bitterly fought.

The tentative jurors called to the box were questioned at length by both sides. The defense asked each juror if he believed in the "employment of stool pigeons to induce men to commit crime." The state countered this query with the one, to wit: "are you opposed to the hiring of detectives to secure evidence that otherwise could not be obtained?"

All the jurors were asked if they had taken an active part, on one side or the other in securing the passage of the Prohibition laws, and if they favored a stricter enforcement of them than any other law. Some of the jurors said that while they did not believe in the principle set forth in the Prohibition laws, they believed in their enforcement, no more or no less than any other law.

All were also asked if they had read newspaper accounts of the bootleg raids last summer which resulted in the arrest of Wolgamott and others. Most of them stated they had, but it left no opinion either way.

Peter Betz of Eagle Point, was asked by the state if a "recent shooting in Eagle Point and the action taken by officers had prejudiced him against U. S. officers." Betz said no, but previously stated that he was opposed to prohibition.

W. N. OFFUTT WINS IN CIVIL ACTION

A jury in the civil action of George R. Davis of Keyser, West Virginia, against William N. Offutt of Medford for the collection of a promissory note for $450, dated six years ago, returned a verdict Wednesday afternoon in favor of Offutt, after short deliberation. The note was introduced as evidence, along with a deposition from West Virginia. The note was claimed to have originally been made out to a man named F. R. Brown, who turned it over to Davis in a deal. Attorney Roberts for the plaintiff this morning was granted 60 days in which to file a motion for a new trial. Offutt was represented by Attorney Gus Newbury.

Dyed Her Silk Stockings to Match Skirt

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint her worn, shabby dresses, skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, draperies, hangings, everything, even if she has never dyed before. Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is sure because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to spot, fade, streak, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods. Adv.
