COUNTY TAX TO BE PRACTICALLY SAME AS 1920

The county court Monday approved the county budget as prepared by the county budget committee, and the tax levy for the year was fixed at 27.4 mills for districts outside of high school districts, and 25.8 for districts inside high school districts. This difference is because districts maintaining high schools are exempt from levies for high schools.

The tax levy for last year was 27 mills for districts outside of high school districts, and 23.7 mills for those within high school districts. It is estimated that there will be a $30,000 increase in the money to be raised this year, some being on account of the 2 mill levy for the soldiers' bonus.

The county court will meet in the circuit court room on December 8, for a discussion of the budget and levy, for or against, by any taxpayer.

The distribution of the levy is as follows: For the payment of state tax, (estimated) 11 mills, which will raise $393,600.

Market road money, 1.5 mills, totaling $41,400.

General road fund, 2.2 mills, totaling $90,720.

High school fund, 1.6 mills, based on all property outside of high school districts, at an estimated valuation of $14,600,000, totaling $23,360.

County school fund, 2.4 mills, totaling $66,240.

Pacific highway interest fund, .9 mills, totaling $24,540.

Crater Lake highway interest fund, .6 mills, netting $16,560.

Bond redemption fund, 1.4 mills, totaling $38,640.

Market road fund, to match state money, 1.5 mills, totaling $41,400.

General fund, which includes the following: Market road tax for state, 1 mill, totaling $27,000.

Other state tax, 10 mills, totaling $276,000.

Expenditure for running county, including redemption of warrants, 5.8 mills, totaling $169,080.

Trained Nurse Advises People

"I was a great sufferer of stomach and liver trouble and cannot say enough in praise of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It has done so much for me and I am recommending it to other sufferers. I was a trained nurse in Marine and other hospitals years ago, therefore many come to me for advice. I certainly received great benefit from Mayr's Wonderful Remedy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists. Adv.

INSURANCE MAN TO ADDRESS THE FORUM TOMORROW

W. C. Schuppel of Portland will address the members forum of the Medford Chamber of Commerce tomorrow at the Holland Hotel. He is on the staff of the Oregon Life Insurance company as agency supervisor and in that capacity has the opportunity to know Oregon and what the state as a whole lacks.

On Monday Mr. Schuppel spoke at the forum of the Grants Pass Chamber of Commerce where he assisted that organization in building up a membership and otherwise gave valuable counsel to the citizens there for the rejuvenation of their chamber, which has been dormant for some time.

The subject of his address has not been announced, but from all accounts he is a fluent speaker and a man who cannot help but interest his audience.

All forums will be held at the Holland Hotel during November.

Just what the public would see if a wall could be ripped from the average home is revealed in Goldwyn's production of Rupert Hughes' story, "Dangerous Curve Ahead," which opens at the Page theatre this afternoon for four days. The photoplay is a depiction of the trials, struggles, triumphs and defeats of early married life presented so sympathetically, so humanly and humorously that one feels he is really looking on at the household of the Harley Joneses with that obstructing fourth wall knocked out.

Heading the cast are Helen Chadwick and Richard Dix, with Maurice B. Flynn, the famous "Lefty" Flynn of Yale athletics, Kate Lester, Edythe Chapman, James Neill and others.

Added features on the bill are "Dog Brownie and Baby Peggy" in a Century comedy, Pathe News and "Betty" (Grace) Brown at the mighty Wurlitzer, playing the Robin Hood overture.

At the Rialto

"The Greatest Love", the latest feature picture which comes to the Rialto theatre tomorrow is said to give a realistic representation of the hardships, joys and sorrows of life as lived in the slums of a large city. In the latter part of the picture is given a glimpse behind the scenes of a musical comedy performance, and danger and disgrace are seen to overtake their victims when all seems to be prosperous and successful. Mother love triumphs where the money of friends and the learning of counsel have failed, and the unexpected climax is said to be both artistic and novel.

Vera Gordon plays the roll of mother similar to that which made her name a household word in "Humoresque." With her in the cast are Sally Cruise, William H. Tooker, Fannie Shelton, and Jessie Simpson. Bobby Connelly and Dot Williams take the children's roles.

MATTHEWS TRIAL SET FOR MONDAY

Raleigh Matthews will go to trial next Monday morning on a charge of second degree murder, arising out of the fatal shooting affray at Eagle Point last September, wherein Wilbur (Wig) Jacks lost his life. This date was set by the court this morning. The trial is expected to last the major portion of the week, with close to 100 witnesses, for and against. The defense will be self-defense.

SELECT JURY FOR BOOTLEGGING CASE AGAINST GOODWIN

The third of the Medford bootleg cases will be called in the circuit court tomorrow against John Goodwin, a taxi driver, charged with selling intoxicating liquor. The chief witness is A. B. Gates, a special agent of the state prohibition forces, who is expected to testify that he purchased a bottle of liquor from Goodwin, after an auto ride to the Applegate. The defense will be represented by attorneys Newbury and Roberts, and the state by District Attorney Rawley Moore. The case is expected to be completed tomorrow morning.

Following this case comes the civil action of F. L. Tou Velle vs. the Farm Bureau Co-operative Exchange for the recovery of $786.28, alleged to be due for the delivery and sale of 733.5 bushels of wheat at $2.33 f. o. b. Portland, or $213 f. o. b. Medford, per bushel. The plaintiff says that the price of wheat was $1,694.96, and that the defendant paid $818.68, leaving the balance for which recovery is sought.

This action will be followed by the trial of James (Shine) Edwards, charged with selling intoxicating liquor, either upon the second count of the indictment against him, or a re-trial of the case in which the jury disagreed.

The first of the Bank of Jacksonville cases scheduled for this term of court will be called at the conclusion of the Matthews case, being the state against Charles Owen.

HALLOWE'EN IS OBSERVED BY MEDFORD BOYS

Those people who are fond of asserting that the old time spirit of Hallowe'en is dead have another guess coming as far as Medford is concerned. The youth of the city were very much alive to the occasion last night, as evidenced by the general ringing of door bells, pounding on doors, carrying away of portable things from yards, innumerable pranks of various kinds, and many Hallowe'en parties.

The younger element had great fun, dressed as spooks, goblins or fairies, parading the streets and every now and then timidly sneaking up on a porch and ringing a door bell, or peering in windows with false faces on. Many gilded lanterns made out of pumpkins with grotesquely carved faces.

Evidence of the doings of the older element was seen in various parts of the city in chairs, boxes and the like hanging on poles, and other portables in equally absurd locations. For instance, on the high school lawn this morning and forenoon reposed a wagon upside down, and flanked by some gates. The school authorities waited all day for the owners to turn up.

On the West side, one feature of the Hallowe'en fun was the shoving of Ku Klux Klan notes under front doors of homes warning the head of the house to leave the city inside of 36 hours under penalty of death to the whole household.

Chief Timothy reports that the pranks were entirely harmless and that no complaints of Hallowe'en trouble were received at police headquarters.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 1.—Official greeting of their "buddies" Marshal Ferdinand Foch and General John J. Pershing occupied a vociferous session of the American Legion national convention this morning. The annual legion parade was to follow this afternoon.

The allied commander in chief and the American general were expected to review the parade in which legionnaires, members of the Grand Army of the Republic, Spanish War Veterans and others would participate.

Immediately after the morning session the memorial of Kansas City for the war dead was dedicated. While the memorial was being dedicated, Kansas City sent to President Warren G. Harding at Washington and to the nation as a whole, a message of peace. The message read by R. G. Long, president of the Liberty Memorial association in the name of Kansas City, will be carried by a dove, the emblem of peace and good will.

The message said: "Greetings Mr. President, greetings of peace and good will from Kansas City.

"We are all assembled in one place and with one accord, consecrating Memorial Hill to the glory of God and the honor of those who won the world war. Foch, the marshal of France, and conqueror of Germany, is here; Diaz, the defender of Italy, is here; Jacques, the redeemer of Belgium is here; Pershing, the American (God keep him) is here; eighty thousand legionnaires, mighty men of valor, are here; fathers and mothers of the glorious fallen are here; wounded and groping heroes are here; the mighty souls of the multitudinous dead are here; the quickened spirit of liberty is here—all in one accord—peace. "In the coming peace council may our glorious country win more glory still by leading the war-weary nations of the earth out of the wilderness of discord and dismay into the Canaan of peace and prosperity."

It was time to wake up, all right

MY BRAIN was busy. BUILDING AIR castles. FOR I wasn't sleepy. FINALLY I dozed off. AND PROMPTLY dreamed. THAT I was awake. BUT WOKE right up. AND FOUND I was asleep. THEN I got thinking. OF A wonderful formula. FOR MAKING cigarettes. I PLANNED it all out. SO MUCH Turkish tobacco. BLINDED JUST so with barley. AND GOT THE formula lost. AND I know that blend. WOULD MAKE a hit. I COULD just see. CROWDS OF happy people. THRONING INTO stores TO BUY that cigarette. THEN LIGHTING up. SMACKING THEIR lips. AND SAYING, "Oh, Boy. IT'S THE exact copy. OF THAT "Satisfy" blend." AND THEN I came to. AND SAID to myself. "THIS TIME you're dreaming. FOR SURE. WAKE UP, you darn fool. WHY, THAT "Satisfy" blend. SIMPLY CAN'T be copied."

THAT'S a fact—the "Satisfy" blend can't be copied. It's our own secret—putting those good tobaccos together in a way that gives you every last ounce of their fragrance. You'll smack your lips over Chesterfields. And remember—you can't get "Satisfy" anywhere else.
