

LONG SEARCH IS REWARDED AFTER SEVERAL YEARS

Mrs. Ida Pickett, 274 Division St., Buffalo, N. Y., says:

"Twenty-five years is a long time to keep looking for something without finding it, and it's no wonder I almost lost hope. But I finally found what I was hunting—a medicine to relieve me of an awful case of indigestion."

"Tanlac rewarded my long search for relief, and I now enjoy better health than I have in thirty years."

Many people on verge of despair have taken Tanlac and recovered.

Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by the West Side Pharmacy, and by leading druggists everywhere.

"No-To-Bac" has helped thousands to break the costly, nerve-shattering tobacco habit. Whenever you have a longing for a cigarette, cigar, pipe, or for a chew, just place a harmless No-To-Bac tablet in your mouth instead, to help relieve that awful desire. Shortly the habit may be completely broken, and you are better off mentally, physically, financially. It's so easy, so simple. Get a box of No-To-Bac and if it doesn't release you from all craving for tobacco, in any form, your druggist will refund your money without question.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

John Daley of Josephine County has been here the past few days looking after his interests in this section.

W. J. Pickler and S. M. Loonan of Medford, were here for dinner last Friday. They are working in the interest of the Standard Oil company.

Mr. Loren Miller and Wilbur Ashpole were here looking after business interests and stopped at the S. S. for dinner.

M. S. Chappell, our old shoe cobbler, who closed his shop last spring and went into the sawmill business near Trail with Messrs. Zimmerly and Adamson has returned to his shop again, and has come to the conclusion that he can do better at cobbling than at the sawmill business.

L. L. Lasier who is representing the Oregon Granite Co. of Medford was out here trying to do business with some of our citizens who have lost their relatives or friends.

Charles Manning and John Brophy of Peyton were here for dinner last Friday and so was F. S. Wisdom of Medford.

H. E. Warner of Medford, the blight inspector for this district was here for dinner Friday also E. V. Peterson and daughter Edna and Miss Mamie Poole of Trail and Mrs. Wm. Perry, wife of our road supervisor, and J. W. Scott of Medford and D. Fuller of Eugene City. They are representatives of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. Mr. Scott is the local agent and Mr. Fuller, the manager for Southern Oregon. This was Mr. Fuller's first trip to Eagle Point and decidedly fell in love with this part of the country and seems to think that our little town has a bright future.

Mrs. John Rader and daughter Mrs. Harvey Stanley were also doing business with our merchants Friday.

Mrs. A. C. Spence of Brownsboro came out Friday to meet her husband who came in from a business trip to Colwell, Idaho, and they went on up home that night.

Friday night Robert Edmondson, T. A. Whaley, Guss Edmondson, Robert Coffman, George Albert and H. L. Cox all of Butte Falls, spent the night at the S. S. hotel. All of them except Geo. Albert are working on the Pacific and Eastern R. R. repairing it so as to haul material over it for the extension of the road from E. F. to the timber belt on Four Hit creek.

W. H. and E. D. O'Brien of B. F. were passengers on the stage for home Saturday morning.

Pete Stoddard also of B. F. was a passenger on the stage.

Mr. Hoagland of C. P. who owns a farm on the old Obenchain road from Brownsboro to B. F. and Ralph Tucker of Brownsboro were here Saturday on his way home from Jacksonville where Tucker had been on jury duty. He was one of the four who was on the jury in the Edwards case but said that the main witness for the state was of such a character that they, the four jurymen who hung the jury in the case, did not believe a word he said so held out for acquittal.

G. E. Merrill and P. R. Wymore, wife and son and Charles Humphrey, all of Derby were here for dinner Saturday on their way home.

Wm. Perry and wife and his mother, Mrs. F. M. Stewart, were guests at the Sunnyside, the three last mentioned are of our old, old acquaintances having known them for the last forty or fifty years when we were young.

Zura Dahack formerly of the Derby country but now of Medford was here Monday visiting his nephew, Ernest Dahack our barber, and attending to business affairs.

B. S. Baker was a business caller having brought in a truck load of wood for some of our townsmen.

Speaking on the subject of wood it appears from the amount of wood that has been brought in during the past summer and this fall it seems as though every one ought to be supplied with wood and yet there is a constant influx of wood of all kinds, stove wood, cord wood, block wood and even some of the people are selecting the very rich pitch pine and fir pieces for kindling wood for the cold winter mornings, and it appears that it will not be as it was last winter a serious scarcity of wood, for on account of the early and continuous rains early in the season it caught quite a number of our people with out enough to last them until mid-winter and if it had not been that arrangements were made to get it out on the P. & E. R. R. there would have been a wood famine.

Mrs. E. L. Schmidding of Ashland, who is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Butler, came in from the Butler farm Monday and went to Medford and back on the Lewis jitney.

J. G. Hannaford, wife and son were in town on business Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Hannaford are tenants on the C. H. Natwick farm on the P. & E. R. R. northeast of here.

Charles Mathews recently of Montana was a business caller Monday and so was Wm. Mussall of L. C. he was on his way down to Timmy Dugan to get seed wheat.

E. X. Anderson and F. J. Kingmen and Bremond Witcher were here for dinner Monday. Mr. Kingman is a representative of the Medford Exchange and Mr. Witcher is an auto salesman of Medford.

Chris Beale of our forest rangers,

Wm. von der Hellen and son Hugo, Jr., and Mr. Andrew Swanson were here for supper Monday eve.

Mr. Walter Roth who is canvassing the county selling Watkins remedies came in and spent the night and Chris Beale also has remained until late Wednesday. Geo. H. Yeo of Ashland and C. L. Goff of Medford, the two men who represent the Fire Relief Association were here for dinner Tuesday.
