

The Weather

Maximum yesterday...64
Minimum today...34
Unsettled weather and prob-

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

Predictions

able rain Sunday.

MEDFORD, OREGON, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1921

NO. 195

TIGERS BEAT CRIMSON BY 10-3 SCORE

After Holding Princeton Scoreless for 3 Periods Harvard Weakens in Final Quarter After Gilroy Runs 65 Yards for a Touchdown — Keck Scores Place Kick.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 4.—Princeton defeated Harvard 10 to 3 in their annual football classic today, a last minute sensational offense overcoming the Crimson's lead. All the scoring was in the last period.

After Owen of Harvard had scored a drop kick, Gilroy, Princeton's left half back, joined the galaxy of Tiger heroes by running 65 yards for a touchdown when he received a forward pass. Later Keck made a 62 yard place kick and Princeton was on the way to Harvard's goal line again when the game ended.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 5.—Palmer stadium here was filled to capacity today when Harvard and Princeton met in their annual football game. About 52,000 persons saw Lourie of Princeton kick off. Harvard was forced to punt after three plays and a punting battle was on.

Neither team got nearer the coveted goal line than the 20 yard mark in the first period. Princeton tried the forward pass, Lourie to Stinson, but the play failed when Stinson, on Harvard's one yard line, dropped the ball and the pass was declared incomplete. For Harvard the forward pass was twice used, Buell to Pitts, the first time netting a 25 yard gain.

Harvard started off fast in the second period and took the ball to Princeton's five yard line. Then a fumble and a recovery were followed by four plays without gain and Harvard lost the ball. Lourie ran 13 yards and then there was an exchange of punts after which Princeton smashed its way to Harvard's 25 yard mark. Three Harvard passes were completed and three Princeton plays gained little. The period ended when Lourie punted to Harvard's 43 yard line.

Owen returned to the game for Harvard in the third period and Grew replaced Hubbard. Both the Harvard and Princeton offenses proved futile and Lourie punted to midfield.

Gratwick replaced Coburn for Harvard. Lourie ran eight yards to Harvard's 30 yard line. Princeton lost on down two inches from the goal line. Harvard scored a field goal in the fourth period, when Owen, standing on the 35 yard line, booted the ball over the cross bar.

After the ensuing kickoff Princeton made a touchdown.

The kickoff was run back by Cleaves 13 yards from his 15 yard line. Lourie gained six yards and then a forward pass from Snively to Gilroy made the touchdown. Gain on the play was about 65 yards.

BIG 5 THREATEN ANOTHER STRIKE

CLEVELAND, Nov. 5.—The "big five" railroad brotherhoods will revive the strike vote and use it if necessary if the promises of the railroad labor board made to the brotherhood chiefs just before the threatened general railroad strike was called off last week are not carried out, according to a memorandum which has been mailed to all general and local chairmen and members of the five organizations, it was learned today.

LIMITED TO 100 BEER BLANKS, 3 MONTHS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Despite new treasury regulations allowing physicians to issue an unlimited number of prescriptions for beer, they will be held to the old maximum of 100 prescriptions every three months, whether the doctors prescribe whiskey, wine or beer, Commissioner Haynes announced today. He added that he saw no reason for changing the old rule.

A decrease of about $12,000,000 in taxes collected on non-beverage distilled spirits during July, August and September, as compared with the corresponding months of last year, was announced today by Mr. Haynes.

LaFollette Demands Retirement Sec'y. of The Treasury Mellon

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Retirement of Secretary Mellon as "the fiscal head of the government," was demanded in the senate today by Senator LaFollette, republican, Wisconsin, because of the attitude which the Wisconsin senator said the treasury head held toward "the taxation of wealth." Mr. LaFollette asserted that Mr. Mellon had "openly and brazenly" declared that wealth could not be made to bear its share of the burden of the government.

SELLER BOOTLEG IN JAIL, BUYER GIVEN FREEDOM

A notable feature of the latest bootleg case in Medford is that the buyer of the booze turned state's evidence, and as a result Henry C. Young of Pine street, this city was bound over to the grand jury under $500 in Justice Taylor's court yesterday afternoon on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor.

N. W. Weaver, a Medford painter, who bought the booze and so testified in court under the law goes free, as the law provides that where a liquor purchaser testifies against the man from whom he made the purchase, he cannot be prosecuted for his part in the transaction.

Chief of Police Timothy is responsible for turning up this case. Several days ago the chief, noticing that Weaver had been drinking and seeing him about town suspected that he was on the lookout to obtain some more liquor. Accordingly he watched closely and on seeing him in an auto licensed by Young followed him down an alley in the business district when he left the car, and found him with a quart bottle of moonshine beneath his coat.

On Weaver's statement that he had bought the moonshine from Young, paying $7 therefor, it being delivered to him in the auto at the corner of North Front and 6th streets, the first department corner, and his promise to appear in court and to testify when county prosecutor Moore could try the case, he was permitted his freedom, and Young was placed under arrest.

County Attorney Moore still being too busy to appear in the case against Weaver yesterday, that official delegated Attorney George Coddling to appear in the case as his representative. Attorney George M. Roberts appeared in defense of Young. At first Young's bail was fixed at $1000, and on Attorney Roberts' plea that Young had a family which needed his support, the bond was finally reduced to $500. It has not yet been furnished and ever since his arrest Young has been confined in the county jail.

JACKSONVILLE BANK CASES TO CONCLUDE THIS TERM COURT

The first of the Bank of Jacksonville failure cases for the present term of the circuit court will be called the week of November 14th, and will be alternated with the bootleg indictments still on the calendar, which will be rearranged by the court after the Matthews trial, so as to secure the highest efficiency of service from the jury list.

The court holds that it is needless expense to try any more bootleg cases with the present jury list, and a new venire will be called.

Among the bank cases scheduled are those of R. D. Hines, whose trial has been hanging fire for months, Mrs. Myrtle Blakeley, former county treasurer, whose trials twice resulted in disagreements, Charles H. Owen, former orchardist, now of Salt Lake City, and Chester C. Kubli, Applegate stockman, and member of a pioneer Oregon family.

William H. Johnson, former cashier of the defunct institution, now serving a ten year sentence, will be brought from Salem as a witness. Assistant Attorney General Lilqvist, former district attorney of Coos county, will assist the state in the prosecution. Among the attorneys for the defendants are A. E. Reames, Porter J. Neff, Gus Newbury and Herbert Hanna.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—The University of Iowa cross country team defeated the University of Minnesota team here today 28 to 27. Captain Rustine crossing the line first. The time for the four and a half miles was 26:52 2-5.

Leading Stars on Crimson Team Defeated Today by Princeton

Forward passing has been developed by football coaches to the point where there is no positive defense against the aerial plays. To better mask the offensive the coaches are continually striving to develop what is known as "threat" players, versatile stars who can run, kick and pass with equal skill and in a way that the opposing team cannot easily tell what is coming next. In this, quarterback and Owen, fullback, Harvard has two of the best "threat players." Captain Kane, left tackle, is another star. Owen is shown above at the left. Buell in the center and Kane at the right.

SENTENCE LEWIS TO ONE YEAR IN THE COUNTY JAIL

John H. (Ham) Lewis, who pleaded guilty to a charge of receiving and concealing stolen goods, in connection with the burglary by boys of the National Guard quarters in the Natatorium, was sentenced to serve one year in the county jail, and pay the costs, by Circuit Judge F. M. Calkins this morning. Lewis will be paroled, but a provision of it will be that he turn over his earnings to his mother.

After pleas for leniency had been made in behalf of Lewis by Attorney Gus Newbury, and District Attorney Moore had informed the court, that other members of the gang, had appeared "cocky" after parole, the court passed sentence, which was followed by a stern lecture to the defendant.

"It has come to the attention of your mother," said Judge Calkins, "that your mother has been taking in washing to support you and your father, and it is now up to you to either starve or work, for she is getting old, and needs the help of a big strapping boy like you. If someone can be found, to whom you can be paroled, and will satisfy the court that your earnings will be turned over to your mother, you may be paroled.

"That is not the crime with which you are charged before this bar, but in my mind it is the worse crime. You are on the wrong trail, and if you follow it, you will be eventually removed from circulation, and retired from public life for some time. I assure you that if you ever come before me again, it will give me great pleasure to sentence you to as long a term as possible.

"You will be given a chance to make a man of yourself, and there is not a person in the sound of my voice who will not help you, but it rests with yourself.

"You will now be remanded to the custody of the sheriff, to await any further action in your case."

PORTLAND MILL HAS BIG GOVERNMENT ORDER

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4.—The big cereal mill of Albers Brothers is now running at full capacity in order to facilitate a big order just received from the U. S. Government. This order is for two thousand tons of four million pounds of oats which are to be shipped from Portland to Honolulu and the Philippine Islands for government use.

MORIS THOMSEN, a well-known financial and milling man of the Pacific northwest, was recently elected president of Albers Brothers Milling company. Mr. Thomsen is president of the Pacific Coast Biscuit company, Continental Flouring Mills, Denny Renton Clay and Coal company and other large interests in Portland, Seattle, San Francisco, and Los Angeles.

JACK'S LETTERS TO MATTHEWS TO BE FEATURE OF TRIAL

The trial of Raleigh Matthews, Eagle Point farmer boy, charged with second degree murder, as the result of the alleged fatal shooting of Wilbur (Wig) Jacks at Eagle Point last September, will begin in the circuit court next Monday, and the selection of the jury, and hearing of the evidence in the case is expected to take all week. There will be no session of the court next Friday, Armistice Day, and it is hoped to have the case in the jury's hands by that time.

The county court has detailed Attorney Porter J. Neff to assist the district attorney's office in arranging the evidence and legal details, but he will take no part in the trial, other than this. The defense will be represented by Attorney Charles Reames of the law firm of Reames and Reames.

Over two score witnesses will be called by the prosecution and defense but most of their testimony will be short, and most of them are from the Eagle Point District, where the two principals in the tragedy lived most of their lives. Letters said to have been written by Jacks to the defendant and imploring him to leave the country, will be introduced, as evidence, it is said.

The present jury panel will be used in securing a jury, but it may be necessary to call a new venire.

Matthews, who has been in the county jail, since the fatal affray, awaits the crisis of his life with a calm assurance, that has been characteristic of his manner since incarceration, and he is visited daily by friends and relatives.

FOOTBALL SCORES

- At Philadelphia: Final—LaFayette 38; Pennsylvania 6.
At West Point: Final—Notre Dame 28; Army 0.
At Forbes Field, Pittsburg: Final—Nebraska 10; Pittsburg 0.
At Annapolis: Final—Navy 6; Bucknell 0.
At Montreal: Final—Syracuse 13; McGill 0.
At New York: Final—Cornell 41; Columbia 7.
At New Haven: Final—Yale 28; Maryland 0.
At LaFayette, Ind., final—Perdue 3; Northwestern 0.
At Detroit, final—University of Detroit 21; Springfield Y. M. C. A. college 0.
At Stags Field, Chicago, final—Chicago 6; Ohio State 7.
At Pullman, end first period—Oregon 6; W. S. C. 7.
At Northrop Field, final—Iowa 41; Minnesota 7.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 5.—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America notified the union mine workers in Pennsylvania that it would be well to avoid the strike called for Monday if the operators gave assurance of complying with yesterday's order of the federal court of appeals in the check-off system. Orders were also sent Indiana miners officials, Mr. Lewis said.

GOODWIN JURY DISCHARGED, 8 TO 4, ACQUITTAL

The jury in the case of John Goodwin, taxi driver, charged with selling intoxicating liquor, was discharged at midnight Friday night, after fifteen hours' deliberation, in which they were unable to agree. The vote stood eight for acquittal, and four for conviction, and the halting several times was nine for acquittal and three for conviction.

This is the second disagreement to arise at this term of court in the bootlegging cases, the other being the trial of James (Shine) Edwards, charged with the same offense.

Unwillingness of the jurors to accept the uncorroborated testimony of co-called "stoop-pigeon" evidence was the reason given by witnesses in the case for the disagreement. The principal state witness against Goodwin was A. B. Gates, a special detective.

Most of the jurors when questioned by the court before discharge were of the opinion that they were hopelessly disagreed, but Mike F. Hanley requested the court to keep them "locked up" for 24 hours, under the belief they could come to a decision.

The joyride to Crater Lake at county expense by Detective Gates, described vividly by witnesses in the James (Shine) Edwards case, influenced the jury, according to a statement made in open court this morning, though it had nothing to do with the Goodwin case, nor was it a part of the testimony. The court stated the "jury argued vociferously about it," and said that it was useless and "needless expense" to try any more bootleg cases with the present jury panel.

COLOMBIA OPPOSITION TO $25,000,00 TREATY

BOGOTA, Colombia, Nov. 5.—Opposition to approval of the treaty between Colombia and the United States has arisen in the chamber of deputies. The senate already has approved the pact, providing for payment of $25,000,000 to this country in settlement of the Panama controversy. It is pointed out by opponents of the treaty that, as it stands, it does not guarantee any compromise obtained by Colombia. Senor Urueta, Colombia's minister in Washington, is expected to arrive here next week and is believed to be bringing a message of amity from President Harding.

PEAK NAMED AFTER FRANKLIN K. LANE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The memory of the late Franklin K. Lane, for nearly eight years secretary of the interior, is to be perpetuated through one of the loftiest peaks in the Teton range within Mount Rainier National park. The department of interior announced today that the geographic board had decided to name the peak Mount Lane. It has an altitude of 6009 feet, rising one third of a mile northwest of Cliff Lake, in Pierce county.

German Mark Nearly Disappears, Allies to Send Envoys to Berlin

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—German marks today fell to the lowest level in history, 0.3925 cents.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—The entire reparations committee including Roland W. Boyden, the unofficial member for the United States, will leave for Berlin next Monday or Tuesday. The commission will remain in the German capital two or three weeks to investigate measures by which Germany may procure the necessary funds to meet the payment of $500,000,000 gold marks, due to the allies January 15, 1922. It also will investigate the causes for the recent depreciation in the value of the German mark.

WOLGAMOTT IS GIVEN 90 DAYS AND $400 FINE

Ernest S. (Dud) Wolgamott, convicted by a jury in the circuit court a week ago on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor, was sentenced to serve three months in the county jail, and pay a fine of $400 by Judge F. M. Calkins in the circuit court this morning. Two more indictments on similar charges hang over Wolgamott.

Attorney Roberts for Wolgamott, upon passing of sentence, filed a motion for a new trial, and asked for 90 days' extension of time for this purpose. The court allowed 30 days, with the proviso that if further time was needed it would be granted. In case of a denial of a new trial, an appeal will be taken to the supreme court. The present bail of $1000 cash was continued.

Wolgamott said nothing in his own behalf. District Attorney Moore informed the court that Wolgamott had been convicted of a similar offense in the justice court at Medford, which he said had failed to act as a deterrent to the defendant, and had no recommendations to make to the court.

The court in passing sentence said that there were "no mitigating circumstances" as in other crimes where hunger or passion might play a part, and that "many of the jurors at the present term of court had gained the impression that the defendant was the principal factor in the bootlegging case, and others so charged had merely acted as agents or procurers for him."

The court then imposed sentence.

GIRL IN ARBUCKLE CASE IS FOUND

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—District Attorney Brady announced on a return from a hurried trip to Oakland today that Alice Blake, missing prosecution witness in the Roseoe (Fatty) Arbuckle case had been found, and would appear to testify in the manslaughter trial when wanted.

She disappeared a few days ago from the custody of an attaché of his office at Callistoga, where she had been since the preliminary hearing of the complaint against the film comedian. Brady refused to say where he had found Miss Blake, but said he had served a subpoena on her.

HIGHWAYMEN FRISK MT. WILSON STAGE

PASADENA, Nov. 5.—As the Mount Wilson stage swung around a bend in the steep climb to the Carnegie observatory on the summit near here today, two masked men, dressed in overalls, sprang from behind some bushes. Revolvers in hand, they halted the vehicle, lined up the driver and twelve passengers, exacted cash totalling several hundred dollars and jewelry of value from their victims and waved the stage on its way.

It was a wild west holdup in every particular but one. The stage was a motor bus. Glass blowing by machinery has been developed since 1894.

JAP CABINET RESIGNS ON HARA DEATH

Mere Matter of Form Is Official Explanation—Details of the Tragedy Given Out—Deported Youth Responsible—Attacked Premier at Railroad Station.

TOKIO, Nov. 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Japanese cabinet resigned office after a meeting of the members held this morning.

Admiral Baron Aiko, one of the Japanese delegates to the armament conference, acting in accord with other members of the Hara cabinet, today cabled his resignation as minister of marine to Tokio. The resignation of the cabinet, it was explained by Japanese here, was wholly a matter of form and without significance.

Details of Tragedy Premier Hara, it develops from details of Friday's tragic events, never spoke after the first onset of the assassin. The premier arrived at the station, where he was to take a train for Kioto, ten minutes before the train was due to leave and the station master invited the premier and his party to rest in the station office for a moment.

Between this office and the gate through which passengers reach the platform is the station blackboard, and it was behind this blackboard that the assassin was lurking, as the premier emerged from the office and approached the gate.

Darting out from behind his shelter the youth came immediately into contact with his victim and thrust his knife into the premier's breast close to the heart.

The premier collapsed instantly, falling to the floor without a sound. Friends carried him to the station master's office, and a physician who was a member of the party gave him immediate medical attention.

The premier, however, could not be revived, and died within an hour without regaining consciousness. His wife, who had been summoned directly after the incident, reached the station too late to see him alive.

Shortly afterward the body was removed to his home, around which for blocks bonfires and lanterns lighted the streets, while officials and friends streamed to the residence to offer condolences.

During the evening an emissary from the imperial household brought word to the home that the late premier had been raised to the first grade of the second rank of the imperial court.

The American embassy in Tokio, in a cablegram dated 11 a. m., Saturday and received by the state department today, said that the Japanese planned to meet Saturday and that Baron Uchida would succeed the late Premier Hara at least temporarily.

The assassination of Premier Hara, the dispatch said, caused nothing approximating disorders or disturbance in the Japanese capital.

TOKIO, Nov. 5.—(By Associated Press.) The Japanese ministry, deprived of its head through the knife of an assassin yesterday, when Premier Hara was stabbed to death by a demented youth, was continuing to function today under Viscount Uchida, the foreign minister, to whose designation as acting premier the imperial approval was given at the palace shortly after the tragedy. Within an hour after the assassination of the premier the cabinet met in extraordinary session, Viscount Uchida presiding. Immediately upon the conclusion of the cabinet session Viscount Uchida accompanied by Minister of the Interior Tokomami went to the palace and said the imperial approval to the designation of the viscount as temporary premier, which had been decided upon at the cabinet session.

Assassin a Samurai Scant information was available at first regarding the identity of the fourth at whose hands the premier fell but it became known today that the assassin was a son of a former member of the Samurai, or soldier class, constituting the lower nobility under the Japanese feudal system who had been a man of importance during the restoration period. The assassin, it appears was of an erratic nature, and is regarded as a political fanatic. He was arrested immediately after the stabbing. Tsunajima, who was escorting Premier Hara, was badly cut on the arms and hands in disarming the assassin.

(Continued on page six.)