

Local and Personal

Thoughtless boys on Halloween night damaged a number of cars parked on Geneva avenue, whose occupants were attending a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Davis, by drawing lines and designs on the bodies of the autos with hard chalk which scratched through the varnish. Every car will have to be revarnished. Among the cars so damaged were the new Buick Six of J. W. Johnson, the new Packard of Vernon Vawter and the auto of Judge M. Purdin and Ed Trowbridge. Another citizen reported to the police yesterday afternoon that the curtains had been cut off his car Monday night in another part of the city.

Shingles, shakes, Medford Lbr. Co. A coincidence of more than ordinary interest occurred in Madras last Sunday night. Elijah Straub, of Medford, in company with his son-in-law, Clarence Sweeney of Kennewick, Washington, arrived in Madras that evening with a bunch of horses which they were taking from Medford to Kennewick, and pitched camp in the western edge of town. After it became dark they were attracted by the light in the belfry of the Church of Christ and decided to go there and attend services. They were greatly surprised, as they walked into the church, to find Rev. Walter L. Straub, the evangelist, doing the preaching. He is a nephew of Elijah Straub, who is a twin brother of the preacher's father. The only other time they had met in fourteen years was at the funeral of the preacher's father two years ago.—Madras, Ore., Pioneer.

Mrs. Mary Blake SUGGESTS

MY own family is very fond of French toast with jelly or preserves for breakfast. I find it is quickly and easily made by breaking an egg into a bowl and whipping it with a fork, then adding about a half pint of Carnation Milk, stirring until the egg and milk are thoroughly mixed. Dip the slices of bread into this and fry in hot pan with butter.

They will cook to a deliciously rich golden brown and should be served while hot.

If you will send me your name and address, I will mail you a complete set of my Home Cooking Lessons and a book of 100 tested recipes free. Address me care of the California Milk Products Co., 432 Railway Exchange, Portland, Ore.
