often referred to as the Lloyd George of the empire. He had achieved among other things a kind of working co-operation between the military and civic elements of the government.

EDITOR WHITEHEAD GOES TO NEW YORK

L. O. Whitehead, of Ashland, who has interests in New York city that demand his attention leaves about the 15th for that city. Mr. Whitehead has only been in Ashland a few months but has proven himself to be a live wire young man, and is well liked by his business associates and many friends. He started the Square Deal, against severe odds, several months ago, as a weekly paper and later made it a semi-weekly, and a new paper. Other interests have taken over the paper. Mr. Whitehead regrets giving up the newspaper as he likes the work, and says he will no doubt return later to the Rogue River valley, the garden spot of the world.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—As a result of the death of Premier Hara, it was announced today Sennosuke Yokota, chief of the Japanese legislative bureau and attached to the armament delegation of that country, will return to Tokyo. Mr. Yokota was said to have been the late premier's "right hand man" in legislative matters.

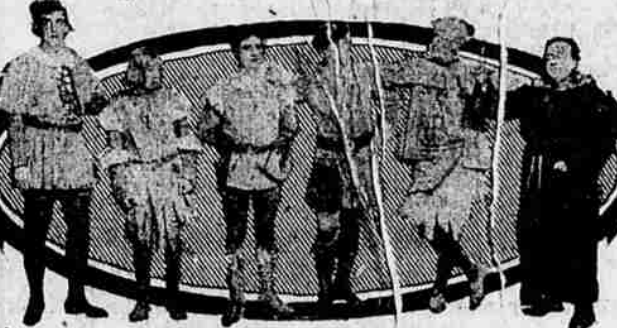

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Caleb Bragg, chairman of the contest committee of the Aero club of America, announced today that the time of 176.7 miles an hour made by Bert Acosta at Omaha yesterday was the world's record for a competitive flight if the figures were correct. The previous record, he said was 173 miles an hour, made by Lieutenant Georges Kirsch in France flying for the Meurthe cup last October.
